ANOTHER STORM SWEPT THE CITY AND THIS SECTION

Much Loss to Property Resulted and Many Persons Were Injured, at Least Three Being Fatally Hurt.

TOW-STEAMER VESTA WAS CAPSIZED IN MONONGAHELA

A severe storm, brief in duration but destructive while it lasted, visited Pittsburgh and vicinity late yesterday afternoon. The storm did not last over 15 minutes, but in that time much property was destroyed and many people injured. Three of these are likely to die. Another towboat was capsized in the Monongahela, houses were unroofed and trees denuded of leaves and branches by the wind, rain and hail. Wires were torn down, cellars, sewers and small streams flooded and the familiar incidents of two previous storms during April were almost exactly duplicated. A partial list of the injured follows:

JOHN STITTS, 30 years of age, driver of lumber wagon, Braddock; thrown from wagon and run over; fatally injured.

WILLIAM FISTERER, 13 years of age, East Pittsburgh; skull fractured by brick blown from chimney; probably fatal.

JAMES EDEBURN, electrician, No. 1 Brighton Place, Allegheny, thrown from emergency wagon of Pittsburgh Railways Company at Washington avenue and Tremont street; skull fractured; fatal.

JOSEPH STEBHAM, 38 years, laborer, Frederick and Shimmer streets, Allegheny, caught in collapse of house on Woodland avenue; serious.

WILLIAM CONLEY, Jones avenue, North Braddock; riding bicycle, blinded by dust and struck by street car; arm crushed.

Had a Hurricane Force.

Yesterday's storm broke with hurricane force over the startled city about 5:40 yesterday evening. It lasted for 10 or 15 minutes, during which time it managed to do quite a bit of damage, principally in the suburbs. Houses were blown down and unroofed and many persons were injured. The new tow steamer Vesta was tipped over as cleanly as though she had been picked up by some giant hand. A heavy hailstorm accompanied the storm in some sections and much damage was done in the Allegheny valley.

Everywhere the sudden outbreak of the storm caused great inconvenience to hundreds of people who were on their way home from work just when it broke. The people crowded on street cars or sought shelter in store doors to wait until it abated.

The Vesta was towing five barges from the Jones & Laughlins landing to the fourth pool to be stocked with coal, and then returned to the works for unloading. She was proceeding up the river and when near the Glenwood bridge was struck by the storm and immediately started to careen. She carried a crew of 15 people, all of whom escaped without any injury, after clinging to the wreckage for some time.

Crew Was Prepared.

The list of officers and crew is as follows: Capt. Ollie A. Robinson, Becks Run; Robert Elsey, pilot, of Ruthergien street, Hazelwood; John Meyers, mate, of lock No. 4; Louis D. Cooper of Geneva, chief engineer; George Abbott of Tecumseh street, Hazelwood, second engineer; Albert Holtzinger of Coraopolis, steward; Garrett Ackinclose, watchman; Carl Watson and Samuel Morgan, firemen; Joe Cocaine, Lash Pancoast and Albert Lynch, deck hands; two unknown deck hands and a chambermaid, a total of 15 persons.

The steamer was coming up stream at a fair rate of speed, pushing five large empty coal barges. She was making good progress, and was just crossing the stream from the further shore to keep in with the channel when the storm hit her. She started to list to the larboard side, but her captain kept her engines going, as it was on that side she was tied to her tow.

A few people who had been asleep were hurriedly awakened. Then every member of the crew prepared for trouble, which was not long in coming. The boat ran possibly 500 yards before she went clear over, and when she did her crew were all ready and managed to climb up onto the upper side and clung there until the violence of the storm had blown over.

Rescue Came Quickly.

People on shore had seen the accident and as soon as the waves had subsided enough to permit, John Green of Lytel street, Hazelwood, launched a skiff and started out to rescue the people, without knowing who they were. He was much surprised to learn when he got to the boat that it was the Vesta and that he knew many of the people working on her.

He managed to take about half the crew to shore in one trip and the rest in a second trip. No person was hurt. They were taken to a boathouse along the shore, where dry clothes were provided for them, and they were made comfortable.

The Titan came down the river within a half hour after the accident had happened and tied up alongside the wrecked boat, where she stayed all night.

The Vesta is a steel-hull steamer, recently built by James Rees & Sons in Duquesne way. She cost about $50,000 and was considered one of the finest towboats on the river. She was launched on January 10 and was designed by Capt. Warren Elsey. She is owned by the Vesta Coal Company, one of the subsidiary concerns of Jones & Laughlins, and is the only steel-hull coal-tow steamer on the rivers. She has 16 water-tight compartments and was regarded as practically impregnable from the ordinary accidents which happen to river craft. She was fitted with modern engines and was in every way an entirely new and up-to-date boat. She has just been having her boilers cleaned for the summer at the Jones & Laughlins landing. The boat fell on one barge of her tow, which broke off her stacks.

It is expected that the boat will be righted by this evening, as rivermen living along the shore say that she is upset within less than half a mile of where the Tom Jones of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company went down last year, and she was righted within six hours.

Soho Was Flooded.

The Soho district had its usual flood, but no serious damage resulted. At Fifth avenue and Brady street the water from the surrounding hills poured down in torrents, tying up the car lines and covering Fifth avenue with mud to a depth of several feet. Nearly a dozen cellars were flooded, but as the occupants of the houses are always prepared for such an occurrence, the loss will be trifling. The traction company put men to work at once clearing the tracks of mud and had the street open in half an hour. The mud was thrown to one side and piled against the curbstone and the street and sidewalks were almost impassable last night.

The Oakland and East End districts did not suffer much from the effects of the storm, although scores of shade trees were blown down by the wind. The only

THE SAND CURE FULLY AS ROUGH AS WATER CURE

In a Philippine Debate Red Shirt Cruelties Engage Senators.

POLITICAL TERRORS IN NORTH CAROLINA

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., May 2.—A lively debate was precipitated in the senate today by some remarks Mr. Pritchard of North Carolina made on political methods in North Carolina, in the course of a discussion of the Philippine bill. He suggested that some of the methods employed by the opponents of the bill in this country ought to be reformed, and told of what is called the "sand cure" in North Carolina, the victim having his face crushed into the sand to stifle his cries while he was being beaten to intimidate him politically.

Mr. Simmons, also of North Carolina, declared that he never heard of such a practice, and the debate concerning North Carolina politics was fully launched.

Mr. Pritchard charged that the "red shirts" rode over the state to terrorize Republican voters. Mr. Simmons denied that statement and insisted that the "red shirts" never had committed any unlawful act, and as a matter of fact intended only to organize the voters of the state.

The debate waxed warm, Mr. Pritchard declaring that he had been approached by an emissary of the Democratic party with a proposition to drop the impeachment proceedings against Republican judges in North Carolina if he would nolle prosequi cases pending in the courts against certain Democrats for election frauds. Mr. Simmons unqualifiedly denied that such a proposition had been made by authority of the Democratic party.

HOME-COMING WAS SAD.

Greensburg Pastor Returns from the Holy Land Too Late to See Daughter Alive.

GREENSBURG, PA., May 2.—(Special.)—The home coming of the Rev. Dr. A. L. Yont, who was a member of the Celtic party from Western Pennsylvania, was a sad one. He came in on an early train this morning to find his 10-year-old daughter dead.

The scene at the railroad station and at the home of the minister was affecting. Three days ago the little girl was stricken with spinal meningitis. Every means in the power of the physicians was brought to bear in an effort to prolong her life until the father could arrive, but she died before he returned. The child was buried this afternoon.

FOUR BAD MEN GO TO PRISON AFTER FACING A CAMERA

Men Arrested in Allegheny Suspected of Committing Recent Burglaries Are in Jail.

ARE PARTLY IDENTIFIED

Michael Griffin, Harry Kuntz, Harry Kennedy and Frank Kennedy, four of the men arrested in Allegheny on suspicion of having been engaged in the safe-cracking affair at Daub & Pressler's store in Crafton early last Wednesday morning, and who are believed to have had a hand in several other recent burglaries hereabouts, were photographed yesterday morning by Detective Leon Einstein, who, despite the poor facilities he had in the cramped quarters at the Allegheny police station, secured excellent results. The men made no efforts to keep from being properly photographed. David Brown, who was also arrested on suspicion of being a member of the gang, was released. He is in the last stages of consumption, apparently.

After the quartet had been photographed they were sent to the Allegheny county jail. Superintendent Henry Muth of the Allegheny police is certain that the four men are thievees and burglars and that their actions since their capture confirm his belief.

J. Heinemann, proprietor of the Norwood hotel, Bridgeville, whose place was broken into on April 17, called at the Allegheny police station yesterday to look at the prisoners. He said he felt certain that Harry Kennedy is the man he saw going out of the hotel just after the safe was exploded. Heinemann said two of his guests also saw the burglars and he promised to send them into the city to look at the prisoners in the hope that they can assist in identifying them.

The four prisoners still refuse to talk. A letter was found on Kuntz. The writer stated that he was boarding on Frederick street and wanted to know why Kuntz did not write. Policeman Charles Busha went to the Frederick street house and found that the occupants were reputable persons and did not know Kuntz. Muth says the letter was written by Kuntz to mislead the police in case he should be arrested.

Superintendent Muth, who is a member of the Association of Police Chiefs of the United States, intends sending the photographs and histories of the four prisoners, so far as they are known, to the headquarters in Washington to learn if possible more about the men. County Detective R. G. Robinson now has the men in charge, acting under instructions from District Attorney John C. Haymaker.

MRS. BURDETTE QUITS THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

LOS ANGELES, CAL., May 2.—The political feature of the club women's convention is the withdrawal tonight of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette of California from the presidential race. This assures the election of Mrs. Denison of New York to that office, with Mrs. Burdette's chances for first vice president excellent.

A pretty event of the day was the flower parade. Mrs. Lowe, the president, rode in a victoria, which had been decorated by the Friday Morning club with 3,000 pink roses, and was accompanied by Miss Jessie Fremont, daughter of Gen. John C. Fremont, the pathfinder, attended by eight outriders in white.

Mrs. Kendrick, corresponding secretary, reported the total number of clubs in the federation to be 763, an increase of 225 since the last biennial. An attempt to raise the color question was promptly squelched. The treasurer reported more than $10,000 in the treasury.

QUAY MAY MAKE AN ATTEMPT TO WIN CAMERON

Last Effort to Induce the Ex-Senator to Be a Candidate.

DEMOCRATS LABOR WITH RIDGWAY MAN

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Philadelphia, Pa., May 2.—Senator Quay arrived from Washington this evening. He was visited at the Hotel Stratford by Justice J. Hay Brown, Senator Penrose, Commissioner Durham, State Senator John Fox and Internal Revenue Collector Hershey.

Senator Quay said there was nothing in the gubernatorial situation on which he desired to be quoted. He will remain in Philadelphia until tomorrow night.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—(Special.)—Senator Quay left this afternoon for Philadelphia. It is possible that the two senators and other friends may spend the Sunday at Donegal with ex-Senator Cameron and make a final effort to induce him to enter the contest for governor.

During the last 36 hours there have been several conferences here between representative Democrats from Pennsylvania. Among those who came down from the state were ex-State Chairman Garman of Wilkesbarre and James Denton Hancock of Franklin. Both spent some time with Representative Hall of Ridgway and endeavored to persuade him to accept the Democratic nomination for governor. Representatives Mutchler of Easton and Green of Reading also joined their efforts with the others.

Mr. Hall was assured that he would be nominated and elected, owing to Republican discord caused by the determination of the Stone machine to keep Elkin in the gubernatorial race. Mr. Hall declined to commit himself, but promised to consider the matter. Editor Bailey of the Johnstown Democrat is to arrive here tomorrow to bring his persuasive powers to bear upon Mr. Hall.

HARRISBURG, PA., May 2.—(Special.)—The indications are that the Republican state convention, to be held in this city on June 11, will be the largest in the history of the party. All the choice rooms at the leading hotels already have been engaged. At the Commonwealth Robert Ostermaier has engaged quarters for 50 Allegheny county delegates and political workers. He wanted more rooms, but could not get them.

Columbus gets the 1903 convention, receiving the votes of 111 delegates, while St. Louis received 62 and Terre Haute, Ind., 9. President Shaffer, Secretary Williams and J. P. Sheridan of Cleveland were elected delegates to the Federation of Labor convention.

FORTUNE IN JEWELS. STOLEN AND HIDDEN IN OLD ASH CART

Butler Robs His Employer's Family for Whom He Had Worked for Eleven Years.

POLICE GET CONFESSION

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, May 2.—Fifty thousand dollars' worth of jewelry, consisting of 13 pieces set with 100 diamonds, more than 400 pearls, besides amethysts and emeralds, were stolen from Mr. and Mrs. Henry Steers on April 17 and recovered tonight. They were kept in the house till this evening, when they were taken out to an ash cart, in which they were hidden.

Mr. Steers, who is president of the Eleventh Ward bank, was surprised by the arrest of his butler, Patrick Branagan, who has worked for him 11 years. Capt. Delaney of the East Thirty-fifth street police station, says Branagan confessed to him that he had seen the jewelry and could not resist stealing it. Joseph Walker, a truckman, was also arrested. Branagan is married, his wife living with another family out of the state.

Early in the morning of April 17 Branagan, breathless and hatless, rushed into the East Thirty-fifth street police station and said Mrs. Steers' diamonds and jewelry had been stolen. Capt. Delaney and Detectives Quinlan and Meekin went to the house and Mr. Steers showed Mrs. Steers' room, on the second floor, to them. There were marks on an open window of a jimmy, but Capt. Delaney thought it did not look like a professional's work and believed it was done by someone on the inside. Mr. Steers said he would not suspect anyone in the house, as he trusted all his servants implicitly, and Branagan as much, if not more, than all.

Capt. Delaney said tonight that Branagan denied at first that he knew anything of the jewels, but finally broke down and confessed he had stolen them.

FAST MAIL WRECKED, TWO KILLED, MANY HURT

Thirteen Mail Clerks, One from Corry, Pa., Injured in New York Central Smash-Up.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CLYDE, N. Y., May 2.—New York Central fast mail No. 3, westbound, collided with a fast freight going in the opposite direction a quarter of a mile west of the station here at 5 p. m., killing the engineer and fireman of the mail and seriously injuring 13 mail clerks.

The injured, all of whom are mail clerks, are: J. W. Shepard, E. R. Force, R. Mills, E. E. Gibson, all of Cleveland; R. C. Baird, John M. Mert and G. W. Nummer of Elyria; J. P. Putnam of Brockton, N. Y.; George I. Smert and George Growney of Buffalo; G. F. Wright of Rochester; Arthur Underhill of Norwalk, O., and John Pitts of Corry, Pa.

The fast mail was running 75 miles an hour when the accident occurred. Trainmaster F. W. Everett of Buffalo said at midnight that he believed the accident was due to a misunderstanding between the freight crew and the tower men.

COAL SHIPMENTS ARE CURTAILED BY CONGESTION

Falling Off of 33,000 Cars in Seven Months as Compared With Shipments in Same Period Last Year.

SITUATION ONE TO CAUSE DISTRACTION

It is a little more difficult to obtain data concerning coal shipments than those about coke, the regular weekly statistics of the latter being a convenience. The same is true of glass, building material and other classes of freights. Extended inquiries in many quarters, however, have brought out the fact that coal shipments from the entire Pittsburgh district, including Westmoreland county, from September 1, 1901, to April 1, 1902, have been fully 33,000 cars less than for the first three and last four months of 1900.

This is an actual retrograde movement. The restriction of output, however, was much greater than the shortage as compared with 1900, for the demand during the past seven months has been larger than in 1900, when practically all offerings of freight were taken. Adding certain lines of building material, which it is not necessary to name, the total output has been restricted, in round numbers, to the aggregate of 3,000,000 tons of product, representing a value of more than $5,500,000.

An Inexplicable Condition.

In all of these lines the shipments during seven months ending with March were less than during 1900, a condition that is inexplicable, since the railroads have not shrunk any since two years ago. They have been hampered some by improvement work interfering with train movements, and they have suffered from break-down of motive power incident to over-strain. The remainder of the failure of movement has been the result of what was described by the pioneers as "biting off more than they could chaw"—congestion pure and simple.

The situation has been one to drive shippers, manufacturers and local railroad men to distraction. It speaks well for all concerned that there has been no serious friction. There have been some unpleasant incidents and a few have been cited in which a sort of grim humor was apparent. But unless there is radical relief soon, it is to be feared that men and their tempers will wear out together.

Improvement During April.

The movement of freight was better during April. That is conceded on all sides as an earnest of the good will of the railroad people. In this connection it is just to say the statement that less coke was shipped from the Connellsville region during April than for April, 1900, was an error. But the shipments during April were materially below productive capacity and demand.

A sentence about diversion of freights might also be misconstrued. A shipment of steel to Chicago went by way of Buffalo, and shipments of coal and coke were diverted in other directions. It may be stated, as a matter of fact, that coke shipments from the Connellsville region to the valleys and the west were sent over via Morgantown and Fairmont during this spring, while coke from the Fairmont district was being shipped by the same route through Pittsburgh. In fact, coke and coal have been shipped in any direction, straight or roundabout, that promised, at the moment, to get it through to destination.

How Mines Were Affected.

The shortage in transportation of coal and the lines of building material included in the preceding totals was pretty well distributed between the closing months of last year and the opening months of this. During April, when conditions improved, there were accidental days that more cars were delivered to mines than could be loaded. Not because there were no orders for the coal, but because the continued restriction had deprived the mines of their full working force. That is one of the indirect losses suffered, and it would probably require two months of full car supply to bring mines up to their producing capacity.

A business man yesterday called attention to an apparent discrepancy in the coke statement. Thus the total ovens 15 years ago were 10,500, capacity 21,000 tons a day. At present the ovens number nearly 25,000, with a capacity of 50,000 tons a day, an increase of more than 100 per cent, while the railroads have expanded hardly 25 per cent.

Situation Fifteen Years Ago.

There is no real discrepancy. The railroad capacity 15 years ago exceeded the necessities of the district. They were not operated to the full. There were car shortages in those days, actual car shortages. The coke operators met the difficulty by procuring cars of their own. The railroads put on more motive power in proportion, and development continued. The trouble now is of a different nature.

The extension up the river from Brownsville, to be built jointly by the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie and the Pennsylvania, should afford considerable relief to the coke region. It will give a short route and easy grade from the "lower" district. But at the best, it can hardly be put into operation before the last of the year, after the lake season and heaviest pressure have passed.

The rate at which the Pennsylvania is adding motive power and cars to its equipment should have some effect, and the completion of its four-track system between Pittsburgh and Greensburg ought to facilitate the movement of trains greatly. Yet with all the amelioration of April, it will require most heroic measures to prevent another blockade later in the year.

FRIENDS URGE F. J. TORRANCE TO GET IN FIGHT

Walter Lyon Thinks Allegheny Gentleman Would Suit All.

ATTORNEY GENERAL SPENDS DAY HERE

An effort will be made to induce Francis J. Torrance of Allegheny to become an active candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. His friends think he would be generally acceptable and an easy man to elect.

"Torrance should announce his candidacy and go after delegates," said ex-Lieut.-Gov. Water Lyon last evening. "I am satisfied that Republicans generally would favor him, and he could secure the nomination. I am unable to say whether he will consent to get into the fight."

Gov. Lyons says that he believes Quay and Durham would be friendly to Torrance. He is also of the opinion that many of the old insurgent leaders would agree to support the Alleghenian. Some have already pledged their assistance. It is quite probable that he would get the 36 delegates from this county.

With Torrance on the ticket Gov. Lyons thinks that it would be much easier to carry this and some other western Pennsylvania counties. Mr. Torrance will be absent from the city for 10 days. When he returns strong pressure will be brought to bear to induce him to run.

Elkin Spends a Day Here.

Attorney General Elkin spent another day in Pittsburgh. Just what he accomplished, if anything, was not made public by him. He came to the city from the east on an early morning train, accompanied by ex-Senator James G. Mitchell of Jefferson. While they registered at the Hotel Duquesne they did not receive callers there. For a part of the day R. B. Scandrett's office was made headquarters. During the afternoon Mr. Elkin disappeared for an hour or more, and it is not known where he put in the time.

When asked for a list of his callers he begged to be excused. He said that most of the time had been devoted to talks with Republicans from western counties, but he did not care to mention names. He is said to have seen representatives from Westmoreland, Butler, Clarion and Washington and perhaps Somerset counties. Strong effort is being made to get delegates from Westmoreland and Clarion counties. The latter county is rather likely to send an Elkin delegation to Harrisburg. The attorney general seems to be very confident of getting the Westmoreland votes, but he may be fooled.

Not Certain About Allegheny.

Mr. Elkin said that he was not certain whether he would make a contest in this county for delegates. He remarked that the question had not been definitely decided. When told of the recent statement of Thomas S. Bigelow that previous to last Friday Quay had the delegates from this county in his coop, but that they were now in Elkin's the candidate indulged in a hearty laugh, but had no comment to make.

Mr. Elkin said that he had not talked with Recorder Brown or anyone representing the machine. As Mr. Bigelow went east Thursday night he did not see him. The Pittsburgher will be gone several days.

The attorney general declined to discuss the recent conference in Washington of Quay, Penrose and Durham. He did say, however, that he hoped the candidate who is to oppose him would soon get into the field. He remarked that it would be more interesting to have a live opponent than to be fighting in the dark. Mr. Elkin went to his home in Indiana last evening.

Expects to Win Today.

There will be primaries today in the Fifth district of Luzerne and in Venango county. Col. L. A. Watres and Elkin are contesting for the Luzerne delegates. The Indiana man thinks he will win. He got the delegates in the two Luzerne districts where elections have already been held, though Watres claims that the returns showed that he won. The battle today is likely to be just as close.

There will be three delegates elected in Venango and it is rather a safe prediction that they will not support Elkin, even though there is a contest.

Primaries were held in Potter county yesterday. G. C. Morrison and S. S. Logue were elected delegates without instructions. This is the third county in Congressman Elias Deemer's district to follow this plan. He is unfriendly to the candidacy of Elkin. Deemer was indorsed for a second term. John Ormerod was nominated for judge and A. R. Moore for assemblyman.

ATION RELIES ON SEA POWER FOR ITS DEFENSE

President Roosevelt's Significant Address to Naval Cadets.

ELEMENTS OF VICTORY

He Tells the Young Officers They Must Excel in Seamanship and Marksmanship—Quick and Accurate Shooting Wins on the Water.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Annapolis, Md., May 2.—President Roosevelt presented the graduating class of the naval academy with their diplomas today. He was accompanied by Miss Roosevelt, Secretary Courtelyou, Representative Foss, chairman of the house committee on naval affairs, and others.

The president was presented to the officers of the academy by Commander Wainwright. While this was going on the shore batteries fired the president's salute of 21 guns.

A great crowd gathered around the grand stand where the cadets were to receive at the hands of the president the diplomas which would make them officers in the United States navy. The graduating class discarded their guns and accoutrements and advanced close to the platform. President Roosevelt then addressed them, his remarks being frequently interrupted by applause. Following is the president's address:

The President's Address.

In receiving these diplomas you become men who above almost any others of the entire union are to carry henceforth the ever-present sense of responsibility which must come with the knowledge that on some tremendous day it may depend upon your courage, your preparedness, your keen intelligence and knowledge of your profession whether or not the nation is again to write her name on the world's roll of honor or to know the black shame of defeat.

We all of us earnestly hope that the occasion for war may never come, but if it has to come then this nation must win; and the prime factor in securing victory over any foreign foe must of necessity be the United States navy. If the navy fails us then we are doomed to defeat, no matter what may be our material wealth or the high average of our citizenship. It should therefore be an object of prime importance for every patriotic American to see that the navy is constantly built up, and above all that it is kept to the highest point of efficiency both in material and in personnel. It cannot be too often repeated that in modern war, and especially in modern naval war, the chief factor in achieving triumph is what has been done in the way of thorough preparation and training before the beginning of the war. It is what has been done before the outbreak of war that is all important. After the outbreak, all that can be done is to use to the best advantage the great war engines, and the seamanship, marksmanship and general practical efficiency, which have already been provided by the forethought of the national legislature and by the administrative ability, through a course of years, of the navy department.

The Building of Ships.

A battleship cannot be improvised. It takes years to build, and the skill of the officers and crew in handling it aright can likewise never be improvised, but must spring from use and actual sea service and from the most careful, zealous and systematic training. You, to whom I give these diplomas, now join the ranks of the officers of the United States navy. You enter a glorious service, proud of its memories of renown. You must keep ever in your minds the thought of the supreme hour which may come when what you do will forever add to or detract from this renown.

Some of you will have to do your part in helping construct the ships and the guns which you use. You need to bend every energy toward making these ships and guns in all their details the most perfect of their kind throughout the world. The ship must be seaworthy, the armament fitted for the best protection to guns and men, the guns in all their mechanism fit to do the greatest possible execution in the shortest possible time. Every detail, whether of protection to the gun crews, of rapidity and sureness in handling the ammunition and working the elevating and revolving gear, or of quickness and accuracy in sighting, must be thought out far in advance, and the thought carefully executed in the actual work. The best ships and guns and the most costly mechanism are utterly valueless if the men are not trained to use them to the utmost possible advantage.

Preparing for Emergencies.

From now on throughout your lives there can be no slackness on your part. Your duty must be present with you, waking and sleeping. You have got to train yourselves and you have got to train those under you, in the actual work of seamanship, in the actual work of gunnery. If the day for battle comes you will need all that you possess of boldness, skill, determination, ability to bear punishment, and instant readiness in an emergency.

But though without these qualities you can do nothing, yet even with them you can do but little if you have not had the forethought and set purpose to train yourselves and the enlisted men under you aright. Officers and men alike must have the sea habit; officers and men alike must realize that in battle the only shots that count are the shots that hit and that normally the victory will lie with the side whose shots hit oftenest. Seamanship and marksmanship—these must be the two prime objects of your training, both for yourselves and for the men under you.

At the conclusion of his address and the distribution of the diplomas the president requested that he be taken to the hospital where Cadet Emery S. Land of Wyoming, a member of the graduating class, was lying ill. Sitting up in bed, the sick boy received his diploma from the president, who made a few appropriate remarks, in which he expressed the hope that he would soon be out. The president was then given an opportunity of witnessing the customary prank of the plebes throwing the graduating class out of quarters, which afforded a great deal of amusement.

After luncheon the president and party went aboard the torpedo boat Gwynn for a short trip on Chesapeake bay, after which they took the train for Washington.

damage done in Schenley park was the blowing down of a 60-foot oak tree a short distance above the log cabin near the race track.

The wind took the roof off a large brick apartment house on Bouquet street, opposite the Home school, Fourteenth ward. The roof was deposited in the rear yard. The inmates of the house were badly frightened, but were uninjured.

On the South Side.

The cupalo on the top of the pot house of the D. O. Cunningham Glass Company's factory, South Twenty-sixth street, was blown off by the wind, causing a loss of about $500. The cupalo fell through the roof of the building on the furnaces below. For a time it looked as if the building would catch fire, and a still alarm was sent in to No. 12 engine company.

The St. Joseph's church, being erected at the corner of Mission and Sterling streets, was totally destroyed. The first story of the building had been enclosed and part of the second, and the wind blew them down, causing considerable loss. It was a frame building.

One of the Allegheny County Light Company's wires was blown down at South Twelfth and Carson streets, causing considerable excitement. The wire was charged with electricity, and in his efforts to get off the sidewalk Officer Joseph Bannon was severely shocked and knocked down.

A small fire was caused by the wind in the three-story brick house at No. 309 Ross street. The windows were open when the storm broke and the wind blew a curtain into a lighted gas jet, which started the blaze. The damage amounted to about $25.

Severe in Other Sections.

Lightning struck the houses of Joseph Miller and Harry McConville in Coleman street, near Greenfield avenue. The roofs on both houses were badly damaged. In the Greenfield district the storm was one of the heaviest ever known and while the rain continued the streets were flooded.

In the West End district the rain was particularly severe and about 10 houses on the east side of Steuben street, near Wabash avenue, were flooded and the occupants driven to the second floors of the buildings. Steuben street at this point is somewhat lower than the street level.

In Allegheny the storm was especially severe in the Tenth, Eleventh and Fifteenth wards. In the Eleventh ward a two-story and attic frame house being erected at Woodland and Stayton avenues was blown down and Joseph Stebhan, a laborer, aged 38 years and married, of Frederick and Shimmer streets, was badly injured by the building falling on him. He was going home from work, and when the storm came he ran into the cellar for protection. When the building collapsed Stebhan was buried beneath the debris. He had been seen running into the cellar by some residents of the neighborhood, and an alarm was sent to No. 12 engine company. The firemen and several policemen had a hard time getting Stebhan out of the wreck. He was taken to the Allegheny General hospital, where it was found that his right shoulder was dislocated and his face and head badly bruised. His nose was broken and split and he has a cut over the left eye.

Skull Was Fractured.

James Edeburn, aged 55 years of No. 1 Brighton place, one of the force on the Allegheny emergency wagon of the Pittsburgh Railways Company, had his skull fractured by being thrown from the wagon on Taggart street, while on the way to Washington avenue and Fremont street, where a trolley wire had been broken by the storm. He was taken home. He may die.

Street car traffic was delayed in many parts of the city for from 15 minutes to an hour because of the breaking of trolley wires and the clogging of sewers. At Sedgwick street and California avenue the cars were blockaded for half an hour by the large volume of water and rubbish which flowed down from the hillside. At the Fulton street bridge, on California avenue, a like blockade was caused by the clogging of the sewer.

Electric wires all through the city were tangled and the telephone and electric light companies had much trouble in repairing them.

MUCH DAMAGE DONE IN SUBURBAN TOWNS

Storm Caused Injury to Mains and Much Property Loss Everywhere.

The storm in the Monongahela and Turtle Creek valleys was very severe, and the damage was great. Telegraph, telephone and electric light wires were torn down, shade trees twisted off, buildings unroofed and cellars flooded. In some sections of Penn avenue, Turtle Creek, and Braddock and Corey avenues, Braddock, all of the cellars are full.

William Conley of Jones avenue, North Braddock, was on his way home when the storm struck him. He was riding a bicycle, and blinded by the dust, ran into a trolley pole with such force that he rebounded to the car tracks, and was struck by a car. His right arm was crushed and he was badly injured about the body. He was taken to his home.

John Stitt, a driver for the Braddock planing mill, was on a load of lumber in Second street, Braddock. His horses took fright at the lightning and ran away. Stitt was thrown off and his wagon passed over him. His right arm and right leg were crushed, and he was otherwise badly injured. The physicians stated last night that they did not expect his recovery. Stitt boarded at the Sixth Avenue hotel, Braddock.

William Fisterer, 13 years of age, was probably fatally injured, being struck on the head by a brick. He was passing the house of Charles Klaus, Bessemer terrace, East Pittsburgh, when the chimney and a part of the wall were blown away. One of the bricks struck Fisterer on the head, fracturing his skull. Other bricks bruised him badly.

A street car packed with people from the Westinghouse electric works was struck by lightning in Penn avenue, Turtle Creek. All of the passengers were badly shocked, and there was a panic. No person was seriously injured. All of the glass about the car was shattered.

Seven cars, in as many places along the line of the Monongahela division of the Pittsburgh Railways Company, had their motors burned out by lightning striking the feed wires.

At the Edgar Thomson steel works, Braddock, considerable damage was done. All over the plant stacks were blown down. Some furnaces were obliged to be idle.

An electric light wire crossing the house of William Oskin, Parker avenue, Braddock, was struck by lightning and the roof of the house caught fire. The loss was slight.

Terror was struck into the home of John Short, a miner at Willock, on the Wheeling division of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, during the storm last night. Lightning struck a great tree 100 feet away, glancing to the house, shattered the roof and grounded itself between the weather boarding and the plastering of the inner walls, near a partition.

The head of the household was sitting nearby, and was covered with plaster and laths. He was not seriously injured but was affected by the shock and a physician was called to attend him. Damage to the house will amount to about $200. Other members of the family were uninjured.

PECULIAR WEATHER CONDITIONS THE CAUSE

Yesterday's Records Show Remarkable Variation, Indicating Aproaching Trouble.

Yesterday's weather was remarkable in that conditions were changing all the time. The day will go down on the records of the local office of the United States weather bureau as a unique day in the weather history of this section. The day opened partly cloudy and slightly cooler than on the day previous. By 10 o'clock the clouds increased, and then cleared away for some hours. Until after 4 o'clock in the afternoon the day was an ideal one and the thermometer was at 83 degrees. One-half hour later the sky suddenly became cloudy and threatening and it was soon seen that a big storm was brewing.

At 5:41 o'clock there were several heavy crashes of thunder and a number of buildings were struck by lightning, causing more or less damage. A terrific rainstorm set in, and in five minutes .40 of an inch of rain fell in Pittsburgh. The total rainfall during the storm amounted to .50 of an inch.

The storm came direct from the west, where high temperatures have been prevailing during the past few days. The sudden rushing in of the atmosphere from the west on the cool air of this section was the principal cause of the thunderstorm. During the short period the storm continued a high wind prevailed and increased in velocity until 6 o'clock last evening, when it attained a maximum speed of 16 miles per hour, when it began to unroof houses.

During the first five minutes of the storm the government pencil which indicates the degree of temperature fell in a perpendicular line from the 83-degree mark to the 58-degree mark without a deviation, recording a drop in temperature of 25 degrees in five minutes. At the local weather office it was said last night that this action of the thermograph was never known before. The most peculiar sign ever made before, under like conditions, was an unbroken line with a fall of but 15 degrees in temperature.

The temperature yesterday was 13 degrees warmer than on Thursday and the minimum was 4 degrees higher than on the same day. The maximum temperature for yesterday was 83 degrees and was registered at 4 o'clock. The minimum was 52 and occurred at 6 a. m. After the storm passed over the city toward the east the mercury again began to rise from the 58 mark and at 8 o'clock last night was at 64 and still going up slowly.

THE WEATHER.

Fair.

The weather man is at it again. He predicts fair and cloudless skies for today and tomorrow. He does not predict any showers or thunderstorms. Neither does he say anything about miniature cyclones. He did not foretell any such atmospheric disturbances for yesterday either, but something happened. His is a difficult task, and there are probably several thousand people in Pittsburgh who feel a personal grievance over yesterday's unfortunate storm, but charity should apply to the case of the man, who is paid for predicting. Old Sol should again wreathe [illegible] in smiles today—but look out for [illegible] toward sundown. Spring showers send out no press notices or advance agents.

A VETERAN FIREMAN LEAVES THE SERVICE

Capt. Henry Renziehausen of Allegheny Department Is Honored for Long Service to City.

Capt. Henry Renziehausen, the veteran fire fighter of Allegheny, has resigned from the North Side department after a service of 33 years. His retirement was celebrated last night by a testimonial entertainment given in his honor at the Most Holy Name hall, Hazel street, Troy hill.

Capt. Renziehausen was presented with a handsome gold watch and chain from the citizens of the Thirteenth ward and a gold jeweled badge from Lenora lodge No. 35, Knights of Pythias. He also received a floral offering from Frank J. Yockel, who served under Capt. Renziehausen in fire company No. 11. The gifts were presented by Councilman John Kunkel of the Thirteenth ward.

Capt. Renziehausen was the oldest fireman in Allegheny in point of years and service. He retires from the department at the age of 55 years. He belongs to one of the oldest German families of Allegheny.

His father, Richard Renziehausen, died two years ago at the advanced age of 90 years. His mother died on the day of his father's funeral, while the latter's body was being carried to the cemetery. Capt. Renziehausen enlisted in the union army during the civil war and after being mustered out of the army entered the volunteer fire department of Allegheny. He joined the old Gen. Grant Fire Company, the first fire company organized in Allegheny. This company was soon afterward dissolved and he joined the Ellsworth fire company.

He remained with this company until the paid fire department of Allegheny was organized in May, 1872. He then became a member of the Columbia engine company. A few years afterward he went to the Hope company and 18 years ago was appointed captain of Company No. 9, now No. 11, of Troy Hill. He held the position of captain of the Troy Hill company until his retirement from the service.

Capt. Renziehausen was seriously injured at a number of fires. In August, 1876, in the fire at Lindsay & McCutcheon's mill, he was terribly burned about the face, arms and hands. At the old woolen mill fire, near Federal street, he was badly injured by a fall from a ladder. Last October he was thrown from a wagon while directing a hose at the fire of the Pittsburgh Clay Company on Rebecca street, receiving severe spinal injuries.

Capt. Renziehausen is succeeded in command of Company No. 11 by John Fichter, who has been connected with the company for 18 years.

BIG LOSS REPORTED.

Towboat J. B. Finley Said to Have Lost Twenty Boats Below Helena.

Word was received from Memphis, Tenn., last night that the large towboat J. B. Finley of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal & Coke Company had lost 19 coal boats and a barge about 30 miles below Helena. This is supposed to be near Modoc, Phillips county, Ark., where there are several islands. No particulars were obtainable, as there is not a wire for 25 miles. Probably the nearest point that news could be wired from is Coahoma, Miss.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Thousands of Physicians, Men and Women of Note and Position, and People in Humbler Circumstances Say It Is Unequaled as a Spring Medicine.

A Prominent Business Man Saved from Nervous Prostration.

It is by true merit, and true merit alone, that Paine's Celery Compound has won its wondrous popularity in every part of the civilized world.

When all other medicines fail, when the best directed efforts of physicians accomplish but little for the banishing of desperate diseases, Paine's Celery Compound saves life and restores health.

It is natural, therefore, that men and women saved from the perils and dangers of nervous diseases, rheumatism, neuralgia, and blood troubles, should acquaint their friends—the sick and well—of what was accomplished for them by Paine's Celery Compound. In this way the glad tidings of prompt and effectual cures have been spread from day to day to the remotest towns and villages, and the blessed work of life saving progresses in every direction.

One of the most remarkable cures of recent years effected by Paine's Celery Compound, is the case of Mr. Wyan Nelson, President of the Nelson Grain Co., of Kansas City, Mo. With intense gratitude and thankfulness, Mr. Nelson writes as follows:—

"I was nervous, despondent, irritable, had no appetite, could not sleep, and had night sweats. My physicians said I was threatened with nervous prostration, and advised a rest from business. However, on the recommendation of my partner, I commenced using Paine's Celery Compound, and today I am as sound as a dollar, eat well, sleep well, and am not at all nervous."

WATER FAMINE LIKELY TO OCCUR THIS SUMMER

Startling Testimony Given by Supt. Shepherd Before Investigating Councilmen.

DELAY IN GETTING PUMPS

Pittsburgh's Daily Consumption of Water Is 75 Per Cent in Excess of That of Any Other City—Need of Meters Emphasized.

The committee appointed by Pittsburgh councils to investigate the recent shortage in the water supply met again yesterday and examined S. M. Grant, foreman of the pipe lines; Thomas Fording, water assessor, and Superintendent A. B. Shepherd of the bureau of water supply and distribution.

The testimony given by Superintendent Shepherd was rather startling in some particulars. He said that with the six pumps now in use at Brilliant station only water enough could be pumped to about meet the daily demand, and as it must be at least a year before conditions can be changed the indications are that before relief is afforded by the installation of the two new pumps ordered the demand must exceed the supply. The consumption is increasing daily, and with the coming of warmer weather the drain will be something that will cause an actual water famine, in all probability, for which no remedy is in sight. Supt. Shepherd said it would be dangerous to attempt to clean the reservoirs, meanwhile pumping directly into the mains, as it would be too great a tax on the pumps; that they would likely give out entirely under such a strain.

Pittsburgh's Heavy Consumption.

He said the consumption could be lessened by the installation of meters throughout the city, but it would require three or four years to attach meters to all the connections. The cost would be about $18.50 for each meter. There are now 35,463 connections of less than 4-inch pipes and 296 of over four inches in Pittsburgh. Supt. Shepherd said the people of Pittsburgh were at the present time using 240 gallons of water per capita every 24 hours, which was 75 per cent more water than used in any other city in the United States.

Mr. Shepherd said that if the city had had two more pumping engines in use at the Brilliant station in March there would have been no danger of a shortage. He said the contract for new pumps was awarded February 15, 1902, and that the first would be delivered June 15, 1903.

Questioned by John Upperman, he showed by his letter file that early in 1899 he had recommended to E. M. Bigelow, then director of the department of public works, the purchase of two more pumping engines, and that in April of the same year he renewed the recommendation. Mr. Bigelow, however, took no steps in the matter. He further showed by his file that he made the same recommendation to Director George W. Wilson when he assumed the office of public works director in 1900. Director Wilson at once advertised for more engines, but the bids called for more money than the city could spend at that time.

Increased Cost of Pumps.

Mr. Shepherd then showed that he had made similar recommendations to Director J. Guy McCandless last winter, and that Director McCandless had at once advertised, secured bids that came within the city's figures and that the pumping engines are now contracted for.

Supt. Shepherd made the statement that if the needed engines had been secured in 1899 they could have been purchased $25,000 cheaper than they can be at the present time. The engines contracted for will cost $198,000 each; they could have been bought in 1899 for about $175,000.

"You say that the consumption of water now about equals the amount your engines are able to furnish?" asked J. C. Wasson of the committee.

"That is true," answered Supt. Shepherd.

"Then if the present rate of consumption is maintained there will probably be a shortage of water before the first of the new engines is installed?" continued Mr. Wasson.

"That is my belief," said Mr. Shepherd.

Mr. Shepherd's testimony further developed that there is no fund at present for laying new water mains in the downtown district and no fund with which to make any improvements, outside the engines, in the water service.

Heavy Demand of Skyscrapers.

Mr. Fording threw little light upon the recent threatened shortage, as it is not a matter that pertains to his bureau, but he interested the committee in some figures showing the consumption of water in the high buildings. The Frick building during the month of March consumed 5,000,000 gallons of water. The Carnegie building last year used 40,175,000 gallons and was assessed for it $4,100. The Hotel Henry last year used 24,460,000 gallons, and paid $2,900. The power house of the Consolidated Traction Company at Twentieth street, in addition to the water it pumped from the river, used last year 148,784,000 gallons of city water and paid $12,099. The Arrott building, recently erected and not yet filled with tenants, used during the month of March 883,000 gallons; the Peoples Bank building 900,000 gallons during the same month. The Hotel Schenley last year used 44,260,000 gallons and paid $3,738.

Mr. Fording was asked some questions regarding the use of meters, and said they were usually installed at the request of the consumer, although in some cases the city forced the use of a meter, and in every case where new connections were made meters were compulsory.

Foreman Grant testified as to the condition of the rising mains from Brilliant station to Highland reservoir during the threatened shortage. He found them to be in good condition, and said that it would be impossible for any person to tap them.

JUDGES HAVE NOT ACTED.

Westmoreland Court Still Withholds Approval of Court House Contract.

There has been no action so far by the Westmoreland court on the contract for the new court house in that county. The commissioners awarded the contract to the Lindsay Construction Company of Pittsburgh, but Judges Doty and McConnell have not given their approval.

In an interview the other day with Controller John H. Brown he was made to say that Judge Doty would not approve the contract. This placed him in the position of anticipating what the court would do. Mr. Brown did not say that Judge Doty would refuse to approve the plans, as he has had no official knowledge of what the court intends to do.

As all of the present commissioners are candidates for re-election the court house contract has become an issue in Westmoreland. Great interest is being shown in the matter and the people are anxious to know what the court will do. The Lindsay Construction Company was underbid by two bidders. The commissioners have not made public their reasons for selecting the Pittsburgh firm.

PITTSBURGH GAZETTE'S CABLE FEATURES

LORD ROSSLYN FOUND THAT HIS CRITICISM HELD A BOOMERANG

Question About Money Distributed by Adelbert Hay Brought a Reprimand.

SCATHING REMARKS BY LORD LANSDOWNE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONDON, May 2.—In the house of lords today the earl of Rosslyn, who served with Thorneycroft's horse in South Africa and incidentally was war correspondent for a London newspaper, questioned the government on the subject of the money distributed to British prisoners of war at Pretoria early in 1900 by the late Adelbert S. Hay, when he was United States consul at Pretoria. The earl said he had a personal interest in the matter since, if the money was intended as a gift, he was entitled to a share of it, as a prisoner of war.

The under secretary for war, Lord Raglan, replied that no particular suggestions in regard to the distribution of the money were sent to Mr. Hay. The money was merely an advance as it was presumed the prisoners would be in want of it. It was left to Mr. Hay to dispose of the funds as it seemed best to him. Certain civilians, "including the noble earl who raised the question," had been recipients of the funds.

Lord Rosslyn having intimated that he considered the money a gift, Lord Lansdowne with some warmth remarked that it was intended as an advance to officers and that the amounts paid to civilians were on the understanding that they would be refunded.

Other recipients, more entitled to public generosity, had repaid the money without complaint. Lord Rosslyn had been applied to for repayment by the government, "which did not know the man." The noble lord replied that it was scandalous to ask for repayment and refused to recoup the government. The war secretary was surprised that Lord Rosslyn should wish to have the fact proclaimed.

Lord Rosslyn in reply contended that his position was entirely right, but if the war office wanted the £25 advanced to him it should have it.

RETAIL BUTCHERS MAY CLOSE SHOPS

MOVEMENT LOOKING TOWARD THAT END HAS BEEN INAUGURATED.

All Say They Are Losing Money, and Would Favor Idea, but Some Fear That Trust Would Establish Retail Stores and Seize Trade.

A movement has been started among the local butchers looking toward the closing of the retail meat shops while the high prices are in force. Butchers in the Diamond market are in favor of the idea. A number interviewed yesterday stated that they were willing to close their shops if the other butchers in the market would do the same.

George Etzel of the Diamond market is an advocate of the scheme. "I will close my shop for a month or two months if the other butchers in the market will do likewise," said Mr. Etzel. "Every man in the market is losing money, and is keeping open merely because he hopes that there may be a change for the better soon. With the warm weather coming on and prices still up the butcher might as well quit business for the present.

"There has been a marked falling off in the retail trade already. When the weather gets warmer the consumption will be less than ever. Many of our best customers will be going out of the city soon and will remain away all summer.

"It is only the prosperous class that can afford now to buy steaks. The poorer people are buying nothing but boiling meat.

"If the butchers will agree to close their shops for a few monhs I will sign to do the same," repeated Mr. Etzel.

William Frey of Eckert & Frey is another butcher who favors closing the retail shops until prices get lower. "I am certainly in favor of shutting up shop until prices come down, but I think it would be difficult to get all the butchers to join in the movement."

Charles E. Eckert said that while the butchers would save money by closing their shops for awhile, if they did so the meat combine would open up retail stores in every part of the city and grasp the retail trade. Mr. Eckert said if the butchers would suspend even for a brief period the trust in a short time would have a monopoly of the retail business as well as the wholesale.

Retailers are extracting some encouragement from the condition of the live stock market. They hope that the reduction in the prices of cattle and hogs will lower the prices of dressed meats within the next week or two. There is no assurance from the packing houses to this effect, but the butchers are grasping at every straw to keep up their spirits.

The packers are sending appeals to shippers to hold back their shipments for awhile, and experienced buyers say that this will prevent any sag in the market that might result from decreased consumption.

Samuel W. Hill, an Allegheny meat dealer, says he is bankrupt, and his financial ruin was caused by the exorbitant prices placed on meats by the beef trust. He filed a petition in the United States district court yesterday. His schedule shows his liabilities to be $81,382 and assets $731. The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, whose claim is for $40,000, is the heaviest creditor. The Union stock yards of Chicago, Ill., has a claim amounting to $14,905 for meats sold to Mr. Hill during the past three years.

Christian Workers Conference.

The conference of Christian workers at the Wylie Avenue church was continued yesterday, sessions being held in the afternoon and evening. The Rev. Charles H. Pridgeon presided at both sessions. The speakers were W. J. Hortore of the Newsboys' home, O. S. Schulz of the Beulah home, Miss M. E. Brown of the Young Woman's Christian association and Miss Mary Hunnings of the Bethseda home, the Rev. E. M. Sandys of the Hope mission, E. D. Whitesides of the Christian and Missionary alliance, Col. Bakewell of the Church Army, and Charles Andrews, E. F. Dougherty and H. S. McCormick.

WOULD MAKE LABOR INJUNCTIONS VOID

HOUSE QUICKLY PASSES THE ANTI-CONSPIRACY BILL.

Under Its Provisions No Conspiracy to Do an Act Lawful in Itself, Could Be Punished — The Cuban Diplomatic Measure Also Passed.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—The house today passed the anti-conspiracy bill, reported from the judiciary committee, without a word of debate. It came up rather unexpectedly and Mr. Littlefield of Maine, who had filed a minority report on the bill and had intended to offer some amendments, came in just as it was put upon its passage, and the vote was taken before he understood what was going on. The bill provides:

That no agreement, combination or contract by or between two or more persons to do or procure to be done or not to do or procure not to be done, any act in contemplation or furtherance of any trade dispute between employers and employes in the District of Columbia or in any territory of the United States, or between employers and employes who may be engaged in trade or commerce between the several states, or between any territory and another or between any territory or territories and any state or states or the District of Columbia, or with foreign nations, or between the District of Columbia and any states or states or foreign nations, shall be deemed criminal; nor shall those engaged therein be indictable or otherwise punishable for the crime of conspiracy if such act committed by one person would not be punishable as a crime; nor shall such agreement, combination or contract be considered as in constraint of trade or commerce; nor shall any restraining order or injunction be issued with relation thereto. Nothing in this act shall exempt from punishment, otherwise than as herein excepted, any person guilty of conspiracy for which punishment is now provided by any act of congress; but such act of congress shall, as to the agreements, combinations and contracts hereinbefore referred to, be construed as if this act were therein contained.

The bill to provide United States diplomatic and consular officers in the republic of Cuba also was passed. It carries the following salaries: $10,000 for a minister; $2,000 for a first and $1,500 for a second secretary of legation; $5,000 for consul general at Havana and $3,000 each for the consulates at Cienfuegos and Santiago.

The bill to provide for the issue of passports to the residents of the insular possessions of the United States was made a special order after the disposal of the omnibus territorial bill.

"UNDERGROUND PRESS" STARTED THE RECENT RIOTING IN RUSSIA

Organizers of the Movement Said Czar Ordered Property Partitioned.

MANY SOLDIERS HAVE BEEN DISCIPLINED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, May 2.—The instigators of the peasant riots in the Voronej and Kharkoff governments, who succeeded in bringing the former serfs and land owners into collision by circulating the report that the czar had ordered the lands of the nobles to be divided among the emancipated serfs prove to be identical with the organizers of the student movement here.

After the student agitation was stopped the secret press bureau turned its attention to South Russia and the "underground presses" turned out thousands of bogus proclamations, with the czar's forged signature attached to them, directing the peasants to partition the nobles' lands and distribute their goods among themselves. The proclamation set forth that the peasants should disregard the officials who would probably interfere, as the latter always tried to thwart the czar's will.

Labor troubles have broken out at Novorossisk, on the east coast of the Black sea. Nearly all the southern mines and steel mills have been closed the whole winter and the laborers returned to their native villages, where they are now swelling the ranks of the famine-stricken. It is reported that 57 military officers have been arrested here.

The most serious feature of the present situation is the growing disinclination of the troops to act against the people. Punishment has already been dealt out to 800 men of the Sumy regiment for refusing recently to fire on the rioters at Moscow. They have been transferred to service in various remote provinces.

This Is the Last Day
Sale of Used Pianos Must End

This is notice to the public that the special sale of used pianos at reduced prices ends at Hamilton's this evening.

The store will be kept open until 10 o'clock, so that those who can't come during the day may come in the evening. But we advise all who can do so to come early today.

There has not been another sale like this for a very long time, and it is doubtful if there will be another in many months.

It is not alone the low prices that cause this sale to attract so many shrewd buyers, but the fact that the collection includes so many high-grade instruments. It need hardly be said that a low price is often a dear price when it comes to buying a piano. But that a low price for a really fine instrument means a bargain which anybody does well to avail himself of is equally true. And this is the sort of bargains prevailing at Hamilton's today.

Judge for yourself. The list of names is indeed worthy from every point of view and includes the following: A. B. Chase, Fischer, Hamilton, McPhail, Cable, Mendelssohn, Haines, New England, Capen, Winthrop, Howard, Hallet & Cumston, Opera and others.

Some of the instruments in the lot are, in practically all details, as good as the day they were made, and the fact that they have been slightly used does not in any way detract from their value to the purchaser. It is a well-known fact that a really good piano is improved under judicious use. And as we know exactly how these have been used, we can vouch for their worth and commend them to particular customers.

PRICES $100 AND UP.

Of course, not all are selling at $100, but every price is a bargain price, and if you don't get here before the store closes this evening you will miss one of the greatest opportunities of your life.

Persons familiar with the business houses of this city are well aware of the high standard maintained by Hamilton's. The reputation of this house is such that anybody can depend absolutely upon an instrument being exactly as represented. There is no such thing here as one standard for one class of customers and another standard for a different class, but the same high standard for all. Although some prices are considerably higher than others, it is a fact that each price represents the greatest value possible to obtain in a piano.

Read the list of names once more and then decide whether or not you can afford to miss this remarkable sale.

The special lot of organs included in this sale offers some particularly choice bargains. And as the makes are all well-known, every customer is assured of big money's worth.

ORGANS $15 UP.

The following makes are included: Hamilton, Monarch, Burdett, Estey, Chicago Cottage, Clough & Warren and others.

Also some second-hand piano players at specially reduced prices to effect a quick clearance.

Monthly payments if you prefer.

RECEIVER ASKED TO TAKE CHARGE OF BLUE PRINTS

Pressed Steel Car Co. Wants J. W. Hansen Enjoined from Using Drawings.

MILLIONS ARE INVOLVED

Equity Suit Filed in Which It Is Alleged Hansen Copied Valuable Records for Use of an Alleged Rival Company.

The Pressed Steel Car Company, through its attorneys, Knox & Reed, has filed a bill in equity against John M. Hanson, in common pleas court No. 1, asking for a receiver to take charge of certain blue prints and of bills of material alleged to have been copied by the defendant while in the employ of the plaintiff company, and on final hearing to have the same turned over to the Pressed Steel Car Company.

The plaintiff alleges that Hansen, while in its employ, had charge of the drafting department and controlled the making of working drawings necessary in the manufacture of the company's various products, all of great value and advantage in carrying on its business; that these drawings were kept as a part of the records of the company and developed and improved from time to time, so as to represent the best method of manufacturing pressed steel cars; that the blue prints were the result of an expenditure aggregating over $1,000,000, and that their value to any other company would be far greater because it would take years to complete them.

It is further alleged that Hansen, while still in the employ of the plaintiff company as chief engineer and assistant to the president, drawing $10,000 a year, entered into an arrangement with other employes of the company, H. J. Gearhart and Peter F. McCool, to organize another company to compete with the plaintiff, and applied for letters patent creating the said company under the laws of Pennsylvania. It is also claimed that Hansen resigned in December, 1901, but prior thereto ordered employes of the plaintiff company to make a complete set of these blue prints and also blue prints of bills of material, used as part of the record of materials required in each kind of car. It is said that over 1,100 blue prints of working drawings and 1,000 sheets of bills of material were copied and delivered to Hansen, which he still retains and proposes to use to assist the newly organized Standard Steel Car Company to compete with the plaintiff. Numbers of the same are attached to the bill. It is further claimed that Hansen has 2,500 shares in the new company and Gearhart and McCool 250 shares each; that they have procured a site and are engaged in erecting a plant.

It is alleged that the use of these drawings will greatly injure the Pressed Steel Car Company and be of great benefit and advantage to the Standard Steel Car Company.

The plaintiff asks that on final hearing the same be turned over to it and that other relief be given.

CANNOT STAND PRESSURE!

Experts Testify in Suit to Restrain Water Company from Laying Pipes in Sterrett Township.

Another hearing was held before Judge S. A. McClung in common pleas court No. 3 upon the bill in equity filed by Sterrett township against the Pennsylvania Water Company to restrain it from maintaining a 42-inch main through the township.

Experts were examined to show that the pipe is not of sufficient strength to withstand the present pressure of water. Reference was made to the recent breaks that have occurred causing death, and pieces of pipe taken from these points were submitted. They show the pipe to be ⅞ of an inch in thickness, while there is a pressure there of over 200 pounds, which pressure varies from time to time.

For the township it was also testified that the city of Pittsburgh, in making contracts, requires 42-inch mains to be 1¾ inches in thickness, where there is a pressure of from 50 to 75 pounds.

It was also cited that a pressure of 30 pounds may be increased to 320 pounds by a sudden closing of a valve. The side of the water company will be heard Monday.

Statute Declared Unconstitutional
Congressman vs. County Committee

EMPLOYERS UPHELD BY AN OHIO JUDGE

Are at Liberty to Discharge Men for Connection With Labor Unions.

FIGHT WILL GO TO THE SUPREME COURT

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

LISBON, O., May 2.—The statute under which D. S. Spencer Brookman of Wellsville was indicted last November is declared unconstitutional by Judge W. W. Hole, and a demurrer to the indictment is sustained. Judge Hole declares that the statute, which makes it a misdemeanor for an employer to "coerce or attempt to coerce by threatening or discharging an employe for connection with any lawful labor organization," is irreconcilable with the constitution of the United States or with that of Ohio.

Brookman is manager of the Wellsville sheet mill. Last November he discharged Leonard Shaffer on the latter's refusal to surrender his union card. The unions of the county backed the Amalgamated association and prosecution was insisted on.

Few decisions of a like nature are on record. Judge Sayler of Cincinnati has held the statute constitutional. Judge Puggsley of Toledo agrees with Judge Hole. The supreme court of Illinois and Missouri have declared similar statutes unconstitutional. Mr. Brookman will carry the case to the supreme court.

He had gone to work in the morning, carrying with him his dinner. An investigation made by Coroner Atwell showed that the young man had fed his team at the noon hour and then partaken of a hearty meal himself, finishing with a hard boiled egg. Part of the egg had lodged in his windpipe, choking him to death. Dutter was 22 years of age and a member of a well-known family.

The story of the find spread over the city and after relic-seekers had visited the spot the corner-stone was missed and has not yet been recovered. The building was the oldest landmark in this vicinity. The name "Wood Fort" has long ago been applied to the locality.

ACHESON TAKES HIS CASE TO COURT

Trying to Compel the Beaver County Committee to Use His Name.

COUNSEL FOR DEFENSE GRANTED MORE TIME

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BEAVER, PA., May 2.—Mandamus proceedings were begun here this afternoon in the case of Congressman Ernest F. Acheson vs. the officers of the Beaver county Republican committee, Judge John D. Shafer of Pittsburgh presiding. This action is brought by Mr. Acheson to compel the officers of the county committee to place his name on the ticket to be voted on May 15 as a candidate for congress.

The defense claims that two rules have been adopted by the counties composing the Twenty-fourth congressional district—Washington, Lawrence and Beaver—for nominating candidates for congress; that the delegates representing the three counties, who met some time ago in Pittsburgh, were not authorized or empowered to adopt, but to formulate or recommend a plan, said plan to be referred back to the county committees of said counties.

The plan recommended was a popular vote, but none of the said counties had taken action on the same except Beaver county, which voted it down by the decisive vote of 58 to 32. It is claimed that the rules of the Beaver county committee require that all candidates should have voted the regular Republican ticket at the last preceding election and that the plaintiff, Mr. Acheson, had not done this at the last state election, having failed to vote for at least two of the candidates on the regular Republican ticket at said election.

At the request of the attorneys for the defense for more time to prepare their side of the case, court adjourned until 2:30 p. m. tomorrow. Mr. Acheson and W. T. Penn, chairman of the Washington county Republican committee, were present, but James H. Cunningham, Esq., candidate for congress from Beaver county, failed to put in an appearance.

WOMEN SAY OF PE-RU-NA:

A Heart to Heart Talk With Women S. B. Hartman, M. D.

IF ALL the sick mothers, invalid daughters and diseased sisters in this broad land would take the following ladies' simple and direct testimony to heart and do as they have done, no pen could describe the benefit that would follow.

There are so many women, especially married women, who drag themselves wearily around from year to year without any particular disease, and yet miserable beyond description.

They ache and tremble and throb, growing more nervous, tired and debilitated every day.

For this class of sufferers Peruna is the most perfect remedy in existence. It relieves, it soothes, it quiets, it strengthens, and no tired, overworked woman in the land should be without Peruna in the house for a single day.

Peruna Brings Health.

Miss Inez Henderson, 554 Adelaide street, Toronto, Ont., Financial Secretary of the Royal Templars, writes:

"There is nothing so good in life as health, and the one who brings you health should be your friend, and this is how I consider Peruna.

"For years I have been in delicate health, and while not exactly sick in bed I have been unable to enjoy life. Frequent headache, earache and a drumming in my ears made me realize that there was something decidedly wrong with me. My physician said it was a deep seated catarrh and that to be cured I must seek a different climate. I felt pretty blue until reading of the cures performed by Peruna I decided to try it. I took four bottles, which brought me great relief, so that I kept on taking it for four months, when I found that my head was clear and all the unpleasant symptoms gone."

INEZ HENDERSON.

Saved From the Grave.

Mrs. Maria Hartful, of Spencer Brook, Minn., writes:

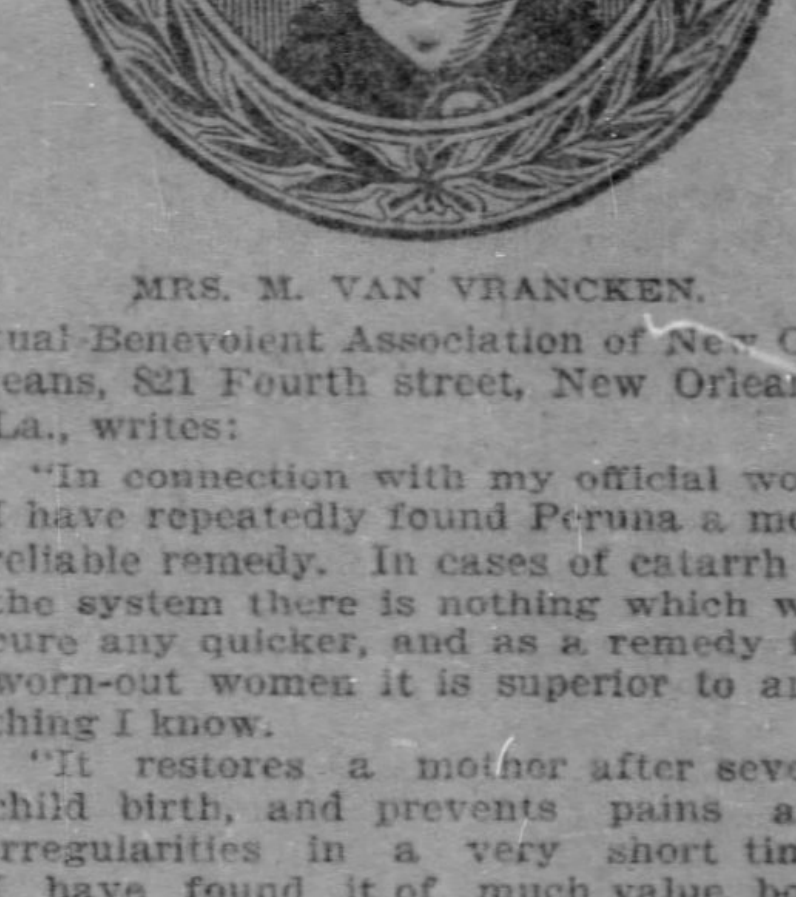
"I was very seriously sick last spring—sick enough to die and I did not know what to do. I was looking over one of your almanacs and found that Dr. Hartman was the best one for my trouble. I suffered from systemic catarrh. I described my sickness to Dr. Hartman and he wrote me that I should use Peruna. I did, and now I am a healthy woman.

"I would now be in my grave, but Dr. Hartman, of Ohio, saved me from death."

SOPHIA HARTFUL.

A Prominent Club Woman of New Orleans Recommends Peruna to Wornout Women.

Mrs. M. Van Vrancken, Chairlady of Sick Committee of Lady Standard Mutual Benevolent Association of New Orleans, 821 Fourth street, New Orleans, La., writes:



MRS. M. VAN VRANCKEN.

"In connection with my official work I have repeatedly found Peruna a most reliable remedy. In cases of catarrh of the system there is nothing which will cure any quicker, and as a remedy for worn-out women it is superior to anything I know.

"It restores a mother after severe child birth, and prevents pains and irregularities in a very short time. I have found it of much value, both as a preventive of colds and as a tonic when I have been feeling badly, and although I never give a testimonial for anything I make an exception in favor of Peruna, as I consider it of exceptional value."

Peruna Woman's Friend.

Miss Nellie Lindsay, 30 Hattie Court, Marinette, Wis., writes:

"My experience with Peruna has been such that I am very glad indeed to be able to recommend it. About two years ago my health began to fail. I lost my appetite, had backache most of the time, and any over-exertion would keep me in bed a week or more. I needed a good tonic to bring me back to health and strength; but did not know which would be of benefit. Peruna was recommended as woman's friend and such it proved to me, for when six bottles had been used I was restored to health."

NELLIE LINDSAY.

Catarrh Sixteen Years.

Mrs. Elizabeth Scherer, Monte Vista, Colo., writes:

"For 16 years I suffered with catarrh and stomach trouble. I doctored and took patent medicines without benefit. I read in one of your almanacs about Peruna and thought it would perhaps help me. I have used nothing at all in the way of remedies except Peruna for about two years, and my health could not be better than I now enjoy. This remedy is also good for coughs and colds.

"I shall never be without it in my house."

ELIZABETH SCHERER.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

JUNIOR ORDER COMPLAINS OF ELKIN'S DELAY

Two Months of Inaction Since the Case Was Brought to His Attention.

EXCUSES ARE NUMEROUS

Litigation Between the "Insurgent" and "Loyalist" Factions Held Up on Account of the Procrastination of the Attorney General.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Harrisburg, May 2.—Attorney General Elkin is accused by those having official business with him of neglecting his public duties in his efforts to force his nomination for governor. More than two months have elapsed since the Junior Order of United American Mechanics case was brought before Elkin, and yet neither side has been able to obtain any disposition of this important matter. The attorneys have been put off from time to time, and unless some action comes soon measures may be taken to force the attorney general to give a decision.

Sometimes the attorneys are told that Deputy Attorney General Fleitz has the absolute disposition of the matter. Again that Fleitz is to dispose of it, but cannot do so until he has consulted with Elkin and that he is unable to obtain a moment's time of that official.

The insurgent faction of the order, which has a membership of over 44,000 in this state, applied to Elkin early in December for writs of quo warranto against the national council, a Pennsylvania corporation, and the beneficiary degree, a Colorado corporation formed under the auspices of the national council, requiring the former to show by what authority it exercised any other powers than those of a local beneficial association and the latter to show by what authority it exercised any corporate powers whatever in Pennsylvania.

Petitioners Friendly to Elkin.

The petitioners are friendly to Elkin and before filing their petition stated to him that if the proceedings they proposed to institute would injure his prospects for the nomination they would delay the bringing of proceedings until it could be done without harm to his candidacy.

"Oh, no; you won't harm me at all," Elkin is reported to have replied. "Go right ahead. I occupy, in such matters, a position like a committing magistrate. You make out a prima facie case and I'll put the matter right into court."

Thus encouraged the petitioners did go ahead. They filed their petition and, after several postponements, one of which was occasioned by Elkin hastening away on his private affairs from an engagement which he had himself made, the case was argued before Fleitz on February 20.

The matter has since been pending, and, even if the writs for which the petitioners have petitioned are granted, they cannot bring the cases to trial until next autumn, instead of having them tried at the special May term of the Dauphin county common pleas court, as they would have been able to do had Elkin given the case ordinarily prompt attention.

Claims of the Plaintiffs.

The national council has been exercising and still exercises the powers of an insurance company through the medium of the alleged Colorado corporation, which it absolutely controls. The insurgents claim that the national council has no right to issue policies of insurance, either directly or indirectly; that the beneficiary degree has made false and misleading returns to the insurance commissioner, and also that its operations up to the date of filing the petition had cost $40 in expenses for every dollar paid for insurance.

At the hearing it was admitted by the faction known as the "loyalists" that the Colorado corporation was a "subterfuge" and that the national council was the real party concerned in the insurance business nominally transacted by that corporation. Counsel for the insurgents claim that the decision of the Pennsylvaia courts being practically uniform corporations formed under the provisions of the law under which the national council was formed may not transact an insurance business and that a prima facie case was unquestionably made out. Richard B. Scandrett of Pittsburgh is one of the attorneys for the loyalists. He was taken into the case only recently.

Elkin is expected to return here tomorrow from his home at Indiana, and another effort will be made by counsel for the insurgents to secure a decision.

OBEYED SPIRITUALISTS.

Joseph Horten Made Probably Successful Attempt at Suicide Because They Said He Must.

Joseph Horten, aged 31, employed as a chainmaker by the Standard Chain Company, Braddock, is at his boarding house, No. 128 Corey avenue, Braddock, in a dying condition, as the result of a number of long, deep gashes in his neck, which he inflicted with a razor yesterday morning.

The sound of his body striking the floor startled the other inmates of the house, and when they reached the attic they found Horten in a pool of blood.

"I was compelled to do this," he cried, as they reached him. "The spiritualist said that I must kill myself and I tried."

A physician was summoned, but Horten can scarcely recover.

CENSUS CLERK GOES WRONG.

Owns to Shortage in Accounts as Disbursing Officer of $7,400.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—H. A. Burrows, disbursing clerk of the United States census office, has been summarily removed as the result of the discovery of a shortage in the accounts of his office. Mr. Burrows was subjected to rigid examinations today by Director Merriam and Chief Clerk McCauley and gave the amount of his discrepancy as $7,406, and credited the trouble to speculation. The government is amply secured from loss by bonds aggregating almost $300,000.

NEXT MONDAY

Pittsburgh Will Be Connected with Grand Rapids by Through Car Service.

A new sleeping car line will be established between Pittsburgh and Grand Rapids, Mich., next Monday, May 5, over the Fort Wayne Route and the Grand Rapids & Indiana Railroad. The through car will run on No. 9, leaving Pittsburgh at 8 a. m., city time. Passengers will reach Grand Rapids at 9:40 p. m. the same day, going through without change. On the return trip they may leave Grand Rapids at 6:40 p. m. on the Pullman sleeping car which arrives in Pittsburgh on No. 21 next morning at 7:45.

Petoskey will be the northern terminal of the through sleeping car run when the season opens at the summer resorts in June, at which time the schedule will be revised and the service extended to that resort.

Mrs. Barr asserted that there was no arrangement to return the property. The jury awarded the property and $25 damages to Mrs. Barr.

DIRECTOR M'CANDLESS SOMEWHAT CONFUSED

Controller Larkin's Order Stops Filtration Work While Judge Buffington Ordered Estimate.

When City Solicitor Thomas D. Carnahan returns from his European trip there will be a pow-wow of city officials affiliated with the machine to devise some method for dealing with the order of Controller Larkin stopping all filtration work on May 10. While Director McCandless admits that there is nothing to do but quit, he says the order prohibits him from complying with the order of Judge Joseph Buffington that he make a detailed estimate of the total cost of the filtration plant. City Recorder J. O. Brown says he will not talk until he sees Mr. Carnahan.

Consulting Engineer Allen Hazen and Resident Engineer Morris Knowles will not force the city to recognize the contracts they have. Both were employed at $4,000 a year by ordinance. Mr. Knowles has not gone on record in the matter, preferring to think about it. Mr. Hazen said yesterday: "I have plenty of work to do elsewhere and if the filtration work here is to terminate for the present, I am sure I shall file no objections." When Mr. Hazen was employed at a salary of $40 a day he stipulated that he should not be compelled to be in Pittsburgh more than 100 days each year.

"I shall keep the force of experts and engineers working up to and including May 10," said Director McCandless yesterday," but I cannot ask any of them to work any longer. I am trying to comply with the order of court for a detailed statement of the cost of the filtration plant, but under the circumstances I must obey the order of the controller, for I cannot ask men to work when there is no provision for their salaries."

ENTERPRISES STARTED.

Suburban Gas Company and Montana Development Company Incorporated in New Jersey.

Pittsburgh interests secured charters in New Jersey yesterday signifying an investment near Pittsburgh and in Montana aggregating $350,000. The Suburban Gas Companw lill rival the Philadelphia Company and will invest $100,000 in piping natural gas from near fields to supply a system of suburban towns, now short of such a supply.

The other new concern, the Pittsburgh and Montana Development Company, will invest $250,000 developing 4,000 acres of mineral property in Montana, said to be rich in copper. Both companies were chartered through the Pittsburgh office of the New Jersey Corporation, Guarantee and Trust Company.

Those at the head of the Suburban Gas Company are T. Dale Jennings of Sewickley, R. D. Brent, an East End druggist, and J. C. Connell of Pittsburgh. The charter provides for the supplying of light, heat and power by natural or artificial gas.

The organizers of the Pittsburgh and Montana Development Company are R. P. Dunlevy, W. R. Bell and Attorney John M. Petty of Pittsburgh. They plan the immediate development of the western copper field and will erect a smelting plant on the ground.

James L. Hukill, president of the Pennsylvania Malleable Company; Richard J. Evans, general manager of the Franklin Manufacturing Company, and Robert F. Hunter of Joseph Woodwell & Co. are leading spirits in another new Pittsburgh enterprise, which will start a general manufacturers' and contractors' supply business this month. It will be known as the Hukill-Hunter Company and will start with a paid-up capital of $50,000. A lease was closed yesterday for the building recently occupied by George A. Kim & Co., glass jobbers, No. 20 Wood street, corner of First avenue. The company is to be chartered in Harrisburg by Attorney Evans May 26. Mr. Hunter has been connected with Joseph Woodwell & Co. for 18 years. Mr. Hukill, before going into the Pittsburgh Malleable Company, was connected with Woodwell interests for 12 years.

PUNISHMENT WAS NOT SEVERE.

Braddock Soldier Returned from Philippines Tells of Natives' Treachery.

"The punishment was not half as severe as it should have been in view of the treachery of the natives," said Frank Bradley of Braddock, who returned yesterday from the Philippines, where he served as a member of troop F, Fourth cavalry, which saw service in Luzon.

Bradley was speaking of the court-martial of Gen. Jacob Smith when he made this statement. He says the charges against Gen. Smith originated with disgruntled soldiers who did little or nothing while in the service but "kick."

Bradley says the mistake of the entire campaign has been the action of the government in trying to establish a stable government until the natives were given to understand that the power of the United States is supreme and that they will be treated with consideration. Then, he said, the natives, finding there was a disposition to treat them fair, much of the trouble would have been avoided.

Bradley declares he is going to re-enlist and says he will make an effort to return to the Philippines.

Alum is used in some baking powders and in most of the so-called phosphate powders, because it is cheap, and makes a cheaper powder. But alum is a corrosive poison which, taken in food, acts injuriously upon the stomach, liver and kidneys.
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WILLIAM ST., NEW YORK.

Congressman Mudd Renominated.

CHESAPEAKE BEACH, MD., May 2.—Congressman Sydney E. Mudd has been nominated by the Republicans of the Fifth district.

Condemned in Missouri and Confiscated in New York.

Judge Clarke of St. Louis has convicted and fined heavily a number of grocers for selling baking powders containing alum.

The week before the health department of New York seized a quantity of stuff being sold for baking powder which they found was made from alum mixed with ground rock, and dumped it into the river.

The health authorities are thus taking effective means to prevent the introduction into our markets of injurious substitutes in place of wholesome baking powders.

As alum costs only 2 cents a pound, there is a great temptation for those manufacturers who make substitutes and imitation goods to use it. Alum baking powders can be detected by the health authorities by chemical analysis, but the ordinary housekeeper, whose assistance in protecting the health of the people is important, cannot make a chemical examination. She may easily know the alum powders, however, from the fact that they are sold at from 10 to 20 cents for a pound can, or that some prize—like a spoon, or glass, or piece of crockery, or woodenware—is given with the powder as an inducement.

As the people continue to realize the importance of this subject and consumers insist on having baking powder of established name and character, and as the health authorities continue their vigorous crusades, the alum danger will, it is hoped, finally be driven from our homes.

The Business Situation.

A feeling of conservatism appeared in financial circles this week. It was first manifested in the action of the New York clearing house association in adopting resolutions to the effect that banking institutions not members of the association, but which use its facilities, be required to maintain larger cash reserves. The banking act requires national banks in the larger cities to maintain a cash reserve equal to 25 per cent of net deposits, and this requirement has been tacitly observed by state and national banks members of the New York clearing house. There is no law governing the amount of reserve to be maintained by state banks and trust companies, and the latter, it has been alleged, have been extending credit to Wall street beyond the line that is regarded as conservative. As a consequence of the adoption of the new policy, there was free calling of loans in Wall street this week, and at one time the rate for short loans advanced to 15 per cent. The effect was to cause extensive liquidation in the stock market, and incidentally some speculative bubbles were pricked.

It is not improbable that some recent incidents in the market prompted the action of the banks this week, although its advisability has been frequently under discussion in the past. Hereafter it may be a little more difficult to buy control over night of a $60,000,000 railroad, or to boost the market price of more or less questionable industrials to the extent of 33 to 2,000 per cent in a week or two. The check thus placed upon rampant speculation by daring manipulators, which might easily tempt the public to overtrading, will conserve the interests of commercial classes who seek accommodation in bank, and will remove a source of apprehension from the business situation.

The declaration of a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent on Pennsylvania railroad stocks was an incident of another kind. Since 1885 the regular semi-annual rate has been 2½ per cent, with the occasional payment of an extra dividend at the end of the year. The gross earnings of this system for 1901 exceeded $101,000,000, and thus far this year increases have been reported. A corporation which handles a business of $3,000,000 a day must necessarily come into touch with vast and varied interests, and this contact should enable its directors to form the best judgment as to general conditions. It may be fairly inferred from the action in increasing the rate of dividend that in the view of the management the business outlook is bright, a view that must be generally encouraging.

May day brought the usual number of labor strikes, and in some trades operations have been affected thereby, but thus far no serious interruption has occurred. The movement of merchandise, as gauged by railways traffic returns, is on the same enormous scale as reported for weeks past. Crop news has been a little more favorable, although the present indications are that the yield of winter wheat will be short of expectations. Changes in commodity values have not been important, except for the decline in meats, the consumption of which has been curtailed by unusually high prices. Exports of wheat reached 5,300,000 bushels, the largest for any week this year, and at Chicago there was a slight advance in wheat.

[illegible]i-Oleo Bill and Butter Combine.

[illegible]he matter is presented to him [illegible] proper light President Roosevelt [illegible] undoubtedly veto the anti-[illegible]rine bill that is now before him. The bill is ostensibly in the interest of the farmers, but is really in the interest of a combination of creamery owners that depresses the price of milk on one hand and increases the price of butter on the other, as it is afforded opportunity. The anti-oleo bill will give the opportunity. The farmer sells his milk to the creamery for what he can get, and the price of butter apparently bears little relation to it. When the anti-oleo measure passed the senate, after having passed the house, the creamery men in their fancied security ordained a large increase in the price of butter, but made no corresponding increase in the price they paid the farmer for the milk from which the butter is made. This attempt to "do" the public on one side and the farmer on the other for the benefit of the combination did not escape detection. It was made apparent thereby what is to be expected if the president makes the bill a law by signing it. The combine saw that it was overreaching itself, and, losing its nerve, dropped the price again and began to make explanations that did not explain. The president will do the farmers and the public a service by killing the anti-oleo measure with a stroke of his pen. The combination that expects to use it in restraint of trade to enrich itself at the public expense should be disappointed.

Suggestion to the License Court.

The license court, it has been said, intends to add to the rules for the government of liquor dealers. In doing this it would be a good thing were it to take notice of the manner in which speakeasies and dens of various kinds are supplied with beer and other beverages of an intoxicating nature and stop, or at least restrain or check, the trade by means of an order to brewers and wholesalers to not sell to such places on pain of the revocation of their licenses. It is common rumor that hundreds of places retail liquor at all hours of the day and night, including Sunday, and that they do the greater part of their business in the hours during which the licensed retailers' places of business must be closed. These unlawful places obtain their supplies of liquor from brewers, bottlers and wholesale houses, and it has been said that they purchase immunity from arrest by patronizing certain specified dealers. There is little doubt that a rule of court will go far toward breaking up the illicit trade.

Sound Advice.

President Roosevelt is the exponent and exemplar of a strenuousness that is based upon sound principle and sane methods. His address to the graduating class at the naval academy at Annapolis yesterday contains the gospel of strenuousness, but it is not the heated and rash doctrine of war for the mere sake of glory or conquest. The emphasis he gives to national preparation for self-defense evinces the wisdom of the statesman as well as the pride of the patriot. According to the president it is the training, self-sacrifice and discipline that go before the actual conflict that gives the fighter his greatest efficiency. "The shots that count are the shots that hit." If shots are to hit there must be a preparatory period of training in marksmanship. There must be a long preliminary period of training in seamanship, in steam engineering and in ship building. The battle of Manila bay and that off Santiago were won before the firing of a shot, in the training of the men to handle ships and guns and in the building of the ships and in the making and adjustment of their armament. The American triumphs had their beginnings at Annapolis, where future triumphs now have their roots. Thoroughness of training in time of peace prepares for every emergency in time of war. It is what is behind the man behind the gun that counts. The nation, too, in time of peace must prepare for days of stress, by providing the means for meeting emergencies as they arise. "A battleship cannot be improvised" as the president well said. It is the work of years of study and labor. Trained officers and trained crews and guns and ammunition cannot be improvised. They must all be ready when the demand for them arises. The strenuousness of the battle is but the picturesque climax of the strenuousness of constant preparedness. The chief factor in triumph is the preparation that has been made before the struggle. The nation as well as the cadets to whom the president spoke and over whose heads he spoke to a more numerous audience should bear this in mind.

Facts About Freight.

More facts are presented this morning concerning the freight congestion in the Pittsburgh district. The figures are stupendous, but they are conservative since they do not include all in the lines considered. The difficulty of obtaining complete data can only be compared to a census enumeration, with the added circumstance that shippers and railroads are loth to give out information.

The Gazette has succeeded, however, in getting an array of facts that is startling. It needs little argument to demonstrate their importance to Pittsburgh and the railroads. Each has been aware of his own troubles and in the totals he can see he has been no worse off than his neighbors. We have said before, and this statement cannot be too strongly emphasized, that the situation is not one for indulging abuse, but one in which all interests must co-operate for relief.

Lieut. Doddridge's Explanation.

Lieut. John S. Doddridge, speaking for his comrades who were arrested and imprisoned in Venice, denies the allegation that they were under the influence of drink, or that they deliberately created a disturbance in the cafe. He says that the table at which they sat was accidentally upset, and that out of this simple incident all the trouble arose. Any person who has ever sat at one of these little jimcrack, three-legged affairs upon which wine is served to customers upon the boulevards and piazzas of southern European countries knows how likely Doddridge's explanation is to be in accordance with facts. Nor is his further declaration that he and his comrades were set upon by a rabble without cause or provocation lightly to be set aside, when it is remembered that swarms of these lazzaroni and idlers hang around every street ready to interpret a perfectly innocent misunderstanding or accident as a foreign insult. In the scrimmage which followed, Lieut. Doddridge maintains, the American officers acted purely in self-defense against a large and hostile crowd.

His statement bears the impress of truth. The implicated officers will be tried by court-martial. We must await the result of that inquisition before arriving at a definite conclusion. We have heard the Venetian side of the affair very fully indeed. The character of the acts which they attributed to the American officers was so circumstantial and detailed that there seemed to be no room either for extenuation of their conduct or much hope for claiming for them the clemency of the crown except upon grounds of international courtesy and obligation. Doddridge's calm and dignified plea puts the whole affair in quite a different light than could be gleaned from the first reports that reached this country.

To the openings of the spring, baseball, golf, tennis and other seasons has been added that of the straw hat. A week or so ago a man wearing headgear constructed of straw was seen hurrying over the Sixth street bridge, at an early hour in the morning, as though a mob were at his heels. This, of course, could not be considered a formal opening of the season, for that event must take place on Fifth avenue, in broad sunlight, and yesterday such an event was witnessed. One swallow does not make a summer, but only one straw hat is required to open the season set apart for that particular design of head covering. The straw hat is welcome.

Beef Not Necessary.

From the Indianapolis News.

The high price of beef affords a fine opportunity to expound the food value of various edibles. The good to be done is not decreased by the fact that it may be making a virtue of necessity. Good authority is pretty well agreed that as a rule we eat too much meat. With all our variety of choice we tend to confine our diet to a dull round of which the chief ingredients are beef and potatoes. We eat too little fish, for example. We eat less of fowl, particularly of ducks, while outside of the German population goose is almost an unknown bird. Two of the grains that stand in the front rank of foods, rice and hominy, are all too much neglected. The former is as easily prepared for the table as tea almost, and is most nourishing, supplying the elements necessary for strength in a wonderful degree. But too often people do not know and will not learn how to cook it properly. Most Americans boil it ad libitum until the starch runs and it is not fit for anything.

New Bridges Only Solution of Bridge Puzzle

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, May 2.

With dozens of suggestions for relieving the congestion at the Manhattan end of the Brooklyn bridge the trouble is just as insistent as ever it was. There are the same wild scenes of carnage and calisthenics every evening at the rush hour and the police have just as hard a time to keep people from beneath the wheels of the trolley cars. Gustav Lindenthal, bridge commissioner, means to have a change soon, however, if it can be obtained. One plan that he looks upon with favor, within certain limits, is the placing of a moving sidewalk on the bridge by which passengers may pass from one side of the road to the other, but not in connection with the "L" railroads. Mr. Lindenthal says that the plan is feasible. There has been a disposition to regard the moving sidewalk proposition as a joke and Mr. Lindenthal, as an engineer of eminence, wants to correct that mistaken impression. He said today: "It is a practical mechanical contrivance, and I want the public to know that there is a reputable business concern in this city ready to install such a system, were it to be adopted." It looks to the man in the street as if there were too many conflicting interests connected with the Brooklyn bridge; that it is not likely there will be much relief until the building of three of four other bridges relieves the trouble. To quote Mr. Lindenthal again: "What the Brooklyn elevated lines want is to have a terminus and switch yard on Center street and they should not be allowed to have it. The Brooklyn trolley companies have been bluffing all along. The whole matter now lies with the rapid transit commission."

The Grass Shack for Summering.

New Yorkers are beginning to talk about their summer homes in the country and are looking for something to give them a spice of novelty. They seem to have found it in the "grass shack." The "shack" is really green rattan lawn shelter. It is built with three walls and a slanting roof. If the sun is too hot or if there comes up a shower curtains of green waterproof awning can be drawn to shut out heat and moisture, leaving the front of the shack still wide open. The floor of the shelter must be the fresh green grass and every day the rattan should be set up in a new place, in order to preserve the lawn from injury, and also in order to gain the benefits accruing from sitting and lying on fresh, vital, springy, grass-tufted earth. Along with the shelter must be purchased a complete set of lawn furniture. When the weather is fine, not only should one sit on the lawn, but, when the napping hour comes round, on a fine Mexican or Indian blanket, one should couch flat upon the earth, a jute pillow stuffed with sweet hay under one's head, and sleep of the most beneficial sort will result.

Chinatown's Mayor in Love.

Chuck Connors, mayor of Chinatown, has come out of his retirement to express his untutored admiration for Ada Lewis, the actress. To explain Mr. Connors' infatuation it is necessary only to recall that Miss Lewis has gained fame for her artistic representation of a "tough girl." Chuck answers in the affirmative the famous question asked in Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado," "Is a maiden any better when she's tough?" He met Miss Lewis at the New York theater and is reported to have invited her to a chop-suey supper. The fact that she declined has not reduced Chuck to despair, and there may be more of this affair in the society columns of New York newspapers.

May Yohe Pines for a Western Ride.

May Yohe could not get her ride in the Deadwood coach at the "Wild West" show last night, much as she desired it, because the seats were all taken. But she has hopes yet. Buffalo Bill will be here for a week or two longer, with the coach starting twice a day for its wild dash in Madison Square garden. Miss Yohe generally gets what she has set her heart on.

New Downtown Skyscrapers.

Skyscraping buildings continue to be projected in lower Broadway. Now it is said that a new 25-story building will be erected at Broadway, Thames and Cedar streets. This is the very heart of the business districts, and land is of almost priceless value there. Cedar and Thames streets are both extremely narrow thoroughfares, with high buildings hedging them in, so that they are mere slits in the architecture of the locality. The cost of the property on which the new edifice is to be erected is $3,000,000, including an old-fashioned building standing on the site. The new one is expected to cost not less than $2,000,000. The George A. Fuller Construction Company owns the property at present, but will sell out to a syndicate if the rumored deal goes through.

Improved Methods at Custom House.

There are to be changes in the methods of baggage inspection on the steamship piers in this city, according to the new secretary of the treasury, Leslie M. Shaw. He said today that there would be improvements, but added, soberly: "We are going to collect the duties. The changes must not interfere with that." Of course, they must not, but improvements are certainly needed in the way of collecting duties. Many a Pittsburgher has painful knowledge of that.

Roosevelt's Interest in Tombs Angel.

Those who are taking an active part in raising money for a monument to Mrs. Rebecca Salome Foster, known all over the world as "the Tombs angel," are much encouraged by receiving a subscription from President Roosevelt. When the present chief executive was president of the board of police commissioners in this city, he was brought into contact with Mrs. Foster repeatedly. Impetuous, as always, in good works, Theodore Roosevelt took a warm personal interest in the work done by the "Tombs angel," and she could always depend on his assistance when needed. Now that he is president of the United States, he does not overlook the matters which used to engage his attention in the old days, and he is always a New Yorker, ready to take a hand in anything of local import.

Actors' Fund Home Dedication.

An interesting ceremony to take place next Thursday will be the dedication of the Actors' Fund home at New Brighton, Staten Island. Those officiating will be Mayor Low, Bishop Potter and Joseph Jefferson, and music will be furnished by the combined orchestras of the New York theaters under the direction of William Furst. The Rev. Dr. Houghton, pastor of the "Little Church Around the Corner," also will take part. It is expected that a large number of actors and actresses will be present, although there will be no formal invitations issued. The home is a new institution, although the building itself is not new. The fund bought a handsome property on Staten island some time ago and had it refitted to suit the requirements of its new purpose. It is the first time the fund has had a retreat of its own, and the whole profession has been much interested in it.

Yesterday's Immigration Wave.

More than 4,000 immigrants were landed at Ellis island today. Of these 4,000 the Rhein, from Bremen, brings 2,000; the Bulgaria, from Hamburg, 1,037, and the Perugia, from Naples, has 1,200 Italians, Greeks, Sicilians and other south of Europe peoples on board. There will be a crush tomorrow when the fleet that is due to arrive brings in its thousands of Germans, Italians, Irish, Scandinavians and other peasants from practically every country in Europe. The ships due to arrive and the number of steerage passengers on each are: Attivita, Naples, 800; Phoenicia, Hamburg, 2,194; Lucania, Liverpool, 865; Philadelphia, Southampton, 700; Columbia, Hamburg, 415; Celtic, Liverpool, 2,000; Tartar Prince, Naples, 1,100; Rotterdam, Rotterdam, 1,000. There will be a record-breaking crowd at the island if all these ships get in on schedule time, and the officials will have the hardest day's work of their lives.

Coaching Parade Today.

The Coaching club's annual parade is scheduled for tomorrow. There will be 10 coaches in line driven by these 10 distinguished whips: Col. William Jay, Reginald W. Rives, vice president of the club; Robert L. Gerry, Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Edward Browning of Philadelphia, Jamees M. Smith, Thomas McKane, Harry Payne Whitney, George G. Hayden, Jr., and G. L. Boissedain. With its women in their gayly-colored coaching costumes, the mettlesome horses, the handsome vehicles and liveried attendants, the annual coaching parade has always been one of the sights of Central park, and it is expected the usual crowd will be present at 11 o'clock tomorrow to witness the start.

School Children Plant Trees.

This was Arbor day in New York. In Manhattan and the Bronx there was tree and flower planting by 280,000 school children, together with an elaborate program of recitations, essays and songs. The training department of the Normal college planted an evergreen tree in the college grounds dedicated to the memory of Ralph Waldo Emerson. The tree will be known as the "Emerson tree." The former school commissioner and president of the council, Randolph Guggenheimer, made the brief address at the planting. Down on the East Side, where the nearest real tree to some of the schools is half a mile away, the geranium planting is made quite an occasion, and in most cases is the first real sign of spring the children of that district have seen. Arbor day this year is made especially interesting and important by reason of the fact that State Superintendent Skinner has been authorized to offer 20 new prizes for the school year beginning May 1. The prizes are 20 American flags, each six by nine feet, and they are to be given to the 20 schools of the state which shall show the greatest improvement in school grounds during the year.

Nixon Overrules Croker.

Lewis Nixon, officially the head of Tammany hall, has smashed Richard Croker's slate for the election of sachems. At least, that is what the wise ones say, and the man who succeeded Mr. Croker as leader of the organization admits that he has had his own way. The disagreement was over the make-up of the board of sachems. As the time of the annual Tammany elections approached Mr. Nixon called many of the braves together and expected to settle the question in the manner most likely to strengthen the organization, but to his surprise he was informed that before the old-time leader sailed for Wantage he had prepared his slate and wished to discipline several well-known district leaders. Mr. Nixon was determined and said he would have things done as he thought right or not at all. Rather, he said, would he resign the leadership, which was really thrust upon him. He had his way.

Road Drivers' Clubhouse Opening.

The clubhouse of the Road Drivers' association will be opened formally tomorrow afternoon with a beefsteak dinner. More than 250 horses have been entered for the parade, to be held on Speedway day, May 10, under the auspices of the association. In addition almost 100 trotters and pacers have been named to contest in the pre-arranged brushes that will be a part of the day's program. City officials and men prominent in the trotting horse world have accepted invitations to view the parade and brushing, and for their convenience, by special permission of the park department, a grand stand seating about 300 persons has been erected on the Speedway, just in front of the association's new home.

Godspeed to Whitelaw Reid.

A banquet to Whitelaw Reid before he sails as special ambassador from the United States to the British coronation will be given by members of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity on Saturday evening, May 10, at Delmonico's. Another dinner will be given in his honor on May 14 at the Union League club. The dinner is not given by the club, but by a large number of its members who are personal friends of Mr. Reid. The affair is in charge of a committee, including the president of the club, Cornelius N. Bliss, ex-Postmaster Thomas L. James, Charles Stewart Smith, Edward D. Adams, Col. J. B. Erhardt, John Sleicher, Herbert P. Brown and George S. Terry. President Roosevelt and the members of the cabinet, and several former members of the cabinet, including Charles Emory Smith and ex-Attorney-General Griggs, have been invited.

THE MAN UP A TREE

The Only Trouble.

"I see that you have a woman for cashier in place of Billy," said a friend of the proprietor.

"Yes," replied the business man; "I had to let Billy go, and I thought I'd try a woman as his successor."

"How does she answer?"

"She's quick at figures, and she's accurate, but she's rather delicate."

"That's a drawback, but then Billy had his objectionable characteristics."

"He had. However, Miss Greenback hasn't lost any time on account of ill health since she came. I said she was delicate because she always sneezes when a sight draft comes in."

From a High Viewpoint.

O, well, a man who can afford a Panama costing fifty plunks or thereabouts ought to have nerve enough to open the straw hat season.

Sugar trust officials deny that the combine has annexed Cuba or any portion thereof.

President Roosevelt himself hit the bull's eye when he told the graduates at the naval academy that the shots that count are the shots that hit.

John Bull need not be unduly disturbed. A pool does not seem so very unnatural for steamships.

The man who wore the first straw hat in the streets of Buffalo this year thrashed the fellow who laughed at him and was sent to the penitentiary. What show has courage nowadays?

Mr. Wilkinsburg—Well, I suppose it will take considerable raising of the wind to make the airship go.

WAIT UNTIL ELEVATER STOPS BEFORE GETTING ON

"Do you know, Miss Clara," said the clerk, who gets off at floor ten, to the typewriter who leaves the elevator at floor twelve, "that it costs two cents to make the round trip in an elevator?"

"Nonsense, Mr. Bingle," replied tdhe girl. "I never heard of charging to ride up and down in an elevator."

"It costs two cents, all the same, Miss Clara."

"How?"

"There's the ascent going up and the descent coming down."

A First Glimpse of the Summer Man.

PERSONALS.

A small, nervous man whose head was covered with a large white sombrero and whose shoes were covered with yellow mud attracted a great deal of attention at Union station last night. A brown coat encased his slender form and under his arms he carried all his personal property. Nearly every employe of the station was accosted by this little man, who wanted to take the train for New York. Finally a kind-hearted porter showed him to his train, and as he boarded it he told him in broken English that he would remember him upon his return from Germany. The little man was Jacob Oberecht of Tiffin, O., and he was on his way to New York, whence he will sail for Germany on Wednesday to collect an inheritance lately left him by an aged uncle. When seen on the train he said: "My uncle, who was 84 years of age, died two months ago and left me 60,000 marks. He lived near Hesse Cassel, and I am going there to get this fortune. I am a shoemaker by trade, but have worked during the summer months since I came to this country as a farm hand."

Curtis H. Lindsay, a leading attorney of San Francisco, passed through Pittsburgh last night on the limited from Washington, D. C., where he had been attending the session of the United States supreme court in the interest of some mining companies of California. "We will have an election for governor of California this fall," he remarked, "and I think that Gov. Henry T. Gage will be re-elected, although a hard fight will be made against him. All the Republican morning papers of San Francisco are against his re-election, as are many other Republican papers throughout the state. He has made a good governor."

Many of the leading physicians of the South Side had a supper last night at Janney's place. Dr. John M. Duff was toastmaster. The following toasts were responded to: "Our Object," J. P. Saling; "Medical Societies," W. H. Kirk; "The Social Side of Medicine," W. T. Burleigh; "Professors' Observations," J. P. Kerr; "Young Men in Medicine," M. Schonfield; "Organization," C. A. Hertzog; "Doctors in Politics," A. J. Barchfeld; "Brains," C. C. Hersman; "Doctors Out of Politics," G. P. Rossman; "The Press in Relation to Medicine," J. M. McDonald.

W. K. Murphy, secretary of the Horse Shoe Mining Company of Milwaukee, was a passenger on the limited last night. "Our company is capitalized at $10,000,000," he said, "and is one of the finest properties in the Black Hills. We have just opened a quartzite ledge which our mining experts say will produce 1,000 tons of ore per day for the next 40 years. They say the silver produced from this ore will pay the mining expense for extracting the gold from it. We are now erecting a new cyanide mill that will operate 1,000 tons of ore daily."

Superintendent William Muth of the Allegheny police will leave Tuesday evening to attend the convention of the National Association of Chiefs of Police of the United States and Canada, which is to be held at Louisville, Ky., for four days, commencing on Wednesday, May 7. Representatives of 25 governments will be present, and the subject of anarchy will be one of the most important questions before the convention. Supt. Muth will read a paper before the convention.

WANT A DIRECTOR FIRST.

New School Official Recommended in Connection With Physical Culture.

The committee on text books and course of study of the Central Board of Education met last evening to take action upon the course of physical study as prepared by a special committee.

An objection was filed by several instructors against any change, and the matter was postponed with the understanding that it is to be taken up at a future date. It was decided that the office of director of physical culture should be created first, and the committee made recommendation that such a position be established.

Wanted to Plow and Was Tied.

Jacob Smith, an old man, was lodged in jail last night on a surety of the peace charge brought by his wife, Elizabeth Smith, before W. D. Mansfield, justice of the peace. Smith lives near Tarentum. He said last night that his two sons are coal miners and that because he wanted to plow his ground after the heavy rain a few days ago, they tied his hands and feet. He worked himself loose and then there was trouble. He says he is charged with threatening his wife with a hatchet.

Was a Record-Breaker.

Last month was a record breaker at the South Side hospital, there having been more cases admitted and treated than ever before since the founding of the institution. Up until the present time the month of July, 1901, held the record; the number of patients then admitted was 104. Last month 165 new patients were admitted, making a total of 61 over the number admitted last July. The total number of patients, including those outside the hospital, now being treated is 240.

Want Site for Baths.

The joint committee on free baths of Allegheny councils met for the first time last night. The councils have appropriated $10,000 for free baths. The committee, on motion of Charles Kershler, decided to recommend the acquisition of a site in the Fifth or Sixth ward and Messrs. Kershler, Steinbrenner, Keane and Trimble were appointed a sub-committee to look for the ground. Messrs. Gles, Keane and Burry were appointed a sub-committee to inspect other baths.

Child's Skull Fractured.

James Macklin, four years of age, son of Patrick Macklin of No. 2009 Wrights alley, was fatally injured yesterday afternoon at South Twentieth and Sidney streets by being run over by a buggy driven by a negro named James Wallace. The child attempted to run across the street, but was knocked down by the horse. His skull is fractured and his face badly cut. It is thought that the horse stepped on his head.

THE DEATH ROLL.

Amos J. Cummings.

BALTIMORE, May 2.—Congressman Amos J. Cummings of New York died at 10:15 o'clock at the Church home and infirmary in this city. The cause of death was pneumonia, incident to an operation. The congressman's wife and cousin, Charles H. Cummings, were at his bedside when death came. Congressman Cummings came to Baltimore on April 11 to undergo treatment for kidney trouble. Four days later an operation was performed by Dr. Hugh H. Young and Mr. Cummings seemed to be on a fair way to recovery. A week later, however, pleurisy developed and on April 28 it was announced that Mr. Cummings was suffering from pneumonia in one lung. Last Tuesday it was announced that the malady had extended to both lungs, since which time Mr. Cummings had been hovering between life and death. Amos J. Cummings was born in Conkling, Broome county, N. Y., May 15, 1841. He received a common school education and entered a printing office as an apprentice when 12 years of age. Since that time he had set type in nearly every state in the Union. In many ways his early life was an exciting one. When a boy he was with Walker in the last invasion of Nicaragua. In the civil war he was a sergeant-major in the Twenty-sixth New Jersey infantry, and received the congressional medal of honor for gallantry on the battlefield. He was a delegate to the Democratic national conventions of 1892 and 1896. Since the close of the civil war, Mr. Cummings had been one of the best-known editors in the United States. He had filled editorial positions on the New York Tribune under Horace Greeley, the New York Sun under Charles A. Dana, and the New York Express. He was editor of the New York Evening Sun when elected to the Fiftieth congress. His experience in congress was a long one, as he served in the Fifty-first, Fifty-second, Fifty-third, Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth and the present congresses. He was elected to the present congress by a vote of 20,585 to 12,886 for John Glass, Jr. (Rep.); 99 for E. C. Barton (Pro.), and 243 for C. J. Tesche, (Social Labor).

Daniel H. Reese.

Daniel H. Reese of Patterson avenue, Rankin, died at the McKeesport hospital early yesterday morning. He was a carpenter, and was employed on the tunnel being widened at Port Perry for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. He was struck by a passenger train last Sunday while watching wreckage being cleared away from the Baltimore & Ohio tracks. Several ribs were broken on his left side, and one of them pierced his lung. He was 51 years old, and had been employed at the Edgar Thomson blast furnace for many years. A widow and two children survive, Mrs. Washington A. McClure of Rankin and John Reese of Hawkins avenue, Shady Park. Two brothers, John Reese of Jones avenue, North Braddock, and Morgan Reese in Wales, and two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Reese of Loraine, O., and Mrs. Wm. Hillah of this city also survive. The body was removed to the home of Mrs. McClure in Rankin. He was a member of the Second United Brethren church of Braddock. He had lived in Braddock for 25 years, and was known for many years as an ardent Francis Murphy temperance advocate. He was one of the leaders in the original movement at Braddock about 18 years ago.

Funeral of a Soldier.

Last taps will be sounded tomorrow afternoon for William Walter Heaps, a member of Uncle Sam's army in the Philippines, who died in the hospital at Bangued, Philippine islands, from wounds received during an engagement at Batriotio Abra, February 2. The body of young Heaps is at the home of his father, George Heaps, in Greentree borough, from which it will be taken to the St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal church, Sixth avenue, where the funeral services will be held. Young Heaps was a member of the Duquesne Greys when he enlisted on April 12, 1899, for service. He was assigned to Company D, Fifth United States infantry, then in Cuba. He was orderly to Adjutant General Andrews and Gen. Wood. The following year he secured a furlough and after visiting at his home he rejoined his regiment in New York and went to the Philippines. Pitt Glass Company in Washington street. The plant until recent years was conducted by Mr. Dithridge's son, Edward Dithridge, and was one of the best known glass plants in this section. INTEREST TAKEN IN ELECTION OF SCHOOL HEADS

Superintendents to Be Selected Next Tuesday All Over the State.

GOOD SALARIES ATTACHED

List of Western Pennsylvania Positions to Be Filled—Qualifications of a Superintendent—Some Advocate the Selection of Women.

More than ordinary interest is felt in the triennial election of county, city and borough school superintendents throughout the state on Tuesday next. While the office of superintendent is presumably non-political, the fact remains that in Republican counties no Democrat need apply and vice versa. Personal, religious and other considerations also enter largely into the contests.

The superintendencies are considered worth fighting for because of the liberal salaries paid, which range from $1,000 in the small counties to $5,000 in Philadelphia and Allegheny counties, as well as for the honorable nature of the office and the very moderately onerous character of the duties. But little is mandatory, although any school superintendent can find much legitimate work to do if he chooses.

List of Positions to Be Filled.

There is a legal minimum fixed for the salary of county superintendents, but no maximum, and the school directors of each county can pay what they please, provided all above $2,000 can be deducted from that county's share of the state school appropriation. The positions to be filled on Tuesday in Pittsburgh and vicinity, together with the names of the incumbents and their salaries, are as follows:

County superintendent of Allegheny county, Samuel Hamilton, $5,000; city superintendent of Pittsburgh, Samuel Andrews, $4,000; city superintendent of Allegheny, John Morrow, $3,000; Wilkinsburg, E. J. Shives, $2,000; McKeesport, H. F. Brooks, $1,800; Braddock, G. H. Lamb, $1,800; Homestead, John C. Kendall, $1,800; Mifflin township, J. M. Reed, $1,500; Washington county, Frank R. Hall, $2,000; Westmoreland, W. W. Ulrich, $2,500; Fayette, J. S. Carroll, $1,271; Beaver, C. A. Moore, $1,500; Lawrence, T. M. Stewart, $1,500; Armstrong, J. O. Wolfe, $1,500.

All the officials named are candidates for re-election, some with and some without opposition. It will be seen from this list that Allegheny county pays $20,900 annually for school supervision, not including the salaries paid to ward, borough and township principals.

The contest in which most local interest enters is that for county superintendent. This official has supervision over that part of Allegheny county outside of the cities and boroughs, which have superintendents of their own. The salary is the highest in the state except Philadelphia, which is the same, $5,000, and higher than that of the state superintendent himself, whose services are rated at $4,000.

The convention will meet at the North school, Duquesne way and Eighth street, at 10:30 a. m. on Tuesday, and after fixing the salary for the ensuing three years will proceed to select, viva voce, a superintendent from the three avowed candidates, Samuel Hamilton, the incumbent, S. S. Baker of Ingram and J. Q. A. Irvine of Etna.

There is nothing to prevent the directors from choosing a "dark horse," as the law does not impose a residence or even a sex qualification, the only thing required being a "person of literary and scientific acquirements and skill and experience in the art of teaching." All the candidates come up to these requirements. Superintendent Hamilton, because of his wide acquaintance and successful administration for 16 years, is, of course, strongly entrenched.

Some Favor a Woman.

Many admirers of certain local women educators raise the question, "Why not a woman for county or city superintendent?" They point to the fact that of the 1,251 teachers employed in the country districts last year 1,075 were women and the remaining 176 were men, who largely monopolized the principalships, which are the more ornamental and better paying positions. Of the 1,000 or more teachers in the city, all are women except a few high school professors and a majority of the ward principals. The advocates of a woman for superintendent declare that nothing could be more appropriate, since the most important duty of a superintendent—that of advising, aiding and encouraging young women teachers—could naturally be better performed by a tactful, experienced and sympathetic woman. They also emphasize the argument that the only legal requirements, namely, literary and scientific acquirements and skill and experience in teaching, should be as promptly recognized in women as in men. One of these eloquent advocates said yesterday:

"There is nothing in the argument that a woman is physically incapable of performing the duties of the office, since most of the schools can be reached by steam or trolley cars. The salary is about the only thing in the way—it is too much of a snap for men to allow to go to any woman. It is none too iaarge, however, for the great work possible, and among the Pittsburgh women teachers there are many who could develop the highest possibilities of the office."

Large Convention Expected.

Those eligible to membership in the county convention number over 600 and under the circumstances a very large attendance is expected. Besides, this year for the first time under a new law directors are allowed a per diem and mileage for attending the convention.

Directors who were elected last February have no voice in this election as their term of office does not begin until June. The city convention, composed of the 234 directors of the 39 sub-districts, will meet as usual at the Grant school at the same time as the county convention. Superintendent Samuel Andrews has no opposition, but on the contrary has an enthusiastic and loyal following. The central board of education has nothing to do with this election, although the city superintendent must report to it—one of the many incongruities of Pittsburgh's patch-work system of special school legislation.

Society.

SCARCELY ever has so pretty an entertainment and reception been given in the large school rooms of the Thurston Preparatory school in Shady avenue as took place last evening. The hostesses were the alumnae of the school, who combined to add to the Omega Phi Vassar scholarship fund, a purpose realized most successfully by the proceeds of the affair last evening. The social side of the entertainment was no less successful. There was a lavishness of decoration, large quantities of early spring flowers, with many ferns and palms, being arranged in artistic effect throughout the schoolrooms.

The alumnae called in the assistance of a few of the young men of the East End, with the result that one of the prettiest and most enjoyable of plays, "The Snowball," was presented with a cast that included

Felix Featherstone	Lee Marshall
Uncle John	Charles McVay
Harry Prendergast	Frederick Anderson
Saunders	Anson McVay
Mrs. Featherstone	Miss Margaret Marshall
Ethel Granger	Miss Irene Succop
Penelope	Miss Gertrude Heard

The play was given with all the accessories of stage effects and costumes. Miss Sara Morris was the efficient stage manager.

A curtain raiser, a pretty monologue entitled "When Jack Comes Home Late" preceded the play and was charmingly presented by Miss Ethel Pew, one of the seniors.

After the play refreshments were served by the students who were aides on the various committees appointed for the entertainment. Miss Lyda Vincent was chairman of the refreshment committee, Miss Emma Cain having charge of the lemonade stand. Miss Jennie Bradley presided over the candy table, which was one of the most successful features financially of the entertainment. The programs were dainty little affairs prepared under the direction of Miss Lena Reineman and the decorations were supervised by Miss Mary Kenney. During the latter part of the evening there was dancing.

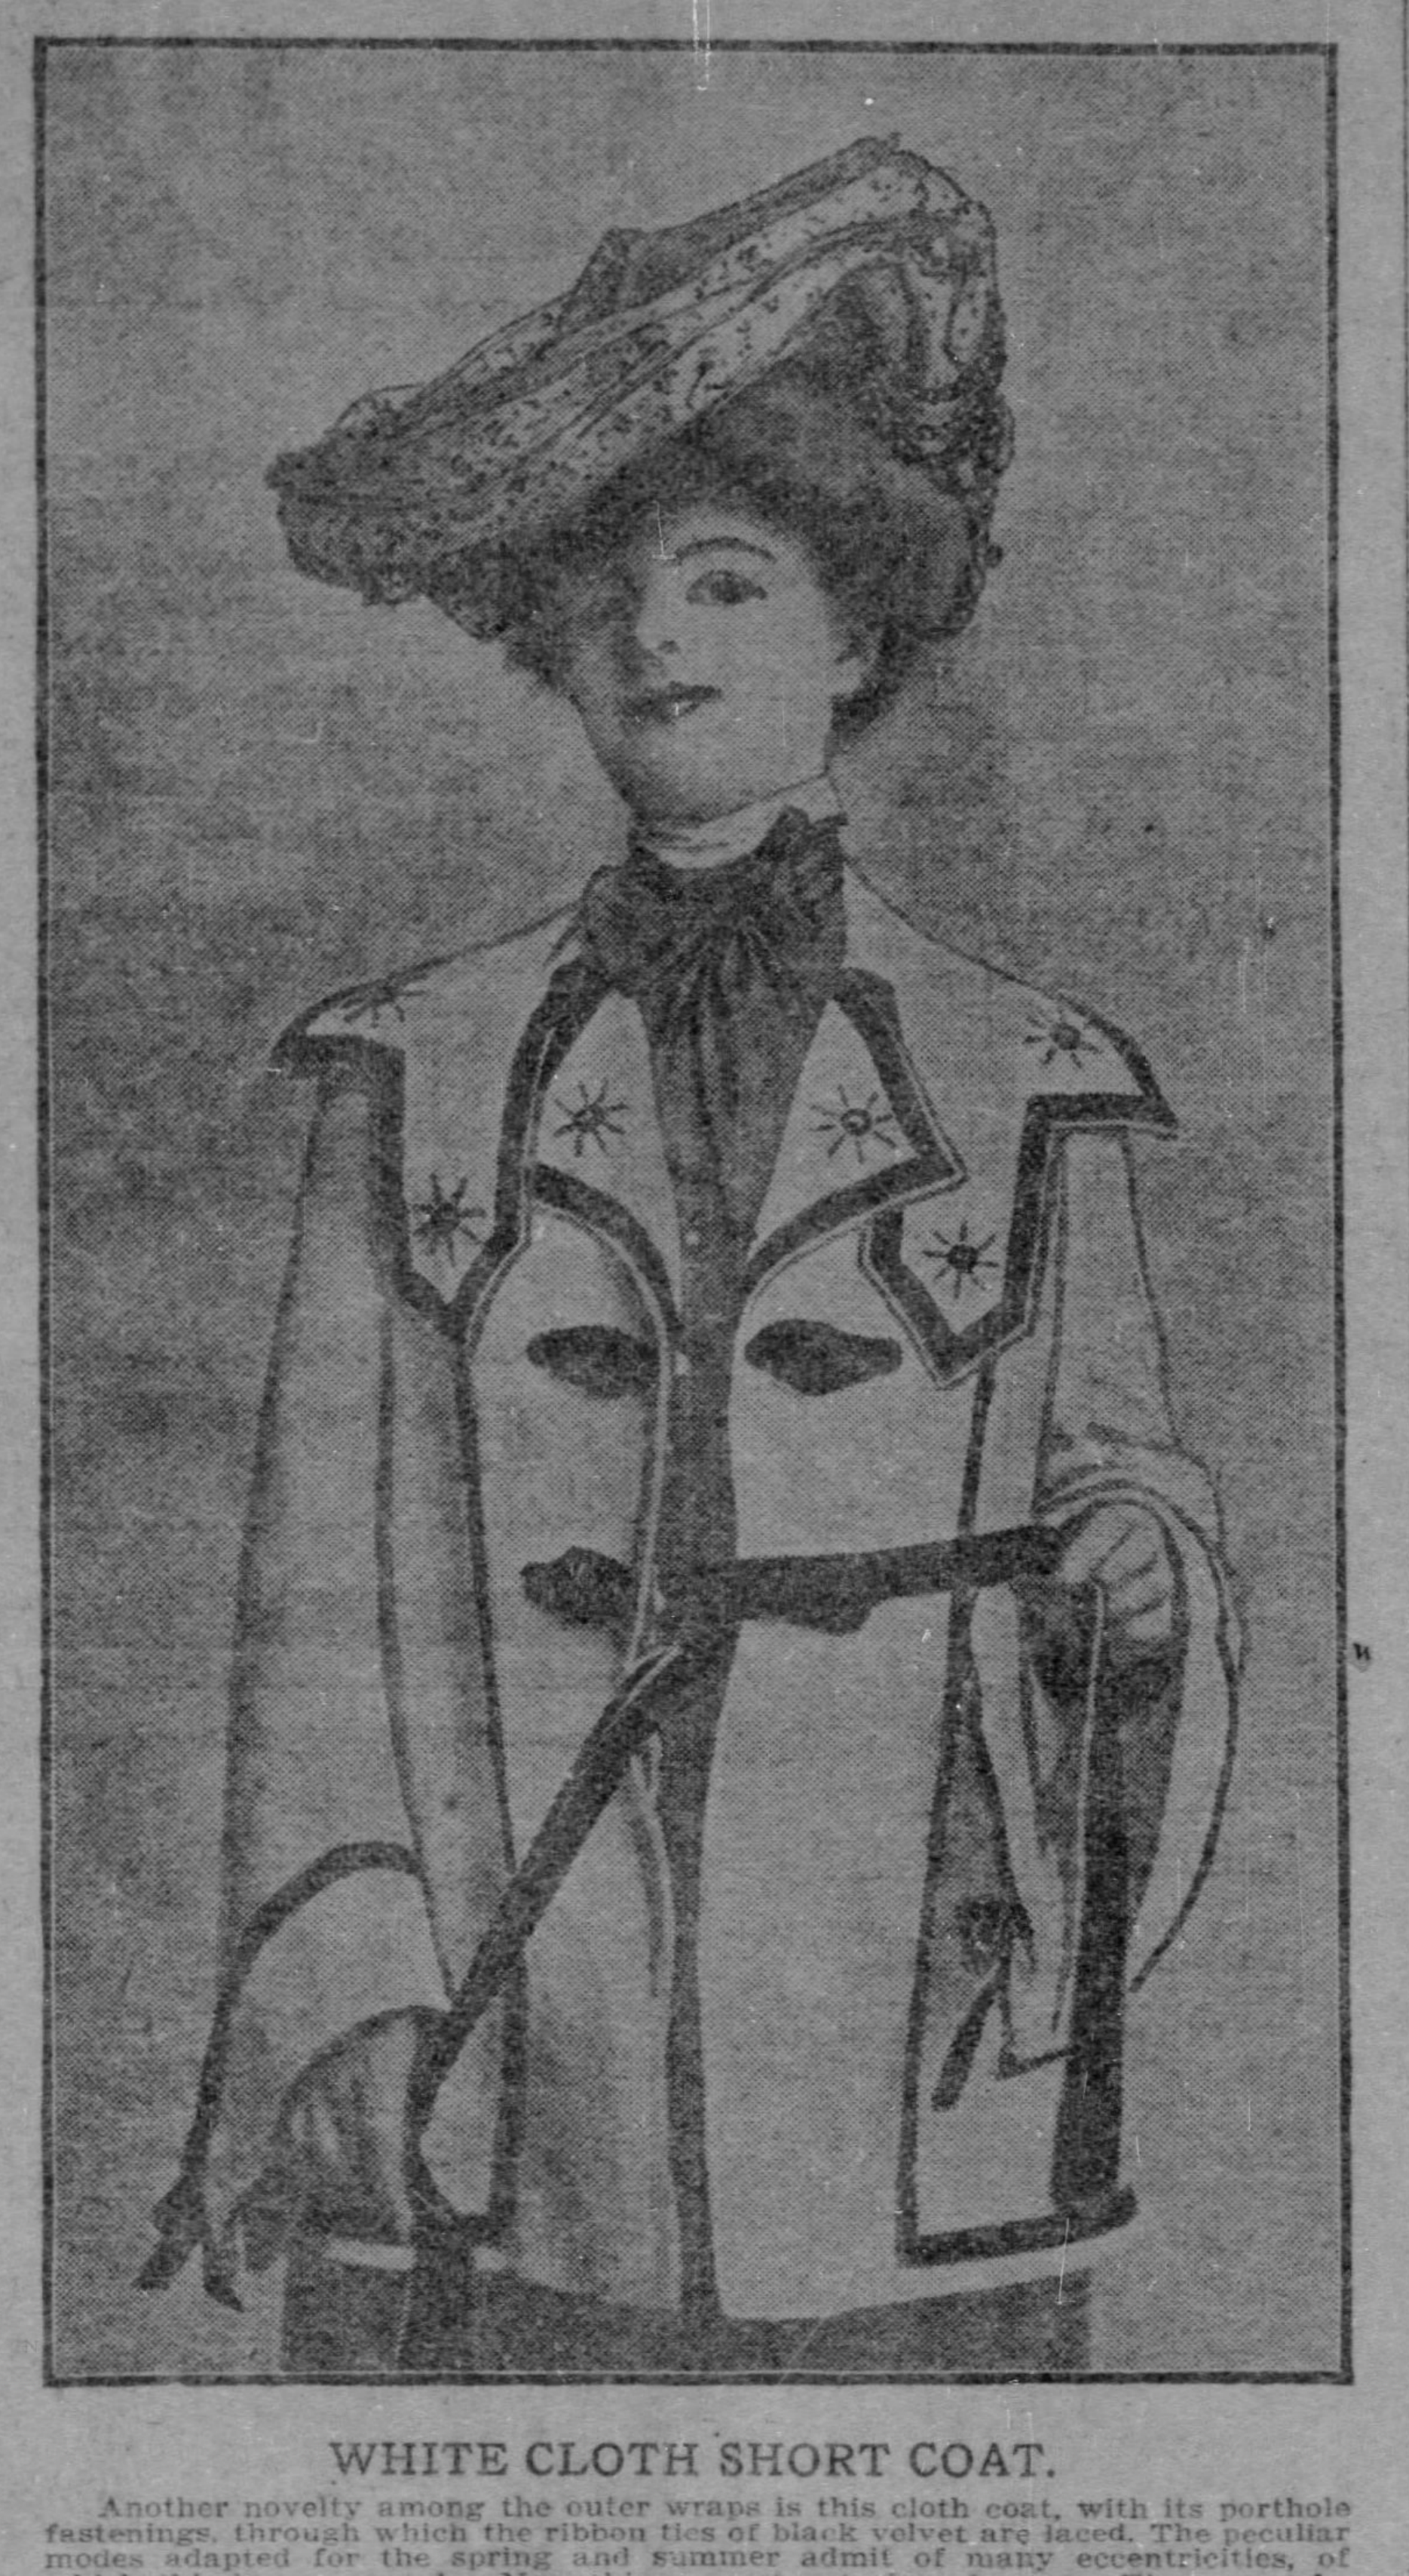
Whist Congress Elects Officers.

The fifth annual whist tournament of the Woman's Whist league has been meeting this week in Boston, Mass. Pittsburgh was represented by the Duquesne Whist club and yesterday at the annual election Mrs. Oliver D. Thompson, one of the best whist players in Pennsylvania, was elected secretary of the league. The officers elected are: President, Mrs. Henry Fry of Chicago; first vice president, Miss Ellen L. Goldsborough of Baltimore; second vice president, Mrs. Edwin L. Hill of Philadelphia; treasurer, Mrs. Silas W. Pettitt of Philadelphia.

More than 400 players have been in attendance at the tournament, representing 60 of the 120 clubs in the league. Those who have seen the playing this year say the tournament is the most brilliant one yet held.

"A Box of Monkeys."

Some of the young girls at the Alinda Preparatory school gave a little play yesterday afternoon in the school room in Fifth avenue and Craig street, Bellefield. The play was "A Box of Monkeys," a very amusing and enjoyable little farce, in which the young girls acquitted themselves with much credit, both to themselves and those in charge of the entertainment. The school rooms were prettily decorated with spring blossoms and school and college banners and a feature of the affair was the sale of candy and cake. The entertainment was given to raise a fund for the benefit of the summer playgrounds. The cast included Miss Rose Marsh, who bore the leading role; Miss Winifred King, Miss Helen Steinmeyer and Miss Smith.



WHITE CLOTH SHORT COAT.

Another novelty among the outer wraps is this cloth coat, with its porthole fastenings, through which the ribbon ties of black velvet are laced. The peculiar modes adapted for the spring and summer admit of many eccentricities, of which this is an example. New things must not alone be new. They must be also useful to even attract attention. This new coat is certainly deserving.

Art Society Recital.

The Kneisel quartet of Boston will give a recital at the next reception of the Art society. It will be held on Monday evening, May 12, in the Carnegie Music hall. The program will include the Beethoven quartet in E flat major and the Schumann pianoforte quintet, several movements from Caesar Franck's quartet in D major, and a couple of solo numbers by Alwin Schroeder, violoncello.

Miss Katherine Wilson returned last week from Boston, whither she accompanied her father, George H. Wilson, on a business trip.

PRISCILLA'S PENCIL

In noting the jauntiest hats for early spring wear has been impressed with the linen trimmed and bound affairs which have been turned out in a limited number by some of the smart milliners. An ordinary black chip hat, preferably one with a sort of tam crown, treated with a loosely rolled binding of stiff linen mesh around the brim, and with some of the same draped close to the overhanging crown, presents an exceedingly chic and fresh appearance. One hat so treated had its originality emphasized by discs of black velvet sewed over the inner wrapping, and another had a long quill thrust through some of the folds, wagging jauntily over one side of the brim. Worn with the early street gowns and the shirtwaist suits which are seasonable these hats give a marked finishing touch to the outdoor garb.

The Summer Slippers—
Are remarkable for their frailty in appearance. Straps in all shapes and directions are used to fasten most of them, and in some cases a mere toe cap is visible under a complete sandal of straps. These are very pretty, modifying the ugliness of a large or distorted foot by their apparent irregularity of outline and emphasizing the grace of a pretty one. The straight-tongued patent leather with its ribbon ties continues in high favor, but the great mass of attention goes to the sandal shapes, which range in height from the lowest of opera slippers to high boot-shaped sandals whose entire front is merely strapped from side to side.

In Dimities—
There is irresistable allurement these sunny days and the woman who goes fort without a definite idea of what she wants is apt to buy indiscriminately of the dainty fabric. The pale blue ones are the prettiest, as this is a tint which seems peculiarly and especially suited to dimity, and whether made in combination with white or black it is charmingly cool and dainty. In greens there are innumerable patterns of delicate vining and wreathing and these are of all things the most charming for summer kimonas or morning gowns. Simply made with ruffles or tucking in sheer white batiste or lawn they impart a fascination to summer morning attire impossible of attainment in any otherwise.

The Business Dress—
Is occupying the attention of very many women just now and the shirtwaist suit herein fills a long felt want. There are days when the lightest of serges or mohair skirts feel stuffy and heavy and when the added burden of a jacket is unbearable. But the shirtwaist suit made with tucked or flounced skirt and Gibson or sailor-collared waist is always fresh and cool, and with the addition of a small lightweight jacket is comfortable for any day of summer wear.

A Bit of Chamois—
And a bit of cocoa butter make a decidedly useful accessory for a downtown trip these dusty days. The cocoa butter is rubbed over the face, the chamois applied briskly and, presto, the whole skin is refreshed, the dust and grime of the car and streets removed and the shopper transformed from a shadowy-faced, weary-seeker, to a fresh-colored, dainty person.

CURRENT MODES.

Chinese blue is to be a fashionable shade. It is a clear, lovely blue, and always reminds one of cerulean blue, as cerulean looks when it lies upon an ivory palette ready for the brush. It is just right. It is becoming to most complexions and can be worn next to the face. Castor gray is another color that is just dawning anew as a gown color and that will be very much seen. It is the gray made familiar by the castor glove. There are two or three shades of castor, all very much to be recommended for their durable properties.

A pretty pale blue silk negligee is made with a square of ecru filet net in the neck, back and front, finished at the top with a fancy edge, as there is no collar. There is a flat bow of silk below the square of lace in the back, from which a band of three deep folds of the silk is carried around under the arm, finishing in the front with two choux of the silk, one on either side. Three more of these folds are carried over the shoulder, from the cross folds in the back to those in the front. The fullness of the gown falls from this yokelike effect, given by the folds and the lace, in deep plaits. On the front, from the choux of silk, the fullness is held in place on one side with box plaits and on the other closely under the chou with gathers.

For mousseline gowns, especially black ones, the sash ends are very wide and beautifully inset with lace, black, when the gown is all black, black and white, or all white, when the rest of the trimming is of that character.

HOUSEKEEPERS' NOTEBOOK.

A sponge should never be used unless it be sweet and clean. After washing it, dry in the air and sunshine.

For the small pieces that are in everyday use, such as knives and forks, plenty of good hot suds and a vigorous rubbing after they are washed will keep them in condition with very little cleaning.

To remove a tight ring from the finger pass a piece of linen thread or fine twine under the ring and wind it round and round the finger toward the tip. Then take the end below the ring and gradually unwind it. During the process the ring will be gently pushed upward till, little by little, it has moved along the string to the thinner part of the finger, whence it is easily removed.

A good supply of doylies and carvers will protect the tablecloth and will make it possible to avoid spots. The carvers may be easily made at home, and if the linen is bought by the yard and the cloth hemstitched and a little embroidery put on them they will add greatly to the appearance of the table, and the work may be done between times when some light or fancy work is desired.

News of the Rivers.

Capt. George Conant, one of the pilots of the Lorena, has a carbuncle on one of his arms.

A meeting of the members of Harbor No. 25, Masters and Pilots, will be held this morning.

The new club house of the Ohio Boat club at Cincinnati was launched at Howards Thursday afternoon.

Capt. Charles Stalder, chief clerk of the steamer Greenwood, is a victim of the mumps. He looks "swelled up."

Negro roustabouts have to go to work or leave Paducah so say the municipal authorities of that town.

Mrs. Dravo, the wife of Capt. John F. Dravo, who was stricken with paralysis some time ago, continue to improve.

The towboat Tom Rees is due in port with her empty tow and it is thought that there is enough water to let her in.

The Sam Clark arrived yesterday afternoon with a tow of empties. The Ed Roberts and Sam Brown also got in earlier in the day.

The wickets at the Davis Island dam are in place and the Pittsburgh harbor is now at a normal stage of water, there being close to six feet on the marks.

The towboat B. D. Wood is at Browns station undergoing some repairs.

Edwin S. Grant the organizer of the Pilots' Protective association, is at Paducah organizing the pilots residing at that place. He comes to Pittsburgh shortly.

Capt. George Hutchison, master of the sand digger Rebecca, yesterday went to his home at Sardis, O., where he will spend a few days' vacation and transact some private business.

Walter Drake, who was ticket seller on the steamer Elizabeth last season, will sell tickets on the Francis J. Torrance this summer, the former ticket seller, Samuel Eccles, having gone into the catering business.

The towboat Boaz is still tied up at Lashells landing, opposite Sewickley. The boat "cooled down" late yesterday morning, although it is thought that she might have been able to come through to the harbor with her empty tow.

Solomon Rankin, who has been on the lower river towboats for some time, will make application for master's papers. He called at the local Pilots' association rooms yesterday. He has been promised a berth if he secures a government license.

William Neal, watchman on the Indiana, resigned his berth to accept the position of pantryman on Uncle Sam's snagboat E. A. Woodruff. She is carded to depart from that city on Thursday, May 15, for a snag-pulling junket as far down as Cairo.

While the management of the new independent Morgantown Packet line has not as yet given out what sternwheel craft they are endeavoring to purchase, it is thought that the company is after the Helen Gould or the Columbia. The Helen Gould is a new Kanawha river boat.

Steamboatmen will ask the United States engineer department to imprison or fine persons convicted of burning driftwood along the river banks. In a letter addressed to Maj. Casey of the engineer department at St. Louis by the Pilots' society, it was set forth that, as the collection of driftwood in bends largely prevents the cutting of banks, some steps should be taken by the United States authorities to stop its being burned.

In 1880 Capt. W. B. Rodgers of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company was engineer of the towboat Pacific No. 1 at a salary of $1,800 a year. He decided to get a boat of his own and built the little steamer Tide, which made him the foundation for a fortune. It is said that every dollar the captain made he earned himself. He always was a hard worker. He has often said that every man should be independent after having worked at any line of trade for 20 years.

MORE MONEY NEEDED.

The Amount, Appropriated for Marine Hospital, May Be Inadequate.

Dr. W. F. Meade, who has charge of the Pittsburgh Marine hospital department of the United States government, doubts very much if $125,000, the amount allotted by the government, will be sufficient to build the proposed marine hospital at Pittsburgh.

Dr. Meade said that he would not be surprised if a movement was started to secure a larger sum, but had no personal knowledge of any such movement. He says there is a desire among the rivermen to have the hospital located in the down town portion of the city, so as to be close to the rivers, but the price of property almost makes such a plan prohibitive. The state law will also work against this, an act of the legislature prohibiting the erection of hospitals in built up portions of a community.

LOCK TENDERS' REQUEST.

They Are Asking Government to Reduce Working Time.

The 59 men employed as lock tenders on the four Monongahela river locks have sent a request to Capt. William L. Sibert, the government engineer, asking that the hours of work on the locks be reduced from 12 hours, as they are at present, to eight hours.

The majority of the river shippers have volunteered to use their influence in aiding the men to secure the shorter working hours. Should the government grant the request, which is very probable, it will mean the employment of 20 additional men, as the turns will be shorter.

Healthy Women

with bright eyes, good complexion, springy step, rounded figure, are few in these days of strenuous living.

Overwork, worry, household cares, society duties, one or more of which falls to the lot of every woman, make inroads upon the female constitution that are bound to result in serious trouble unless guarded against.

It is much more important that women should safeguard their health than it is for the other sex; first, because their organization is more delicate; and second because on them depends the health of future generations.

A wineglassful of JOHANN HOFF'S EXTRACT taken regularly with meals is the best Health Insurance a woman can have.

It gives perfect digestion and assimilation of food without which no one can be well and vigorous. It makes rich red blood and healthy flesh, nerves are made strong by it, catarrhal secretions of the entire body are removed by it, it makes the troubles peculiar to women easy to bear. JOHANN HOFF'S EXTRACT searches out the weak parts and strengthens them. It keeps the stomach in perfect condition previous to confinement, there is no better tonic and nutrient for nursing mothers.

If you are weak and worn out, have headache, backache, bearing down, your system needs a nutritive tonic—a builder, a strength giver.

JOHANN HOFF'S EXTRACT is a true tonic, a food, a medicine, assisting nature to do its allotted work through the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

It is not a stimulant which excites the nerve centres, giving temporary buoyancy, only to leave them in worse condition than before.

JOHANN HOFF'S EXTRACT is prescribed and recommended by physicians everywhere.

Read this report from a prominent physician of Louisville, Ky.:

"Mrs. S. L. O., age 25. This lady was five feet six inches, and her weight was only ninety-seven pounds. She did not have a good appetite and her digestion was also indifferent.

"She began with JOHANN HOFF'S EXTRACT in doses of one or two wine glasses during and between meals and on going to bed.

"This at once began to increase her appetite, and she slept better from the time she began to take the remedy. At the end of three months she weighed 125 pounds and was not nervous, and slept well and had a good appetite. She has maintained her flesh."

How Mme. De Maintenon, the Most Beautiful Woman in History, Retained Her Beauty and Youthful Appearance.

How Any Woman Can Attain Beauty and Youthful Looks

Mme. DeMaintenon, said to be the most beautiful woman that ever lived, and the favorite of the luxurious court of Louis XIV., when seventy years of age, so history records, looked scarcely thirty. Her complexion was a marvel, and the envy of all the most noted beauties for which the court of Louis Le Grande was famous. Her youth and beauty, it was asserted, were ascribed to a secret lotion of Paracelsus, that kept her complexion in its youthful vigor and radiant glow, warding off the wrinkles and keeping away the lines and removing the blemishes that are the arch enemies of beauty and youthful looks.

This secret, for which Mme. De Maintenon paid a fabulous sum, can today be obtained by every lady at a very moderate cost.

By a diligent research into the laws of nature and a careful study in the realms of chemistry, Mme. Ruppert, the most noted Complexion Specialist of the present day, has discovered a formula that not only equals the secret formula of Paracelsus, but in many respects far surpasses it.

MADAME A. RUPPERT'S FACE BLEACH does all that the secret formula of Paracelsus did. It keeps the complexion youthful, retarding wrinkles and lines, removing the discolorations and blemishes, giving that delicate pink and white glow, so natural to youth; making the skin smooth, clear and a marvel of beauty. Freckles, pimples, moth, blackheads, sallowness and oiliness of the skin rapidly disappears with its use, and there is scarcely a defect to which the complexion is heir which will not readily yield to its miraculous curative and youth-restoring qualities.

IT CANNOT FAIL to produce these grand results, and to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate complexion, as its action harmonizes perfectly with the laws of nature and hygiene, the two factors which must be closely adhered to and followed, to improve permanently one's personal appearance.

FACE BLEACH has a twofold action on the skin: 1st, a magnetical action, which attracts and draws to the surface the impurities and discolorations which collect below the outer skin, similar to the attracting property of the magnet for iron; and, 2d, a chemical action which scales off imperceptibly (in the form of a very fine dandruff) a slight surface of the outer diseased and dead cuticle, leaving the skin—beautiful and youthful looking by nature—clear, smooth and perfect.

THIS IS THE ONLY METHOD by which the complexion can be safely and positively rejuvenated.

A positive guarantee is given if Face Bleach is used according to the new special directions, which are furnished with each order, that it will remove every discoloration and impurity from your complexion.

All of Mme. A Ruppert's world renowned preparations are sold by us at reduced prices.

League Games Today.

St. Louis at Exposition park.
Cincinnati at Chicago.
Philadelphia at New York.
Boston at Brooklyn.

Patsy Donovan must have read the riot act to those Cardinals of his yesterday morning, for when they appeared at Exposition park yesterday afternoon they acted as though they had been heavily dosed with ginger or tobasco sauce. They really put up the best game of the series so far, and made the champions hustle to beat them out by a score of 4 to 1.

The game put up by the visitors was as much different from their other two efforts as day is from night, and the same kind of ball playing will win games from a whole lot of clubs in the league. Those youngsters having showed that they know how to play the game, there should be no further excuses for the miserable exhibitions of Wednesday and Thursday. Patsy Donovan is a clever leader, who sets a good example for his team by a dashing style of play, and with the Cardinals it should be a case of follow your leader, and if that is done the Cardinals will produce a victory or two instead of a straight string of defeats.

Interest Centered in Conroy.

Much of the interest for the 2,100 spectators yesterday was centered in the work of Wid Conroy, who made his first appearance at short stop in a regular championship game. The shift in the Pirates' makeup was made by Manager Clarke, who sent Conroy to short and Wagner to middle field, giving as his reason that Beaumont was suffering from a slight attack of charley horse, which means in plain English a stiffening of the muscles, an ailment to which ball players are subject and which is very painful particularly if the sufferer is compelled to use any extra exertion.

The new player's work was something of a revelation to the spectators who looked for clever play, but nothing quite so clean and fast as Conroy put up in the field. To be sure he did not have any very difficult chances to handle still he showed that no matter at what angle the ball may be driven at him he knows well how to take care of it. He had eight fielding chances during the afternoon and there was never the slightest sign of a slip-up. He picks the ball up clean and gets it away to the baseman very fast and his throwing was extremely accurate. He was mixed up in one double play being on the business end of it.

Can Sting the Ball Hard.

At bat Conroy did not manage to get a hit but there were others who were in the same box and once he struck out and others did the same act. On the other occasions he rapped the ball hard, one effort being a foul away out to the extreme end of the left field bleachers. He stands up to the plate well, swings nicely at the ball and shows that pitchers must put it over for him as he has a good batting eye and will not go after the bad ones. The verdict of the fans at the end of the game was that Conroy will pass muster for a champion.

Donovan's pitching selection for yesterday was Wicker, who used to do stunts for Bill Armour down at Dayton, O., in the old Interstate league. Wicker goes at pitching very much as Fred Gilbert goes at trap shooting. He takes good aim before he lets go and when he does let go he sends in as an accompaniment in the way of a grunt very much like one slung out by a large juicy porker who runs across a feast in an ash barrel. Wicker had his curves and his grunt going in great shape yesterday afternoon and the Pirates' hits were few and far between.

Only in one inning did Clarke's men solve Mr. Wicker's grunts and that was in the fourth when a quartet of bingles at proper points produced three runs. Bransfield opened the inning by beating out an infield hit; Ritchey bunted and beat it out; Leach flied out and O'Connor's hot single to right scored Bransy and put Ritchie on third; O'Connor stole second and scored with Ritchey on Davis' fine single to right. The Pirates' first run was a gift from Wicker, whose fumble allowed Davis to reach first in the opening inning and he scored on Wagner's slashing three-bagger.

The Schoolmaster Was Right There.

It was Schoolmaster Sam's turn to do the twirling act for the champions and as a matter of course he did it well. The Cardinals managed to get eight hits off him, but they were so widely scattered as to be of little use. Their only tally was scored by Barclay in the second inning, who reached first for being hit with a pitched ball, went to third on Kruger's infield single and scored while Conroy, Ritchey and Bransfield were working a double play on Kruger and Hartman. NOTES OF THE GAME.

Conroy was warmly applauded when he took his place at short, and after the first inning, when by clean, clever fielding he nabbed the two first batsmen at Bransfield's corner he got a small-sized ovation.

In the fifth Kruger contributed a pretty play when he chased over second and robbed Fred Clarke of a base hit. It was a fast bit of fielding.

Deacon Phillippe is on the card to pitch today's game against the Cardinals, and Conroy will again be found at shortstop. There promises to be a big tournout to the game.

Leever and O'Connor registered several kicks on Emslie's decisions on balls and strikes, and Wicker also entered some wordy protests. It loozed as though the umpire missed some of the good ones.

Smoot made a pretty catch in the opening inning, when he gathered in Fred Clarke's strong bid for a three-bagger. The Cardinals' middle fielder suffers a handicap in a bad throwing arm.

Beaumont was out doing some preliminary practice before the game, and there did not appear anything wrong with him. However, it was noticed that he did not exert himself to any great extent.

Conroy made a clever play in the third, when he went back of Tommy Leach and picked up Ryan's hot grounder, but could not straighten up in time to make a throw to first, although he made the try. Ryan got credit for a base hit.

Wicker spiked O'Connor on the ankle in the third inning, when the Cardinal pitcher slid for the plate and tried to score on Farrell's rap to Conroy. When the inning was over Wicker did a manly act in apologizing to the Pirate catcher.

In the sixth inning Ritchey went from first to third on a wild throw by Pitcher Wicker, and on reaching the third sack took a seat. The Pirates on the bench yelled, "Good running, Ritch," and the second baseman replied, "Oh, I still have wind enough to whistle."

Tommy Leach, who used to be as quiet as a church mouse, has developed into a regular little chatterbox down at third base. Tommy keeps shouting at the pitcher, "Get right at them," and the little fellow sends out many words of encouragement, showing he has a deep interest in his work.

Hans Wagner got a chance to display that throwing arm of his in the sixth inning, when "Deerfoot" Barclay attempted to go from first to third on Kruger's single to center. Hans made a perfect throw and had the ball in Tommy Leach's hands when Barclay was yet three yards from the bag.

In the fourth inning, when O'Connor got in from second on Davis' single to right, he passed third base and did not go through the form of touching the bag. "Scratch" Hartman called the umpire's attention to Johnny's act of neglect, but nothing was done, as Mr. Emslie did not happen to be looking that way at the time.

In the third inning the Cardinals got a single, a double, a life, a stolen base, and O'Connor made a wild throw and yet not a run was scored. One runner was thrown out at the plate and another was caught and run down between the home plate and third base. That one inning furnished the spectators a fine sample of pennant ball.

Some of these days Kitty Bransfield will stack up against an umpire who will call him out for leaving a base too soon after a foul ball has been hit. Kitty goes back and touches the bag as soon as the foul is hit, but he does not wait until the pitcher returns to the box with the ball, which is according to the letter of the rules. Bransfield was guilty of the carelessness twice yesterday, but no complaint was made by the opposing players, as it was not noticed.

Wicker may not be the most graceful pitcher in the league, and he does make an awful funny face and issues a loud grunt when he delivers the ball, yet there is a lot of cunning in that right arm of his. He has all kinds of speed and a fast breaking outcurve that fooled such batters as Clarke, Bransfield, Ritchey, Tommy Leach and Conroy into striking out. Any twirler who can turn a trick of that kind shows he knows something about the art of pitching.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Philadelphia, Pa., May 2.—The American league today outmaneuvered the National league. Plans had been laid by Col. John I. Rogers, representing the Philadelphia National League Baseball club, to apply to the courts for injunction to restrain Delahanty, Wolverton, Orth and Townsend, now members of the Washington American league club, but formerly belonging to the Philadelphia National league club, from participating in today's opening game of the local American league season.

In anticipation of the National league move, Manager Loftus of the Washington club, upon his arrival in this city, sent the four players mentioned out of Philadelphia before Col. Rogers was aware of their arrival here. Townsend was sent to Camden, and Wolverton, Delahanty and Orth to New York, where they will await the Washington club and go on to Boston with it, in which city the Washingtons' next series of games will be played.

Col. Rogers had arranged his plans so as to apply for the injunction in court No. 5 a few minutes before the closing of the court. In the event of it being granted he had contemplated serving it on the players just prior to the commencement of the game at the Columbia avenue park.

Manager Loftus this afternoon said: "We shall not attempt to play Delahanty, Wolverton, Orth and Townsend during the present series in Philadelphia. They are not in this city nor will they be allowed to come within the state of Pennsylvania until something definite has been done in the case of the appeal now pending before the court. We shall present our strongest team in the present series of games with the Athletics, but do not care to jeopardize our interests by placing the four former Philadelphia players in such a position as to be affected by any ruling in this state."

Pitcher Frazer, who with Lajoie and Bernhard, was enjoined from playing baseball with any club but the Philadelphia National league, filed assignments of error today for an appeal from the court's ruling on the assignments of error.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—The American league season opened here today with a defeat for the local team at the hands of Washington. It was an exciting game, the result remaining an uncertain quality until the last man was retired. None of the former Philadelphia National league players who are now with Washington played in the game, having been sent out of town to avoid possible service of injunction papers. All of the local club's ex-National league players participated excepting the enjoined ones. The game was attended by Mayor Ashbridge and other city officials, the mayor throwing the first ball to the umpire. Attendance, 11,233. Score:

HOMESTEAD HAD A SCARE.

An Error Gave Risher's Team Its Two Runs and a Victory.

There was a good fast game yesterday at Steelworks park, when the Homestead L. A. C. won from Iroquois 2 to 1. Iroquois scored in the third inning. Vilsack hit to right and went to third on Hill's two-bagger. Frauenheim then singled, scoring Vilsack. In the fifth Byron hit to right. Shaw rolled one to third, and in trying to make a double play Vilsack fumbled, Byron going to third and Shaw to second. The next two up knocked long flies to left, scoring Byron and Shaw. Totten pitched a good, steady game, giving Homestead only three scratch hits, and but for the costly error in the fifth would have shut them out. Shaw also pitched good ball, striking out 12 Iroquois batters. Score:

BRADDOCK BEATEN.

Allegheny High School Team Wins a Clever Victory.

The Allegheny High school team is doing fine work. This is shown by their five straight victories. The High school had Braddock shut out till the sixth inning when the Braddock boys bunched hits and the Allegheny boys had a little bad luck; but they retaliated and showed their good work by winning the game before the rain stopped the playing. Cox, Callahan and Burgess were good at the stick, while Faulkner, Graham, Thompson and Rebele led in fast fielding. Score:

WEINIG KNOCKED OUT.

Joe Choynski Landed the Blow in the Sixth.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 2.—Al Weinig of Buffalo was knocked out tonight by Joe Choynski of Chicago before the Empire Athletic club in the sixth round of one of the fiercest bouts ever fought in this city. Both men were forced to take a severe drubbing, and Weinig's defeat came after a display of gameness rarely equaled in the prize ring. Twice in the sixth round he was knocked to his knees by Choynski's hard rights and lefts to the jaw, but each time he came up ready for more punishment. He was too dazed, however, to defend himself, and Choynski finally beat him down, landing him against the ropes unable to move. It was several minutes before he was able to rise.

NO FIGHT AT HARTFORD.

Mayor Refuses a License for Young Corbett-McGovern Match.

HARTFORD, CONN., May 2.—William Crowley, manager of the Nutmeg Athletic club, was today refused a license by Mayor Sullivan for a boxing contest between "Young Corbett" and Terry McGovern, which he intended to pull off in this city next October. The mayor announced that there will be no license issued for boxing in the city of Hartford during his administration. Mayor Sullivan was recently elected by the labor vote.

Fleming Still Champion.

NEW CASTLE, PA., May 2.—(Special.)—L. B. Fleming of Pittsburgh successfully defended his title as champion target shot of Western Pennsylvania against H. P. Shaner of this city at Pulaski yesterday afternoon. The high wind prevented good scores. Fleming secured 93 out of 100 to 89 made by his challenger, Shaner.

DEATH BLOW TO SPEAKEASIES

LICENSE COURT MAY FORBID THE WHOLESALERS TO SELL THEM.

The Punishment for Disobeying the Order of Court Would Be a Revocation of the Bottlers' License—One Judge Has Made Such Ruling.

The license court judges may today strike a deathblow to speakeasies by making a ruling that all brewers and wholesalers selling to unlicensed dealers will suffer a revocation of their licenses. The court has intimated that it will have additional orders to give venders of liquors.

It is generally admitted that there are hundreds of speakeasies and disorderly houses in the county where intoxicants are sold freely in violation of the law. It is also often hinted that many of these places are allowed to flourish because they buy their stock from wholesalers and bottlers whose label is a guarantee of "protection."

The police records, as well as those of the coroner's office, show that much of the crime committed hereabouts can be traced to the resorts where liquor is sold illegally. The police records, were they open for public inspection, would also show the name of the proprietor, the location of the speakeasy and probably the name of the bottler furnishing the wet goods.

The retail dealers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny have to pay $1,100 annually for their licenses. The court places certain restrictions on them as to opening and closing and other things. The speakeasy and disorderly house pays a small government license and can sell intoxicants every day in the week. They have to buy their supplies from the persons in the wholesale trade, and the business with the unlicensed drinking places is said to be confined to a small number of bottlers and wholesalers.

Judge E. A. Walling of Erie is endeavoring to exterminate the speakeasies in his district by a ruling of the kind the local courts may make. This spring, when he granted licenses, he informed all wholesalers that their licenses would be revoked if they sold to speakeasies.

LASTED THE LIMIT.

Kid McCoy Failed to Put Fred Russell Out in Six Rounds.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—(Special.)—Kid McCoy made his first appearance in the ring since his return from Europe at Martin Julian's club here tonight. His opponent, was Fred Russell of Denver, who managed to remain through the six rounds. McCoy was woefully out of condition when he appeared, but despite his extra pounds of flesh looked to be a feather-weight alongside of the giant from Colorado. The bout attracted only a few hundred people, all of whom expected the "Kid" to land the knock out punch in short order. McCoy had the better of the set-to and would probably have knocked Russell out in a couple of more rounds, for the latter was very tired at the close.

The opening round was tame, McCoy dancing around the big fellow and appearing to be trying him out, while he easily kept away from Fred's rushes. The Kid became more aggressive in the second. After getting Russell to make several wild swings, McCoy sent a right hand swing to the neck which shook the Denverite up.

The Kid followed this up with a few left jabs to the face, Russell becoming so wild in his eagerness to get back that he nearly fell through the ropes. Russell put a worried look on McCoy's face in the third when he twice sent his left hard to the mouth. The Kid got back, however, in good style and his left jabs did considerable damage.

McCoy kept up his pretty defensive work in the fourth. After making a few feints with his left he suddenly whipped over his right and it landed squarely on Russell's jaw. The latter dropped to the floor, but was on his feet in an instant and the men mixed it up in savage fashion. The men took it easy in the fifth. In the sixth McCoy sailed into his opponent for keeps. He jabbed with his left for the face and used his right on the body. His rapid work had Russell completely bewildered, Fred scarcely landing a blow, while the Kid put in telling punches on all parts of his opponent, failing only in his swings for the jaw. Russell was groggy toward the close, but managed to last the limit.

Court Restrains Shortstop Bean.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 2.—Judge Sutherland in county court today on application of the Rochester Baseball association (Eastern league) granted a temporary injunction order restraining "Joe" Bean from playing on the New York baseball team. Bean joined the New Yorks after signing a contract with the local club.

Brewed In the Model Plant of America

Duquesne Beer IS GOOD

Good Because It is Always Pure

Satisfying, strengthening, healthful, thirst-quenching. The advent of Duquesne Beer marked a new era in the history of brewing. At home and abroad DUQUESNE is today the criterion by which other beers are judged. None just as good.

Ask for it at cafes or order a case of the brewery's own bottling from your dealer and convince yourself that it is peerless in point of flavor, quality and purity. DUQUESNE, "the perfect beer."

Some beers make you stupid, others irritate the stomach. Some beers are "doctored"—others are put on the market "green" (not sufficiently aged.) Not a drop of Duquesne leaves the brewery until it is over three months old. No preservatives or chemicals—only the essence of all that's good in malt and hops. We challenge the world on purity. Our brewery and bottling plant conceded by competent judges to be the finest in America. DUQUESNE, "the family beer."

A FINE BATTLE BETWEEN THREE DERBY HORSES

Owenton Easily Defeated Lucien Appleby and Otis at Worth.

START NOT VERY GOOD

Otis Got Much the Worst of It, but Run a Clever Race—Lucien Appleby for His First Time Out Made a Fine Showing.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Chicago May 2.—J. G. Milam & Co.'s Kentucky bred American derby candidate, Owenton, easily defeated two other derby colts, S. C. Hildreth's Lucien Appleby, and Barney Schreiber's Otis, at Worth today. These three together with Haydon and Dark Secret, made up the field in the fourth race, a condition affair for 3-year-olds at one mile. Owenton was much the best, winning in a romp by three lengths, Lucien Appleby beating Otis five lengths for place money. The other two finished way back. Lucien Appleby ran a good race, though his creditable showing over Otis is partly due to the fact that Dominick, on the latter, was caught napping when the start was made, the others beating him away from the wire. Weather clear and warm; track slow. Summary:

First race, 4 furlongs—Filly Deck, 112, Dominick, 6 to 1, won; Courage, 112, Birkenruth, 1 to 1, second; Totila, 112, Vickery, 30 to 1, third. Time, :52. Flo Carline, Josette, Floral Wreath and Rainey C. also ran.

Second race, 6 furlongs—Theory, 112, Birkenruth, 9 to 10, won; Peace, 110, Dominick, 12 to 1, second; Sand Flea, 98, W. Waldo, 40 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 2-5. Aratoma, Drummond, Emma C. L., Hardee and Gusto also ran.

Third race, 7 furlongs—Charley Moore, 100, Seaton, 10 to 1, won; Automaton, 110, Otis, 11 to 10, second; Hermencia, 109, Birkenruth, 8 to 5, third. Time, 1:31 1-5. Eva Rice, Edith Q. also ran.

Fourth race, 1 mile—Owenton, 110, T. Dean, 11 to 5, won; L. Appleby, 110, Birkenruth, 13 to 5, second; Otis, 110, Dominick, 9 to 5, third. Time, 1:45 1-5. Haydon and Dark Secret also ran.

Fifth race, 5 furlongs—Brookston, 108, Anstel, 18 to 5, won; Mirance, 105, Seaton, 4 to 1, second; Lady Matchless, 100, W. Waldo, 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:04. Swindelmeyer, Hickory Corners, North Pole, Dr. Ward and Overlace also ran.

Sixth race, 1 1-16 miles—Marcos, 110, Otis, 4 to 5, won; Homage, 90, W. Waldo, 3 to 1, second; Miss Lize, 105, L. A. Jackson, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:52 4-5. Walkenshaw, Corrillo, Precursor and Water Alone also ran.

THE KENTUCKY DERBY.

Four and Possibly Five Horses May Start—Abe Frank Well Thought of by Talent.

LOUISVILLE, KY., May 2.—Four, and possibly five colts, among the best 3-year-olds of the western turf, will battle for supremacy at Churchill downs tomorrow afternoon when the Kentucky derby will be decided for the 28th time over the historic old course. Already the stable capacity has been overflowed to the extent of several hundred, and the present outlook is for big fields throughout the meeting.

The following are the starters announced tonight for the Kentucky derby, although there may be one or two additions before post time tomorrow. Thomas C. McDowell's ch. c., Allen-a-Dale (Turner), 117, Halma-Sudie McNairy.

Thomas C. McDowell's b. c., The Rival (J. Ranch), 117, Halma-Bracegirdle.

C. C. Bennett & Co.'s ch. c. Abe Frank (Coburn), 122, Hanover-Imp. Cheesestraw.

Thomas W. Moore's ch. c., Inventor (T. Williams), 117, Imp. Goldsby-Imp. Duchess Caroline.

The derby of 1902 differs materially from the derbies of the past, since no single colt figures to win as he pleases, but it is believed that at least two of the entries will be fighting for the trophy in the final effort.

Abe Frank was made a prime favorite in the winter books by virtue of his superior 2-year-old form, but the figures have been changed since his recent performances. He will be backed liberally, nevertheless, for many believe that his true form is not generally known. He will sell well up with the McDowell entry, which the public will make favorite, for each of the McDowell pair has been figured to win. Inventor, while not figuring as a first choice, will not be without friends.

THE END AT NASHVILLE.

The Meeting Was Most Successful Ever Held.

NASHVILLE, TENN., May 2.—One of the most successful meetings ever held in Nashville came to a close at Cumberland Park this afternoon. Five favorites and a heavily-played second choice won, and "Getaway Day" proved a Waterloo for the books. In the Carter Memorial, a selling sweepstakes, at one mile and 70 yards, Jordan was a heavily played favorite. He ran around his field and won without an effort. Ethel Wheat, after setting the pace, fought it out with Blink through the last furlong, landing place honors by a neck. Blink pulled up lame and is reported to have broken down. Dade rode three winners and O'Neil two. Track fair. Summary:

First race, 6 furlongs—King Daly, 98, O'Neil, 4 to 5, won; Jim Clark, 107, Dade, 3½ to 1, second; Joe Martin, 112, T. Walsh, 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:15. Young Henry and Mattie Spencer also ran.

Second race, 4½ furlongs—Fore and Aft, 110, Helgerson, 9 to 5, won; Stand Pat, 102, Gormley, 7 to 5, second; Quita, 107, O'Neil, 3½ to 1, third. Time, :57½. Levit, Platter and Dinks also ran.

Third race, mile and 70 yards, the Carter Memorial, selling—Jordan, 96, O'Neil, 8 to 5, won; Ethel Wheat, 106, Helgerson, 2½ to 1, second; Blink, 106, Beauchamp, 11 to 5, third. Time, 1:47½. Ida Ledford also ran.

Fourth race, 5½ furlongs—Aules, 106, Dade, 4 to 5, won; Sallie Green, 104, O'Neil, 7 to 1, second; Commena, 106, Helgerson, 3½ to 1, third. Time, 1:09½.

Fifth race, 6 furlongs—Alea, 100, Dade, even, won; Tom Collins, 117, T. Walsh, 9 to 1, second; Pillardist, 99, Helgerson, 11 to 1, third. Time, 1:16½. Masterful, Joe Lesser, Juanetta and Robert Morrison also ran.

ONE MORE DEFEAT.

Wash.-Jeff. Team Walloped Again at Grove City.

GROVE CITY, PA., May 2.—(Special.)—W. and J. was unable to solve McKim's delivery today, and as a result Grove City college won by a score of 5 to 3. Wireback was batted freely, but excellent fielding kept the locals' score down. Thornton and Fulton made several nice stops. Frew and Uber led the locals in the field. The game was called in the seventh inning on account of rain, Grove City having two men on bases, with one out at the time. Score by innings:

		R.	H.	E.
Grove City	0 0 0 3 0 0 2	5	7	4
W. and J.	0 0 0 1 0 1 1	3	3	5

CUE EXPERTS ARE DOING SOME CLEVER WORK

Jack Won from Beymer in the Most Exciting Game of Tourney.

FINISH WAS BRILLIANT

Beymer Held the Lead for a Time but Jack Got Form and Made a Great Display—English Won the Afternoon Game.

STANDING OF THE PLAYERS.

	Won.	Lost.
English	3	0
Roberts	2	0
Jack	2	1
Marshall	1	1
Philippi	1	1
Beymer	1	2
Powers	0	2
Billings	0	3

By far the most interesting game of the tournament at the Great Northern billiard hall was the one last evening between Beymer and Jack, both scratch men. Odds of 5 to 4 were given and taken on Beymer, but after the tightest and most exciting game played he had to lower his colors for the second time this week.

There were stages in the contest when Jack was from 40 to 60 points ahead. He had turned on the home stretch before Beymer discarded his vest and set sail, and what a heat he did trot for awhile. He overtook his competitor at 178 points, and a prolonged cheer went up from the large crowd in appreciation of his fine work. On his 168th billiard he failed to get the balls out of balk and by that failure probably lost a chance to win the game. While he was making his spurt Jack apparently became more or less nervous, being unable to contain himself by remaining on a chair, but was compelled to ease his mind by walking about the table watching Beymer's play.

When it came to the wind-up, however, Jack demonstrated conclusively that he had a wonderful nerve. With the score a tie at 178 Jack proceeded to gather in 10 points, then four, and ran the game out with eight, leaving the balls in perfect position for more had the occasion demanded them. Those present were delighted with the exhibition and confessed that they had seldom spent a more enjoyable or exciting evening.

In the afternoon game English had something of a walk-away from Billings and put up a very pretty display of billiards all the way. The scores:

FINE COACH FOR SCHOOL ATHLETES

FRANK JARVIS, FAMOUS COLLEGE SPRINTER, WILL ASSIST.

He Will Take Charge of the Allegheny Preparatory School Runners—Monday Will Be a Busy Day for the Young Sprinters.

The announcement that the track athletes of Allegheny Preparatory school will on Monday begin to use Schenley park as a training ground calls attention to feature of the present season of spring sports in the general use of the public park by the school athletes of the Pittsburgh district in lieu of proper grounds of their own. The medical students of the Western university have also been doing their training at the park, while East Liberty Academy and numerous ball teams have been making use of it.

Though the Pittsburgh high school has its own field in Friendship park the public school has also been using the park for the gathering together on Saturday mornings of the track candidates from the three branches of the school. The Academic, Commercial and South Side pupils have all been gathering here for their most important training. Allegheny preparatory has lost the use of Recreation park by the erection of a bicycle track.

Not only will the Allegheny Preparatory school open up on Monday afternoon with training at Schenley park, but the candidates will be favored with the expert coaching of Frank W. Jarvis, the famous college sprinter, who is now a student at W. U. P. law school. He is in no sense a paid coach, but has taken an interest in the Allegheny Preparatory school and will help the boys prepare for the interscholastic met at Schenley on May 31.

The boys are greatly encouraged at the strong showing made by Knox and Willock at Philadelphia, even though the team lost the relay race. Knox and Willock, who ran the two last relays at about a 55 gait, gained 70 yards on the leaders, but Knox tripped on the stretch, though he was coming strong. Knox is also showing up very strong in the broad jump and is likely to surprise some of the contestants from the older schols in the coming meet. Allegheny Preparatory will also have a team in the Washington, Pa., meet on May 23, as will Shady Side. High school is uncertain.

The Pittsburgh High School ball team will today play the Central High School of Cleveland at Cleveland. The first meeting between Shady Side Academy and Pittsburgh High School, the old rivals, will take place next Wednesday.

GOLF PLAYERS WILL BE OUT IN FORCE TODAY

Several Events Scheduled and Favoring Weather Will Make the Day a Notable One.

With favoring weather this will be a big day for the local golfers. Though the season was declared opened last Saturday, the high gale prevailing ruined the day to a large extent for the golfers.

There are two scheduled events for today in the shape of competitive play on the Edgewood and Schenley courses for the club teams which are to compete in the Western Pennsylvania association championship series. In addition to this, there are handicap sweepstakes events planned for the Highland, Westmoreland and Pittsburgh Field club courses. At Highland the first play will be had on the permanent greens. At Logans Ferry the Westmoreland golfers will still be compelled to put up with but three holes, as the trestle which is to bear them across "Puckety" creek is not yet ready.

The play for the teams at both Edgewood and Schenley will be but the first round of 36 holes, the final being decided next Saturday. At Edgewood the six lowest gross scores will qualify, with the three next best as substitutes. All members of the club are requested to play, whether out for the team or not, in order to aid the handicapping committee.

At Schenley the 16 lowest gross scores for the two days will form the squad from which the team will be picked. In addition a trophy cup, the first of the season to be played for in the Pittsburgh district, is offered by Joseph McK. Speer for the lowest net score, the play being under handicaps, which will be counted in the contest for the cup.

Hutchings English Golf Champion.

LONDON, May 2.—Hutchings carried off the amateur golf championship today at Hoylake, which began on Tuesday morning, defeating S. H. Fry by one hole. He played a splendid game. In the first half, using an American ball, he was eight up and 18 holes to play. Fry, however, picked up wonderfully during the afternoon.

Summer Will End Traffic Troubles

L. G. HAAS SEES END OF SHIPPERS' WOES

New General Superintendent of Baltimore & Ohio at Pittsburgh Assumes His Duties.

The sudden change of general superintendents of the Baltimore & Ohio at Pittsburgh, effective yesterday morning, and announced on the evening before, was the principal topic of conversation among railroad men in the city yesterday. Mr. Woodford did much to better the conditions existing on the Baltimore & Ohio. In addition he has organized this division of 1,600 miles, and its parts are now running more smoothly than at any previous time. Mr. Woodford leaves the Baltimore & Ohio to give his attention to several private projects related indirectly to railroading. He expects, however, to spend at least a month in gaining a rest. He will be in Pittsburgh for another week, going from here to Cleveland.

The new general superintendent, L. G. Haas, took charge of the work here yesterday morning. Mr. Haas is well known in Pittsburgh, through his long connection with the Pennsylvania lines. His position for the past nine months of assistant to the general manager of the Baltimore & Ohio has thoroughly familiarized him with all parts of that system and particularly with this district. In speaking of his new work yesterday Mr. Haas said:

"I take up this work with much hope. I know the difficulties to be encountered on the divisions of the road operated from Pittsburgh, but I believe that these will be overcome. The railroads have been dropping away rapidly from the too great conservatism of expenditure enforced upon them by the hard times of 1893, and succeeding years, and the result is that larger yards and greater car and motive power equipment are now about ready for use. We have 60 engines and several thousand cars coming. A large portion of the locomotives will be put into the lake ore and coal business and these will help out the Pittsburgh shippers.

"The plans of the Baltimore & Ohio for a new Pittsburgh station building and the enlargement of the freight facilities along Water street will be of great benefit.

"Despite the increased work on account of lake business I believe that the railroads with their new equipment and good weather will overcome the freight congestion during the coming summer, and open the winter with everything in good shape."

Mr. Haas was one of three of the younger officials of the lines west taken to Baltimore by L. F. Loree when he became president of the road. Mr. Haas was given the title of "assistant to the general manager." Since that time one, J. T. Leary, has become general auditor; now Mr. Haas becomes general superintendent at Pittsburgh. T. J. Foley, the third, is an operating man, and it is believed that he will become soon either general superintendent at Baltimore, to succeed T. Fitzgerald, Jr., or general superintendent of transportation, to succeed J. C. Stuart. Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Stuart are Baltimore & Ohio men of the old regime, of whom there are few left in important positions.

THOMAS E. WATT,
District Passenger Agent Pennsylvania Railroad at Pittsburgh.

New Allegheny Plans of Ft. Wayne.

Two important improvements have just been started by the Ft. Wayne in Allegheny. Two more tracks are to be built beside the present four tracks from lower Allegheny to Emsworth to help care for the great business, both passenger and freight, handled on that part of the road.

At a great expense additional approaches to the Ohio Connecting bridge from both east and west are to be built parallel to the present approach. The work on the west-bound approach is rendered especially expensive on account of the heavy blasting needed to give room for the tracks. About 250,000 square yards of rock will have to be removed.

More Trains for Evans City.

C. W. Bassett, general passenger agent of the Pittsburgh & Western lines, announces that in compliance with the request of the residents of Evans City for more passenger train service an additional train each day will pass through the town. Train No. 12, which now leaves Butler at 6:25 a. m., will leave, after the spring change of time, at 6 a. m. and run over the Riboid cut-off, reaching Evans City. Train 25, now leaving Pittsburgh at 11:50 p. m., will leave an hour earlier, and likewise use the Riboid cut-off. The morning train will be run daily, while No. 25 will be daily except Sunday.

RAILROAD NOTES.

C. E. Price, the retiring superintendent of the river and low-grade divisions of the Allegheny valley, leaves today on a trip to California.

The joint contract of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie and the Pennsylvania railroad for the construction of the Monongahela railroad has been let to Kennedy Crossan and D. F. Keenan, Philadelphia contractors.

James C. Pond, general passenger agent of the Wisconsin Central, and Harry H. Roberts, the new traveling passenger agent of the Lehigh Valley at Buffalo, were among the outside railroad men in the city yesterday.

BRIGHT FUTURE FOR WESTERN MARYLAND

New Officers to Be Chosen and Large Engineering Undertakings to Be Rushed.

By Monday it is believed the sale of the Western Maryland to the Fuller syndicate will have been concluded. Mayor Hayes of Baltimore has selected the pen with which he will make the sale final, and he will also use the first pick and shovel in the work of constructing the extensions of the line.

A set of officers quite different from those now operating the road is to be chosen after the sale. President John M. Hood of the road has already become president of the Baltimore street railway combine and retains his connection with the Western Maryland only at the request of the board. Men allied with the Gould interests will become the new members of the official family. Work has already been started by the engineers of the road in planning the improvements necessary to make the road part of the great transcontinental trunk line. Several million dollars will be necessary, according to President Ramsey of the Wabash, to accomplish this, one of the principal tasks being a two-mile tunnel beneath the Blue Ridge.

More Local Trains on Ft. Wayne.

Several additional local trains on the Ft. Wayne and a number of minor changes are the recommendations that will be made by the operating officials of the northwest system of the Pennsylvania lines, who held their spring timecard meeting yesterday in this city. All the division superintendents were present with Charles Watts, general superintendent of passenger transportation. The question of giving East Liverpool an additional train each way daily, as a well-signed petition from residents of that town asked, was considered. The announcements of the final decision on all these matters will be made in a day or two, when the executive department has passed upon the questions.

Flour Tariffs Made Permanent.

ST. PAUL, May 2.—Representatives of the lake and rail lines interested in the flour traffic between the Twin Cities and the Atlantic coast today voted to maintain the present rate of 20½ cents on export flour and 23 cents as the rate on domestic flour.

BOTANY PUPILS PLANTED TREES IN SCHENLEY

Ceremony Postponed from Arbor Day Took Place Yesterday.

EACH CLASS PLANTED ONE

As a Result There Are Seventeen Trees Added to Growing Forest in Columbus Grove—Songs and Addresses in Honor of Occasion.

Arbor day was observed by the botany class of the Pittsburgh High school in Schenley park yesterday afternoon. Each of the 17 classes planted a tree in Columbus grove. The planting was attended with singing and addresses. Several hundred High school children, accompanied by teachers, took part in the exercises, which began shortly after 1:30 o'clock.

Arbor day was originally set for April 18, but the inclement weather caused observance of it to be postponed until May 2. The day was a beautiful one, entirely fitted for such a celebration. Each of the 17 classes had selected a tree, the Central High school classes choosing sweet buckeyes, the normal, or Fifth Avenue High school, American elms, and the South Side High school, tulip tree.

The 17 trees were set out on the hillside, just under athletic field, each one with a little hummock of earth beside it, to be used in the planting exercises. The great crowd of young people gathered in Columbus Grove after being summoned by the notes of a cornet playing the United States army assembly call.

Prof. Rhinehart of the High school faculty, who teaches music, beckoned them about him and they sang a school song to the air of "America."

Then followed an address by Dr. George W. Allyn. He spoke upon the importance of keeping up the forests of Pennsylvania, saying that, at the present rate, the hills will soon be bare of foliage. "Let us dedicate ourselves to the forestry preservation of our own state," said he.

Director McCandless of the department of public works was present and Superintendent Falconer of the Phipps conservatory, who had the affair under his direction, called on him for a speech. Dr. McCandless talked only a few minutes, welcoming the children to Schenley park.

When he had concluded Superintendent Falconer introduced H. H. Negley, who read a paper on trees and flowers. Prof. George M. Sleeth, in charge of the speaking at the High school, gave a recitation.

Then the pupils arose and sang to the air of "Auld Lang Syne" a beautiful song which had been composed for the occasion.

The planting of the trees representing the different classes was a pretty sight. They were scattered along the hillside, mixed in with the trees that were planted in 1893, at the starting of the park, and each year since.

At each mound where a tree stood half covered the members of the various classes gathered, standing until their turn came, when a park workman brought them a shovel, and each one put a bit of earth about the roots of the tree. When the last tree had been planted the children started to leave the grove. Many of them lingered to inspect the Phipps School of Botany, just back of the conservatory.

Classes D8 and D9 of the Fifth Avenue High school played an exciting game of baseball just before the affair started, resulting in a victory for D9 by 7 to 4.

WAGNER NIGHT BROUGHT THE MUSIC LOVERS OUT

Splendid Audience Gathered at Duquesne Garden Last Night—Two Popular Programs Today.

A typical concert audience assembled at Duquesne garden last night for the Wagner concert in the series of "pops" given by Victor Herbert and the Pittsburgh orchestra. Most of the music-loving people of Pittsburgh were out, and the front part of the house might well have been mistaken for the lower floor of Carnegie music hall during the orchestra season.

Mr. Herbert had arranged a diversified program. The second, or Wagner part, was well chosen, opening with the sailors' chorus and spinning song from the "Flying Dutchman," including the beautiful love song of "Siegmund," from "Die Walkure," the quintet from "Die Meistersinger," one of the most beautiful things Wagner ever wrote, and closing with the celebrated "Liebesto," from "Tristan and Isolde."

Today two concerts will be given. This afternoon is especially dedicated to the young people, and the program will be arranged for their particular delectation. This evening a popular program will be given, including some of the best selections of the week's series. The two programs prepared are as follows:

Immigrant Bureau at New York Being Investigated by Interstate Commerce Commission.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The interstate commerce commission today commenced an investigation of charges that the immigrant bureau maintained in New York by railway trunk lines is in violation of United States law.

Edward E. McLeod, chairman of the Western Traffic association, described the methods of the bureau. He said it was a convenience to the immigrant and that fares on the various roads interested had been reduced since it was established. He admitted that one of its objects was to prevent rate-cutting, but said that railway passenger business of that class would become demoralized if the bureau were abolished.

THE WORLD OF RELIGION HAS A BUSY PROSPECT

Two General Assemblies Are Scheduled for the Near Future.

EVANGELIST COLB COMING

Will Begin Series of Meetings on Monday Night in Carnegie Lecture Hall, Allegheny—Other Religious Events—Tomorrow's Subjects.

With two important general assembly meetings close together the religious world of Western Pennsylvania has much to occupy its mind for some weeks hence. The Presbyterians are leaving nothing undone to bring the Pittsburgh presbytery to the front at the general assembly meeting in New York city, and on the other hand, United Presbyterians are working might and main to make things comfortable for the commissioners of the general assembly of that body, who will convene in the Eighth church, Allegheny, May 28. The moderatorship of the Presbyterian body is a much mooted subject nowadays. Both Dr. Holmes and Dr. Moffat are mentioned prominently in this connection. The pre-thought of these important events has not in any way diminished religious work. With conference of the workers in the slum district and meetings of several auxiliary bodies, the week ending has been an unusually busy one.

The Rev. A. P. Colb.

The Rev. A. P. Colb, a noted evangelist of Decatur, Ill., opens a series of evangelistic sermons Monday night in Carnegie lecture hall, Allegheny. Mr. Colb has conducted meetings all over the country and has a strong commendatory letter from the Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark, founder of the Christian Endeavor society. During his stay here Mr. Colb will assist in the establishment of a new Christian church in Allegheny. His subject next Monday night will be, "All Present Before God."

Many Local Events.

The Rev. Dr. S. Edward Young of the Second Presbyterian church will take his congregation, in spirit, to Nazareth tomorrow morning. In the evening he will shift the scene to the harem of the sultan of Turkey. Dr. Young spent a few weeks in the sultan's domains during his recent trip on the continent and will have some spicy things to say of his observations in this particularly interesting portion of Europe. Emory Methodist Episcopal church celebrates tomorrow the sixth anniversary of its dedication. The Rev. Arthur D. Mink, pastor, will conduct special services. Where there's Ayers there's Hope

Where there's life there's hope

Never give up. Even if you have been trying a Sarsaparilla and have not improved. It's not the slightest reason why "Ayer's" will not cure you. "Ayer's" is not like any other Sarsaparilla. Doctors know this. They have our formula. That's why they always recommend "Ayer's" in preference to every other kind. It's the oldest, safest, strongest, best.

"Your Sarsaparilla has done me a great deal of good, purifying my blood and giving me strength and a general invigoration of the whole body. I know it is the best blood-cleanser, and it has done me a world of good."

MAJ. GARDENER SLOW BACKING HIS CHARGES

Has Not Submitted Specifications as Ordered by Secretary of War. Filipinos Enjoy Rights.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—The senate Philippine committee in session agreed today, at the request of Mr. Rawlins, to summon Corporal William J. Gibbs, now at Springfield, Mass., he having been an eye-witness of the massacre of Balangiga, the senator said; also Dr. A. L. Parker of New Hampshire, who is said to have been a witness of much "water curing." The committee also reconsidered its action of yesterday in deciding to ask the war department to have Maj. Cornelius Gardener brought from the Philippines to Washington in advance of his regiment in order to testify before the committee. It was stated that at last accounts Maj. Gardener had not filed the specifications to sustain the charges made by him as governor of Tayabas province, as directed by the secretary of war, and that it was not considered desirable to bring him from the islands before that order had been complied with.

In open session Gen. MacArthur was interrogated by Senator Culberson in rather an ironical vein. The general had referred to the advantage of implanting republican institutions in the islands.

Mr. Culberson took up each of the principles of republican institutions, free speech, free press, self government, trial by jury, etc., and asked how far these had been implanted in the Philippines. As to free speech, Gen. MacArthur said he had told the Filipinos that if they would give him their guns they could have a mass meeting on every corner. He said soldiers were quartered in private houses as an incident to war.

This led to a discussion of whether war was in existence. Gen. MacArthur insisted that there had been a great upheaval and the groundswell was still apparent, some of the incidents of war continuing even after the pacification of a locality.

Gen. MacArthur maintained that all of the fundamental rights except trial by jury and the right to bear arms were in operation as far as the conditions would permit.

I have about 150 of the choicest lots in East McKeesport that I am going to close out this season. These lots are in the central part of the town; nearly all level, and are on the most prominent streets in the borough. The quick buyer will get the choice of location. I will sell every lot at last year's schedule price. A number of them are worth double that amount. Every purchaser of East McKeesport lots has made money, and the present season will witness the biggest boom in the history of the town. The United Traction Co. is building a viaduct across the P. R. R. at Wilmerding which will be completed by the first of next July, and will give a 5-cent fare from East McKeesport to Braddock. If you can spare a few dollars a month to pay on a lot, come and see me.

DULL TIMES CAN NO LONGER COME AS A SURPRISE

Steel Financier Says There Would Be Ample Warning Long in Advance.

NO SIGN IS NOW VISIBLE

Conditions Different from What They Were During Carnegie's Business Career, When Trade Depressions Came Unheralded.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, May 2.—The critics of the United States Steel Corporation's bond plan have a great deal to say on the assumption that the "4 per cent commission" that is to be paid to the underwriting syndicate means 4 per cent on the entire $250,000,000.

A member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co. said today that this assumption is erroneous. He was very positive that the underwriting syndicate's commission is not to be reckoned on the basis of the par value of the entire bond issue; but, further than this, he was not free, he said, to speak. He admitted that the contemplated arrangement is rather complicated, and said that no definite statement could be made just now.

This same authority found occasion today to supplement the anonymous though semi-official replies that have been made to the criticisms of Prof. Meade. He pointed out that owing to the enormous amount of business carried for delivery at distant dates on the books of the United States Steel Corporation, its management can reasonably expect to forecast a trade depression for at least a year ahead.

Conditions Different Now.

When Andrew Carnegie operated steel mills he had seven or eight competitors and trade depressions had a way of coming unawares. Different conditions now prevail, and with 75 per cent of the steel finishing business concentrated in the combine, it is no longer possible for the trade situation to take unexpected twists. This gentleman says it is the opinion of the United States Steel Corporation's management that a serious trade depression could be so accurately forecasted and discounted as to enable the directors, if they saw fit, and deemed the occasion sufficiently grave, to pass dividends on the year in advance of the actual effects of a trade reaction. This he advanced theoretically, of course, making the statement only as an extreme illustration of what might be done under conditions that now seem quite out of the question. It is estimated that the United States Steel Corporation might suffer a decrease of 50 per cent in production and still be able to pay dividends on the preferred stock and interest on the bonds.

Considering the growth of all kinds of business, industrial and other, officials of the combine regard the present production of steel as not excessive, and prices as very reasonable except for immediate deliveries, for which premiums are willingly paid. In concluding his observation the gentleman whose words have been paraphrased said that the earnings of the steel corporation for April were considerably in excess of $11,000,000.

Enormous Trade from Railroads.

The enormous demand from the railroads of the country for steel rails, steel bridges and steel cars is one of the largest factors in the unprecedented accumulation of orders calling for the entire output of the steel industries for months ahead. It is estimated that at least 2,500,000 tons of steel rails alone will be produced during the current year. At $28 a ton this output will represent gross earnings to the different steel companies of $70,000,000. What amount of steel the railroad companies have required for the thousands of feet of wooden bridges which have been torn down during the last two years and replaced by steel structures it would be impossible to estimate; but that the total reaches an enormous figure is certain.

It has only been within the last two years that steel freight cars have been introduced to any extent on the different railroads, but the great advantage which they possess over the old wooden cars has been so generally recognized that the demand from this source alone will now call for an enormous output of steel.

An idea of how the consumption of steel by the railroads has grown during the last 20 years may be gained from the statement that in 1880, of a total track mileage of 115,647, only 33,680 miles were laid with steel rails. In other words, only 29.1 per cent of the total track mileage was laid with steel rails, the remaining 70.9 per cent representing iron rails. By 1890 the percentage of steel rails had increased to 80.4 per cent, and in 1900 the percentage was 92.9 per cent. In addition it must be remembered that the weight of the rails had increased considerably during this period. In 1880 rails weighing 35 to 50 pounds composed a large portion of the mileage, while during the last few years rails weighing 75 to 100 pounds to the yard have replaced them.

Tremendous Steel Rail Business.

The capacity of practically all the steel rail mills has been taken for the entire year and indications are that more business will be carried over into 1903 than ever in the history of the iron and steel industry. Only today it was announced that the Grand Trunk Railroad Company had ordered 25,000 tons of rails from English producers, having been unable to secure them in this country at satisfactory terms.

The United States Steel Corporation and other concerns embraced in the so-called steel rail pool continued to quote $28 a ton for rails, and it is not likely that any change will be made in the price for a long time to come. Little advantage would be gained thereby, as the capacity of the mills, as aforementioned, practically has been taken for the entire year. The rails for immediate delivery that are now being sold command a price $5 above the schedule price of the steel rail pool, but the transactions of this character are too small to warrant their having any effect on market conditions.

The representatives of the steel rail pool will meet in the fall to fix the price of rails for 1903, but according to a manufacturer who keeps in close touch with the affairs of the steel rail mills, no advance is contemplated. In fact the amount of business now booked indicates that a large percentage of the rails will not be delivered until well into next year.

NEWS FROM THE MINES

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, May 2.—Rich veins of copper and gold ore have been opened on the Huckleberry mountains, near Springdale, Wash. On the Empire group there is a ledge 23 feet wide that can be traced for over a mile. Assays from several workings on the ledge show from $80 to $90 a ton in copper, silver and gold.

Leasers on the old Buena Vista shaft of the Isabella at Cripple Creek are making a good showing. A recent shipment of 25 tons was settled for on a basis of $50 gold a ton. An ore body two feet wide, assaying $80 gold, has been uncovered in the Dexter at a depth of 250 feet.

After three weeks' examination, a Scotch expert says there is $3,000,000 of ore in sight in Stratton's Independence at Cripple Creek. He takes direct issue with John Hays Hammond who recently reported the mine practically worked out, and says the property is good for many years to come. Examination was made in the interests of English and Scotch stockholders.

A good strike has been made by leasers on the Belleview at Wall Street, Col., the ore running 50 cents to the pound. Fine sylvanite and tellurium ore is coming from Golden Age No. 2, and the Magnolia in the same district is fast developing into a large producer under the new management.

Dawson reports that work has begun on the electric railway to the creeks in the Yukon territory, and a bridge is being constructed across the Klondike.

Crosscutting is proceeding on the ore body encountered at the 100-foot level of the Gold Basin group, Ariz. The ledge is now over 100 feet wide and the values continue to improve. Copper is coming in stronger as the water level is reached in the main shaft, which is down about 115 feet.

Work is being pushed on the Robinson smelter at Leadville, and one stack probably will be blown in by the middle of this month. The New Home Company is now shipping about 225 tons daily.

It is reported at Nelson, B. C., that an English company with a capital of $2,500,000 will take hold of the Chapteau, on Lemon creek, and the Mansfield properties at the head of the south fork of the Kaslo river.

Advices from Rossland, B. C., note that the Standard Oil Company has come into possession of the Mound and Copper Cliff claims adjoining their Nickel Plate property on Copper mountain, in the Similkameen country. The consideration was $52,000 cash.

A dispatch from Chihuahua says the smelter at Mapimi is turning out bullion at the rate of $50,000 a day and is receiving from the Penoles mines 72 carloads daily. Two new stacks are being added and one roasting furnace. The last shipment of silver bullion from Gov. Shepherd's Batopilas mines was $300,000.

The Metal Market.

Home and foreign market for tin was without important change. London closed with spot at £130 12s 6d and futures at £126 17s 6d. At New York the spot price was $28 30@28 60. Copper was active at New York and steady at about yesterday's closing prices. The sales included 100 tons standard for July delivery at $11 15@11 17½; 50 tons September and 50 tons October at $11 15, and 200,000 pounds electrolytic for June to September delivery at $11 65. At London the copper market was 2s 6d higher, with spot and futures at £52 15s. Lead was steady and unchanged here at 4⅛c, and London was unchanged at £11 13s 9d. Spelter was firm at $4 42½ here and London was 2s 6d better at £18 5s. Iron was steady to firm here, but unchanged. Pig iron warrants nominal; No. 1 foundry northern quoted $19 00@20 00; No. 2 foundry northern, $18 00@19 00; No. 2 foundry southern, $17 50@18 00; No. 1 foundry southern, soft, $17 50@18 00. The English markets were firm, with Glasgow at 53s 7d and Middlesboro at 48s 4½d.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, May 2.—The stock market received a shaking out this afternoon which had been considered overdue for some time by competent observers of conditions. As usual the construction of the money supply is the immediate cause of the fall in prices. Needless to say the ground has been prepared by the manipulation of speculative pools and cliques, with a resulting inflation in prices which gave purely fictitious values in the whole list.

The lesson of the International Power episode was reinforced today by the example of another group which has been lifted recently by highly manipulative tactics with practically no general demand for the securities. The abrupt break to par of Rutland preferred, compared with 120 yesterday, was the sufficient indication on the stock exchange of the state of distrust which had arisen. The displacing of credits which resulted from the discrimination against collateral for loans caused a lively disturbance in the money market, which was already in a tight condition.

Money Brought Good Prices.

Some of the largest of the banks loaned very freely at an arbitrary rate of 6 per cent, but this did not prevent an active demand at a higher range of rates all the way up to 10 per cent.

The forecast for a weak bank statement did not give promise of any immediate relief from the strained condition of the money market. Indications point to a loss of cash by the banks of nearly $3,000,000, in spite of receipts on balance from the interior, and owing to the sub-treasury requirements of $4,134,000. The steadiness of the foreign exchange market at near the gold export point was also regarded ominously as threatening a possible further complication next week. The calling for payment of a 25 per cent installment of subscriptions to the steamship merger syndicate will require next week an amount approximating $7,500,000, on the supposition that 60 per cent of the subscriptions are payable in New York and 40 per cent abroad. There are other heavy requirements imminent, including the disbursement of the dividend to the United States Steel underwriting syndicate. That there were some heavy transactions carried through yesterday was indicated by the large clearings of the banks, which reached about $417,000,000 for the day.

Bull Syndicate Overpowered.

The weakness of the market was contested for a time, apparently by the element which has led the speculation for some time. They had to contend with large western orders to sell. The notable strength of Louisville, which touched 139¾, was attributed to the maneuvers of this element and said to be facilitated by the existence of a short interest. Early strength in Pennsylvania was also a help. In the late dealings all attempt to support the market was abandoned and stocks were unloaded indiscriminately, causing a break in prices which reached as high as 3 per cent and under in the majority of active stocks. St. Paul suffered to the extent of 4⅛; Canadian Pacific and other less conspicuous stocks from 3 to 7. International Power continued its eccentric gyrations, which extended from 102 to 85, with a net loss of 13 points. Heavy profit taking by the room shorts caused some spasmodic rallies, but the closing was weak and semi-demoralized. Minor considerations were obliterated by the importance attached to the money outlook.

The bond market shared the weakness of the stock market, but in a much less degree. Total sales par value, $3,220,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

Dun's Review of Trade

LABOR DISPUTES A HINDRANCE TO SPRING BUYING

They Exert Considerable Adverse Influence on Volume of Trade.

COLLECTIONS ARE PROMPT

Railway Congestion Slightly Less Marked—Bessemer Pig at Pittsburgh Brings $20 a Ton—Shoe Business Picking Up.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, May 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Two large strikes scheduled to commence May 1 were averted at least temporarily and a number of smaller ones were settled, but many new controversies have begun. This labor factor is the only seriously unfavorable one in the industrial situation, exerting considerable influence over the volume of transactions, and also tending to unsettle confidence. In seasonable merchandise, especially dry goods and clothing, warmer weather has stimulated dealings while outdoor work is prosecuted vigorously. Collections are more prompt as a rule, fewer extensions being asked. Shipments are less delayed by traffic congestion and railway earnings thus far reported for April exceed last year's by 7.2 per cent.

Consumers of finished steel products are compelled to place orders subject to the convenience of manufacturers and it is the exception when any early deliveries are promised. An unprecedented amount of railway work is being done while the erection of new buildings would be much more extensive if material were available. This structural work is on a record-breaking scale and promises relief to the situation hereafter, since many of the plants under consideration will add to the productive capacity when completed.

Bessemer Pig at $20.

Pig iron has worked up to a higher point, Bessemer commanding $20 at Pittsburgh on deliveries within six months, owing to the full contracts held by the furnaces. Foreign dealers have shown much wisdom by making concessions in this market.

A better volume of orders taken by New England shoe shops is one of the most encouraging signs of the week. Slight concessions were made on a few grades, but the general level of quotations is fairly well maintained. Jobbers are still slow to place fall orders, hoping that better terms may be possible next month. Steadiness in the leather market does not tend to encourage expectations of cheaper shoes, however, especially in view of the firmness of domestic hides, with another rise in imported grades. Exports of leather continue larger than a year ago.

Jobbers in dry goods have felt the effects of good weather and a brisk trade has been done at steady prices, although no general advance has followed the rise in raw cotton or the restricted operations at woolen mills. Weak silver has continued to militate against exports to China. Overtime work at independent mills is partially neutralizing the effect of the weavers' strike.

Exports of Cereals.

Cereal prices have been less inflated by speculation than they were last week, yet a high level was maintained and only slight reactions occurred. The general tenor of crop news was much more encouraging, aside from Kansas dispatches which indicate that wheat needs moisture, although corn and oats have good prospects. Good foreign crop conditions were calculated to weaken the tone, yet exports of wheat from the United States, flour included, amounted to 5,579,357 bushels, against 4,132,357 a year ago. Recent attractive prices have brought corn to market more freely than in preceding weeks, but receipts of 1,686,059 bushels for the week fell far short of the 2,378,564 in the same week last year. The comparison as to Atlantic exports is still more striking, only 154,704 bushels going out during the week, against 2,360,211 a year ago. Cotton continued advancing until there was a gain of $8 10 a bale over last year's figure, when a trifling reaction occurred, but the tone continued strong.

Failures in the United States this week were 225, against 212 last week, 261 the preceding week and 226 the corresponding week last year, and in Canada 17, against 18 last week, 24 the preceding week and 24 last year.

Sellers of Cereals Were the Winners

RAIN SCARE A POTENT WEAPON IN BEAR HANDS

Prevented Bull Campaign in Wheat by Being Used Judiciously.

BAD SLUMP IN CORN PIT

Ideal Growing Weather and Willingness of Farmers to Sell Were the Influential Factors—Oats Also Felt the Depressing Influence.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Chicago, May 2.—Wheat pursued an erratic course today, influenced by news of a diversified character. The undertone in the main was strong, but fears of rain in Kansas and a bad slump in corn turned the market weak and July wheat closed ⅜c lower, July corn 1⅝c depressed and July oats ⅞c lower. Provisions closed unchanged to 5c higher.

Firm cables, too much rain in the spring wheat country and continued drought in Kansas brought a slight upturn early in wheat. Bears, however, soon attacked the market on the depression of a dull corn market and reports of excellent conditions in wheat country, where rains had fallen. Prices slipped off, but were at once buoyed up again by good buying on the decline. Cash business was improving, clearances were fair and experts had the Kansas crop damaged 75 per cent. July, which had opened a shade to ⅛@¼c higher at 77@77⅛c and sold off to 76½c, soon jumped to 77⅛c. The early outside markets had been weak, but improved somewhat, export business was reported good and material strength was manifested. Then came another attack by the bears on fears of rains in Kansas.

Receipts and Shipments.

Corn continued to decline and wheat sold off—July dipped again to 76½c and closed weak ⅛@⅜c lower at 76⅛@76⅜c. Local receipts were 14 cars, two of contract grade; Minneapolis and Duluth reported 248 cars, making a total for the three points of 292 cars, against 134 last week and 260 a year ago. Argentine shipments were 1,012,000 bushels, compared to 800,000 bushels a year ago. Primary receipts were 336,000 bushels, against 382,000 bushels last year. Seaboard clearances in wheat and flour equaled 447,000 bushels. The seaboard reported 10½ loads taken for export.

Corn was dull all session and because of its inertness slumped badly. Wheat momentarily brought strength, but the absence of support was more than the market could withstand, considering the very bearish news that was coming in from the fields. The weather was ideal for growth and farmers were sending their stuff to market more freely than of late. Cables were indifferent and Argentine shipments bullishly large. Late, after the wheat support had been lost, bears began selling short. July slumped from 63⅝c to a weak close at the bottom price of the day, 1⅝c lower at 62⅛@62¼c. Receipts were 184 cars.

Oats Felt the Depression.

Oats were weakened by the depression in other grains. There was some fair buying by commission houses at times and wheat gave some support. The late weakness, however, depressed prices, and in the view of good farm reports July closed weak, ⅞c lower at 36⅜c. Receipts were 184 cars.

Provisions showed marked strength early, but lost much of the gain near the close on liquidation for profits. The hog market was strong at the yards because of the light run of hogs. There was good covering of short accounts in products and packers also supported. July pork sold at $17 20 and closed 5c up at $17 02½; July lard closed 5c higher at $10 15 and July ribs unchanged at $9 50.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 35 cars; corn, 150 cars; oats, 205 cars; hogs, 13,000 head.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

The new Gordon sand district in Marion and Wetzel counties is making a good showing and a considerable volume of new production can be looked for from that quarter. In the extreme southwest end of the development the South Penn Oil Company has drilled in its No. 1 on the Fairfield Peterson farm and has a good producer. The well placed 375 barrels to its credit the first 24 hours after it was drilled into the pay streak. No. 3 on this farm was drilled in a few weeks ago and is producing 100 barrels a day. The location is a mile southwest of the No. 1 on the Jacob Cunningham farm and more than two miles southwest of the gusher on the W. N. Cunningham farm.

In the Fish Creek district, Marshall county, the South Penn Oil Company's No. 2 on the L. N. Shep farm is holding up at 240 barrels a day. No. 5 on the D. Boner farm is drilling in the sand and showing for a small well. John Mason No. 1 has been drilled into the Gordon and made a 25-barrel flow. No. 1 on the D. Boner farm is holding up at 215 barrels a day and Nos. 2 and 3 on the Boyd-Burley farm at 200 and 100 barrels a day respectively.

In the Little Germany district Nos. 9 and 10 on the Breiding heirs farm have been drilled into the Gordon and each is showing for 25 barrels a day.

No. 1 on the Jacob Rerfox heirs' farm is holding up at 220 barrels a day and is the only well in this district producing 100 or more barrels a day.

In the Jarvisvile district, Harrison county, the South Penn has drilled in its No. 9 on the A. Matthey farm and has a show of oil. No. 7 on the same farm has been shot and is good for 30 barrels a day.

West of Wallace the South Penn has drilled in No. 2 on the J. M. Pratt farm and the hole has filled up 1,000 feet with fluid. In the same district the test well on the G. E. Kirthbaugh farm has been drilled into the sand and is showing some oil.

In the shallow sand territory in Wood county, the Rider Oil Company has completed its No. 3 on the John Rider farm and has a duster in the first Cow Run sand.

In the Cave Run district, Pleasants county, the Carter Oil Company has completed No. 2 on the W. J. Shingleton farm and has a show for a 10 or 15-barrel pumper.

Northeast of the Salem district in Harrison county, the South Penn Company has completed its test well on the J. R. Dennison farm and has a duster.

Southeastern Ohio.

In the new Keener sand development, near Jerusalem, Monroe county, Ohio, the Unity Oil Company's good luck continues. It has drilled in its test well on the Shannon Jones farm, located 500 feet northeast of the Harper farm producer, and has a show for a 150-barrel producer. This is the Unity Company's third producer in that development, and if the last well is as good as reported, gives this a production of 440 barrels a day from the three wells.

In the Macksburg field, Washington county, the Consolidated Oil & Mining Company has drilled its No. 2 on the Fred Stegner farm into the Second Cow Run sand and has a 20-barrel pumper.

In the Corning district, Perry county, the F. P. Kintz Oil Company has completed a test well on the M. L. Deavor farm and has a small pumper.

On Wolf creek, Morgan county, A. A. Cameron has drilled his No. 3 on the L. A. Randall farm through the sand and has a duster.

In the Chester Hill district the National Oil Company of New York has completed its No. 3 on Uriah Brooks farm and has a small pumper.

Local Developments.

In the Murdocksville extension in Washington County, Pa., the Hanover Oil Company has completed No. 4 on the McCullough farm and No. 4 on the Dornan farm. The first is a 10-barrel pumper and the last is good for 25 barrels a day.

Farmers Deposit National bank advanced $150 to $1,150, the highest price ever paid for a Pittsburgh bank's stock.

Union National bank advanced $74 75 to $1,000 bid, a new high record. None offered.

Westinghouse Electric seconds broke to 107 and closed 108. Loss $3.

Westinghouse Airbrake was $3 lower at $186.

Window Glass common sold 350 shares at 61¾.

Crucible Steel closed at 22⅝ and the preferred at 86⅜ bid.

United States Steel closed at 41½ and the preferred at 92.

Fire Proofing common was ⅝ higher at 36¾.

Philadelphia common declined ½ to 49½.

The volume of trading on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday was just a little better than "poor," and the market was dull, irregular, nervous and unsettled. At the close it was a shade steadier but still very dull. The members of the banking group came in for a good deal of attention and scored some record-breaking prices. The Farmers Deposit National bank advanced $150 a share to $1,150 for four shares, which is higher than any Pittsburgh bank stock ever before reached. Union National bank did not sell, but was bid up $74 75 to $1,000 a share without any offers. The Second National bank of Allegheny went up $50 to $350 for five shares, also a new high record. This was the first public sale since January 10, 1901, when 10 shares brought 300. Some time ago 330 was bid, but none of the stock was offered. A special meeting of the stockholders to take action on the proposed increase in the capital stock from $150,000 to $300,000 will be held Monday. The new stock is to be put out at $350 a share, of which $250 a share will go to surplus. Union Trust Company also made a new high record by advancing $15 to $865 bid, no offers occurring under $1,200. American Trust sold $1 lower at 125, and Pennsylvania Trust was $4 lower at 231. United Realty Trust rallied ½ to $137 50 and Federal National bank was steady and unchanged at 136¾@137. Equitable Trust offered lower at 167½.

The industrial group offered the bears some sport, especially the Westinghouse interests, which suffered quite severely just before the close. Electric seconds started at 111 and broke to 107, but rallied to 108, a loss of $3. The firsts did not sell, but closed at 109 bid, against sales at 112¾ Thursday. Westinghouse Airbrake closed $3 lower at $186 and Switch & Signal common ½ lower at 94½, after seven shares had sold at 95. The steel stocks were dull and rather heavy. Crucible common dragged through the day at 22⅝@22½ and the preferred ranged at 86⅜@86½. United States Steel common opened weak and for a time looked almost demoralized, but soon quieted and remained dull and rather weak to the close, which was at 41½, a loss of ⅝. After the last sale it offered still lower at 41⅜. The preferred was unchanged at 92. Fire Proofing common opened at 36⅛ and came out freely at 36. Just before the close it rallied sharply to 36¾, a gain of ⅝ for the day. The sales were 1,755 shares. The preferred was heavy at 41½@41 for 450 shares. Philadelphia common was less active and ½ lower at 49½. Ice common advanced $1 to 15, but many selling orders stopped the advance. River Coal preferred was heavy at 42¾ for 450 shares. Bonds were dull but about steady.

The following is a complete summary of yesterday's official transactions on the Pittsburgh stock exchange. It shows the change in the closing selling prices, compared with the last preceding sales, the total sales of each security, the opening, high, low and closing prices and final bids and offers:

International Power had another severe break yesterday afternoon and there was also decided pressure on American Locomotive issues.

During the forenoon E. Fink sold 750 National Fire Proofing common and 250 preferred. Hill, Schmidt, Speer Bros. and Wettengel bought.

Sproul & Co. and Robinson Bros were still the largest buyers of Philadelphia Company issues. Speer Bros. and R. J. Stoney, Jr., also secured some.

It was officially announced that the Morgan-Griscom syndicate has sent out a call for 20 per cent of the amount subscribed by the underwriting syndicate of the new steamship combination, payable May 5.

Louisville & Nashville was decidedly strong in the afternoon, going up to nearly 140, the advance being ascribed to manipulation by the Gates party directed against the short interest in the stock. 160 is talked of.

Joshua Rhodes has resigned the presidency of the Allegheny National bank and also from the board of directors. The resignation was due to press of other business. Mr. Rhodes being the president of the Colonial Trust Company.

London was a seller in Wall street to the extent of about 15,000 shares. It is stated that the prospect of a speedy peace in South Africa is making London operators anxious to get out of Americans and to transfer their attention to the Kaffir mining department of that market.

Application has been made to the New York stock exchange to list $1,000,000 additional first consolidated mortgages 4½ per cent bonds of 1999 of the Hocking Valley Railway Company and $400,000 additional 4 per cent debenture stock of the Chicago Great Western Railway Company.

Subscriptions for the new New York Central stock closed Thursday. Payment for the amount subscribed must be made May 12. Certificates of stock for the amount so paid will be issued on that date and the stock will be entitled to receive all dividends payable after April 15. It is said the subscriptions for the new stock were very heavy.

There have been some quite peculiar movements in Consolidated Ice common during the last few weeks and yesterday another illustration of its erraticness was given. A broker who sold it Wednesday at 14, having bought it freely a short time ago at 15, yesterday turned buyer again at 15. There were many offers at that price and the buying stopped as quickly as it started.

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania railroad are considered to be one of the most conservative and best informed body of men in the country. The fact that they have raised the dividend rate on the stock from 5 to 6 per cent is evidence that they are persuaded that under any and all circumstances that rate can be maintained. Many of the best judges of values consider Pennsylvania on earnings, management and physical condition to be the cheapest stock in America. It seems to me that whenever active operations are again begun for a bull campaign Pennsylvania is marked out for a leader. It is worth more than St. Paul and a great deal more than Rock Island. On any kind of a market there ought to be 20 points in it.—Evans.

The continued higher money rates (loans being made at 10 per cent) produced an unfavorable effect on the Wall street market in the afternoon, which was greatly aggravated by the very bad break that took place on the curb in some of the stocks which have of late been marked up to such exaggerated figures. Although these stocks are not widely distributed some institutions have, nevertheless, been lending money on them and the effect of recent developments has been to make the banks scrutinize collateral more closely. Liquidation on quite an extensive scale started in during the last hour and prices sold off rapidly. It is thought this liquidation may have to continue for some little time.

Dividends.

The West End Savings bank declared its regular semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent payable forthwith.

The directors of the Empire State Idaho Mining & Development Company declared a monthly dividend of ½ per cent on the outstanding capital stock, payable May 15.

Peoples Gas directors declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent, payable May 24.

A quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on Northern Pacific stock was declared. This is the first dividend declaration since the stock was turned over to the Northern Securities Company, and is an increase of ½ per cent over the previous quarterly payment.

The Edmundson-Pertine Company directors have declared the regular quarterly dividend of $1 50 per share on the preferred stock and $2 25 per share on the common stock, payable May 10. Checks will be mailed.

Fruits and Produce.

The potato market is not quite so stiff as it was here, although at shipping points there is no inclination on the part of holders to make concessions. The top price from store with a number of jobbers is $1 20, and some claim to be selling considerably below that figure, while there are others who declare they are holding firm at $1 30. Conservative viewers of the situation think the top for the season has probably been reached, although the market is very hard to understand this spring, close observers failing to understand why the present level of quotations has been reached, when stock seems to be as plentiful as it is. Other lines show scarcely any quotable change.

Stock Farm Secured by Pittsburghers

A WOOD STREET BLOCK CHANGES HANDS AGAIN

It Is No. 516 and Was Sold to Stanislaus Zoch for $64,000.

MANORFIELD FARM SOLD

A Carson Street Lot Brings $35,000. East End and "Hump" Properties Sell for $16,000 Each—One Hundred Lots at Sheraden Bought.

The property at No. 516 Wood street has changed hands again for a consideration of $64,000. Stanislaus Zoch, proprietor of the White Star restaurant at No. 514 Wood street, has acquired the property from Frank J. Lanahan. The lot has a frontage of 15 feet 7 inches on the east side of Wood street between Fifth avenue and Virgin alley, and a depth of 60 feet. It is improved with a three-story brick and stone building, occupied until lately by the Cavanagh Company, brokers. Mr. Lanahan purchased the property in January from the Holstein heirs, through the Real Estate Trust Company. At that time it was announced that two additional stories would be built, but it is said this could not be done on account of a party wall. The property is now vacant.

Wickliffe C. Lyne has sold to James Kuntz, Jr., a plot of vacant frontage in the Twenty-fifth ward for $35,000. The lot measures 120x130 feet on the south side of Carson street, near Twenty-fourth street, and was formerly owned by Theodore R. Hostetter.

Ready to Feed Pittsburghers.

The famous Manorfield stock farm at Manor station, on the Pennsylvania railroad, has changed hands for a price approximating $100,000. The farm consists of 250 acres of fine land situated 20 miles from Pittsburgh, and has been known for years as one of the best stock farms in Western Pennsylvania. It is stocked with about 200 head of blooded cattle, and is provided with excellent farm buildings. The purchase price includes the entire outfit. For some time the farm has been owned by the Manorfield Stock and Farm Company. Title to it will now be vested in a new company, for which a charter was asked yesterday, which will be known as the Manorfield Farm Company, with a capital of $250,000. It is the intention of the new owners to make a specialty of garden products for the Pittsburgh market. The dairy products of the farm have been famous in this city for years, the milk selling at 10 cents per quart bottle. The sale of the farm and the organization of the new company has been made by the Public Trust Company.

Three Averages Sales.

A fine 10-room residence at the northeast corner of Shady and Hastings avenues, Twenty-seventh ward, has been sold by Phillip Eichenlaub to Hugh Murphy for $16,000. The lot has a frontage of 100 feet and a depth of 170 feet.

Through the agency of Henry Arnold & Co. the property at No. 1641 Fifth avenue has been sold for $15,000. The former owner was W. A. Scott and the purchaser was M. Supervitz. The property consists of a lot, 20x90 feet, on which is erected a three-story brick building containing a store room and two flats.

Another sale in the "hump" district was announced yesterday, the property in question being that at Nos. 75 and 77 Chatham street. The lot purchased has a frontage of 30 feet on the south side of Chatham street, near Fifth avenue, and a depth of 96 feet to State alley. It is improved with four brick houses, two standing on each end of the lot. The transfer was made from J. J. Boyle and T. M. Shannon to C. H. Adelman, who takes the property for an investment. The consideration was $16,000 or over $200 a foot, for the Chatham street frontage, making it the best sale in the "hump" district for some time.

Wool.

BOSTON, May 2.—The Commercial Bulletin will say in tomorrow's report of the wool trade of the United States:

Wool is in moderate demand and prices are barely sustained. The long depression is telling on holders and there is more pressure to sell. Medium wools have sold at the lowest figures since last January.

Western markets are active, with spirited competition between buyers for the new clip, and full prices paid everywhere averaging 2 cents higher than last year. The grower is profiting through this competition.

Foreign markets firm and quiet, awaiting the opening of the London auction sales Tuesday.

The receipts of wool in Boston since January 1, 1902, have been 81,712,638 pounds, against 48,910,556 pounds for the same period in 1901. The stock on hand in Boston January 1, 1902, was 77,340,463 pounds; the total stock today is 69,873,279 pounds. The stock on hand May 4, 1901, was 41,281,606 pounds.

FIGHT OVER CHILDREN.

Owen Kruse and His Wife Each Wishes to Secure Them.

A woman who gave her name as Mrs. Kate Kruse, and her home as Tarentum, applied to the Humane society yesterday for aid in the recovery of three of her children, stolen by their father.

Owen Kruse of Bower Hill was in Pittsburgh last night. He said he was the man who was charged with stealing children. According to his story the woman is not the proper person to have the children and he will go to the office of the Humane society today to give information in regard to both the woman and himself. He has got two of their five children and the wife got a third one back yesterday.

M'KINLEY FUNERAL EXPENSES.

Including Doctors' Bills, They Probably Will Be Paid by Uncle Sam.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.—(Special.)—Congress will pay the funeral expenses of the late President McKinley, including the doctors' bills. An item is to be inserted in the urgent deficiency bill, now under consideration by the house committee on appropriations, which provides for an appropriation for $50,000 to defray the expenses attending the death and burial of the late president.

It is understood that an agreement has been reached whereby $31,000 of the amount to be appropriated shall go to the physicians, and the remainder will be used to defray the funeral expenses. Friends of the dead president have been consulted on this matter. Statements of all the expenses incurred were submitted to the committee and the amount named will cover all obligations of the government.

THE TREASURY FEARS THE CUT WAS TOO DEEP

The Surplus for April a Little Below What Was Estimated in Congress.

PRECAUTIONS ARE TAKEN

Receipts and Expenditures May Run Neck and Neck—Secretary Shaw Determines to Suspend, for the Present, Further Bank Deposits.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
603 Fifteenth St., N. W.
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 2.

There is some doubt in the treasury department as to what is going to be the financial showing of the government during the next fiscal year. Congress, by repeal of the war revenue taxes, has deducted from the income of the treasury during the next fiscal year an estimated sum of $75,000,000.

The repeal of these taxes was made on the belief of financial experts in congress that the surplus for this fiscal year would run anywhere from $90,000,000 to $300,000,000. It was thought there would be a balance in the treasury at the close of the next fiscal year of from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000. Neither Secretary Shaw nor ex-Secretary Gage approved of so deep a cut in the revenues, believing that the margin between the annual receipts and the expenditures would be too small to be comfortable. The question now is whether the surplus this fiscal year is going to be as large as estimated in congress.

The month of April just passed shows that the surplus was only $4,416,127, when a much larger surplus was expected. Should May and June show surpluses very little above that of April the total surplus for the year would be only $75,000,000. This would make a neck-and-neck race during the year between receipts and expenditures.

Secretary Shaw personally expresses no uneasiness. He is taking the precaution, however, to conserve his means. He recently announced that he would grant to national bank depositories this month about $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 of government money, and that after this month he will put out no more government money until he ascertains something about the operations of the receipt and expense account during the fiscal year. His action is merely a precaution.

Secretary Shaw believes that $65,000,000 is sufficient in the treasury itself to meet the daily and monthly transactions of business when the receipts every month exceed expenditures; but he feels that he would like to start the new year with a bigger sum than that. So he will keep in the treasury the money hereafter, instead of putting it out with the banks.

Stylish Clothes Are a Great Help

To the man who wants to "get on." A bungled coat or baggy pair of trousers don't create a good impression, yet the man who wears them paid as much for them as his smarter rival, dressed in fashion and taste. It all depends where you buy your clothes. The fact that every suit in our stock is of the latest make and has been cut to fit perfectly does not add to its expense to you. It would, if our outlet was limited, but, being the largest in the state, we can well afford to sell our perfect clothes for the same, yes, and for less money, than the same qualities, but inferior styles, can be bought elsewhere.

Suits at $7 and $10.
But for a happy chance of trade that placed these Suits into our hands at one-third less than their value, we could not sell them below $10 and $14, respectively. But here they are at only $7 and $10. Pure Worsteds, Clay Diagonals, Fancy Cheviots and Homespuns, Serges and Wide Wales. Coats well trimmed, so that they'll keep their shape and Pants cut in the new tapering or straight styles.

Suits at $12 and $15.
Everything about these Suits is hand-tailored; no hasty machine work anywhere, and, more than this, they're made of such excellent Woolens as Scotch, Black and White Tweeds and Cheviots, Unfinished Worsteds and Oxfords. If, in spite of these facts we offer them at $12 and $15, it is because of the unrivaled facilities enjoyed by "The Big Store."

Suits at $18 and $20.
These are absolutely high-class Suits, equal in quality and superior in fit and style to those offered elsewhere at from $5.00 to $10.00 more money. Try them on, examine them carefully, and, if you're a judge of good clothes, we know what you'll say. All different colors and patterns and all styles of Coats, including Prince Alberts, among them.

Suits at $25 and $30.
It was for the express purpose of competing with the most fashionable merchant tailors that we had these finest of fine garments made up. They are ready made in name only; they are custom made in fact, for the materials are the choicest imported from Europe, and each Suit has been cut by an artist cutter. Tailors charge from $30 to $60 for the same goods.

No End of Stylish Spring Overcoats at Same Prices as Above Suits.
